Race Scene in "Old Kentucky."

"Old Kentucky," the popular welcome drama of southwest, is presented again at opera house to night.
It is certainly one of the able melodramas ever is now in the fifteenth season of its career on stage. Time, that ranger of dramatic life, arm it, fate always plays stands in the front rank its own with the best of plays of the day. The the piece lies in its personality and vigor. Its plot is simple and direct, attractiveness does not de-ray passing fad, and its stage scene has for its that most stirring concrete race. There is nothing or fading in the whole play. For that reason it is as good today as it was yesterday, and as good yesterday as fifteen years ago when it was first produced. The tale of the wild flower maid of the Kentucky mountains, Madge Brierly, is nearly as well known as that of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Any detailed description of how Madge saves her lover's life by swinging across a chasm on a slender rope and later saves his wealth by riding his jockeyless race-horse to victory is quite unnecessary. Then there is a wonderful barnyard scene wherein a score of little pickaninnies prove very entertaining in their singing, dancing and performing on brass instruments. The same wise judgment in furnishing an adequate production and a competent cast that has always marked the presentation of "In Old Kentucky" will be maintained as long as it continues its career on the American stage.

game will be a very evenly matched station to another, and save time and trouble for everybody. But it would not be so handy to the brewery.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, rapid liver with indigestion, and, perhaps, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. H. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof.
H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensary; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof.
Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.
