His Fingers Mashed—

W. J. Howard, a laborer employed by the Warren Construction Company, met with a painful accident this morning, while helping to move a boiler on Winter street, to the company's construction plant. He was trying to straighten a roller, when, in some way, he caught his hand under it mashing three of his fingers, one being broken. He was immediately taken to the Willamette sanitarium. One of his fingers will probably have to be amputated at the first joint. Mr. Howard has lived in Salem the past three years, at present his home being on the corner of Bush and Liberty streets.

Remember—

Cleveland's Baking Powder, in 3-lb cans, only cost $1.00, and 5-lb can $1.65. Both these cans have the metal handle under the regular cover. They are useful when empty. 10-7-1m

A FINE ORATOR.

And a Logic Reasoner Is Victor Dorris, and All Should Hear Him.

Victor Dorris, at the First Christian church, attracted, entertained and edified another splendid audience last night. "The World's Savior on His Knees" was the theme, and it gave the noted evangelist an opportunity to display his powers of eloquence and tenderness. In the discussion Mr. Dorris took positions not common to the usual mind in the religious teaching of today, but he appealed to sober thought and judgment, and asked for the closest investigation and scrutiny as to his logical and scriptural application of the theme. And so, whether one differ with him or not, it is difficult to not credit him with strong and manly ideals and conclusions concerning any question he hadles. The people listened with evident interest and it is certain from many expressions that good seed was sown, and promises a harvest of intelligent and luxuriant fruitage. Tonight the evangelist will discuss the mooted question "What is Baptism?" And the people can come to hear without fear of dogmatism or abuse. And while the religious world is somewhat divided here, it is the fair and many discussion of such things that bring great minds and hearts together in common unity. Tomorrow night Mr. Dorris will have for a theme "Righteousness." The people are cordially invited to hear these great questions discussed by a master mind.

MARION COUNTY ORCHARDS

What They Have Done and Promises They Make for the Future

Fruit Inspector C. E. Armstrong recently finished a canvas of the county to collect statistics for the 1907 fruit crop and trees contained in nursery stock. He approximates the value of this year's fruit output at $393,400, and the number of fruit trees ready for sale, ornamental vines, seedlings, plants, etc., at 2,918,000. The general conditions of the orchards in the county is good and a growing interest is being shown in the fruit industry in all sections. In the Rosedale vicinity alone Mr. Armstrong estimates that at least 1000 acres of prune trees were put out last year, and the prospects are that as many trees will be planted this year.

The apple crop this year is far below the standard for Marion county, being only about one-fourth of a crop. While in a few sections the apple orchards have produced more fruit than usual, the output of the county is far short of the average.

The report which Mr. Armstrong gives approximating the fruit resources if the county is as follows:

Apples, bushels, 5000.....	$ 12,500
Pears, pounds, 300,000.....	6,000
Prunes, pounds,	375,000
Strawberries, pounds, 250,000.....	9,000
Raspberries, pounds, 150,000.....	6,000
Blackberries, pounds, 60,000.....	7,500
Loganberries, pounds, 485,000.....	14,000
Cherries, pounds, 225,000.....	39,000
Grapes, pounds, 25,000.....	1,250
Peaches (boxes) 2500.....	3,000
Dried raspberries, pounds, 2400.....	600

Total

Trees Ready for Sale.

Fruit trees	1,598,000
Ornamental trees, vines, etc	561,500
Seedling plants, etc	758,500
Total	2,918,000

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY 'VARSITY'

High School Meets Willamette On Latter's Grounds Tomorrow

The high school football team will play their first game Friday afternoon, when they line up against

CAPTAIN R. C. FOLWELL
Football hero, who is in charge of the University of Pennsylvania eleven.

the Willamette 'varsity team on Willamette field. The Willamette team will be the same as when they played Washington here Monday, with the exception of Nace and Kirby, who will be out of it on account of injuries received in their last game. It is a general prediction that the game will be a very evenly matched contest, as the high school team, under Bishops coaching, is developing wonderfully, and in a couple of night's scrimmage practices with Willamette last week held the big team down to an extent that surprised everyone. Willamette, however, will play her hardest tomorrow, and if the high school expects to score, or even hold them down, they will have to do some fast playing.

The high school team has not yet been definitely picked, but will be after this game, when Coach Bishop can see what his men are worth in real action. There are about 25 high school boys out now, and all are making a lively scramble for a place on the first team. A large crowd will witness the game tomorrow.

Don't Go It Blind!

Many people do, when they are buying shoes.

Some go into the first shoe store they come to and take most any pair of shoes the salesman says "fit."

Other shoe buyers are attracted by the price, alone. This is folly.

The safe buyer will come here and be correctly fitted with the best shoes, pay a fair price, and be happy ever afterwards.

Shoes for Men, for Women, for Children, for everybody.

Satisfaction and shoes go in the same package here.
