MAUDE DRANK CARBOLIC

Stockton, Cal., Oct. 21.—Because her husband failed to come to supper when she called him, Mrs. Maude Lasswell committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. When supper had grown cold in waiting, Lasswell entered the house from his work at the barn. When he did so his wife jumped up from her chair, darted from the house and ran across the field. Lasswell followed. His wife stopped, turned and said: "I have a bottle of carbolic acid here, and if you follow me I will drink it." Her husband tried to reason with her, but in vain. Finally he leaped forward to dash the bottle from her lips, but the wife was too quick, and drank the contents, dying in a few minutes.

The Fight Postponed.
Chicago, Oct. 21.—Stuvasent Fish has won a temporary victory, at least, over E. H. Harriman for the control of the Illinois Central. Harriman's attorney today formally admitted the defeat of their plan to control the election without the shares tied by injunction. At 1 o'clock this morning, after all-night conferences attorneys for both sides signed an agreement postponing the stockholders' meeting until December 15. The next battle will be in the courts over the 286,731 shares enjoined by Fish. Harriman will seek to have the injunction dissolved. Action to do this will probably be started this afternoon. Fish is jubilant. "If the injunction is not dissolved," he said, "we win."

Every Month in the Year
Brings its current bills. One way to pay them is to go from place to place, carrying the money with you, at the risk of loss and the chance of overlooking the taking of a receipt, and having some of it to pay over again. The convenient but less-like way is to pay all bills by check, no matter how small. A check is the best receipt you can have. Paying out money in this way insures correctness and gives you a complete record of all money paid out. Open a Checking Account With Us.

A WOMAN'S BACK.
The Aches and Pains Will Disappear if the Advice of This Salem Citizen Is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Many Salem women know this. Read what one has to say about it:

Mrs. B. Schreiber, of 560 High St., Salem, Or., says: "The good reports I had heard concerning Doan's Kidney Pills induced me to procure a supply. I had been suffering from incessant backache which not only troubled me through the day but broke my rest at night. I began to feel the effects of Doan's Kidney Pills after I had taken a few doses. Relief speedily came and then an absolute cure. There has been no sign of the backache nor any other symptoms since. I am only too pleased to let others know of such a valuable and effective remedy."

U. OF O. BEATS PACIFIC
First Half 34 to 0. Total 52 to 0—A Divided Drubbing

The Pacific university football team received a terrible drubbing at the hands of the University of Oregon eleven on Kincald gridiron Saturday afternoon. From the first it was plainly evident that Oregon would pile up a huge score against the lighter team from Pacific, but it must be said that the team did not show up as strong as the fans expected, and they will have to be considerable improvement before the big games come off.

The first half ended with the score of 34 for Oregon and nothing for Pacific. There were six touchdowns and four goals kicked, the first two being missed. Zacharias scored the first touchdown and Clarke soon followed afterwards with the second. Zacharias made the third after a sensational 84-yard run. Moores intercepted a forward pass by Pacific and ran 80 yards for the fourth touchdown. Clarke made the next two and the half soon afterward ended.

In the second half Coach Frost put in his entire second team, and during the game the entire squad was used. Three touchdowns were made by Oregon in the second half and all goals were kicked, scoring 18 points. Pacific at no time came within scoring distance. Taylor and Clarke each scored a touchdown and a second team man made the third in this half.—Eugene Register.

ASHES ON ALASKAN ISLAND.
Remarkable Phenomenon Described by Alaskan Papers.

The Seward Gateway says of the remarkable shower of volcanic ashes reported in the Alaskan islands some weeks ago:

The ashes which the steamer Olympia carried to Nome from a peninsula volcano were not from Perry Island, or any of the Bogoslov group, as reported in the cable news, but from a nameless peak on Unmak Island, west of Unalaska.

Mount Makushin, on Unalaska Island, is also having one of its intermittent periods of smoking up, and the man who sent out the story from Nome that there was a shower of ashes from Perry Island must have been smoking up also.

This information is brought by Captain Pond and other officers of the Buffalo, and District Attorney L. V. Ray, who came home on the cruiser from Unalaska, where he went to wind up the Japanese poaching cases.

All were somewhat surprised when they read in the Gateway cable dispatches that the Olympia had weathered a storm of volcanic ashes while passing the peninsula and that the men on board had panned fine gold from ashes which fell on her deck. A few stray ashes fell upon the Buffalo, but nobody aboard was thought fool enough to sift gold out of the debris, and it was carelessly swept overboard.

The peak in recent eruption is 100 miles west of Unalaska and plainly visible as far as Unimak pass. It is pouring out a large volume of smoke and ashes. Mount Makushin seems to be on a sympathetic strike, but is not doing much.

The first eruption made a shower of ashes which covered Unalaska and Dutch Harbor two inches deep. The native inhabitants were terror-stricken and ran wildly about in the belief that the world was about to see its finish.

His Dear Old Mother.
"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by J. C. Perry, druggist, 50c.

"What has become of that Japanese war cloud?" asks a contemporary. It is being exhibited daily on the Western Chautauqua circuit, by its custodian and owner, Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson.—Kansas City Journal.

About Race Suicide.
Nearly 300 delegates attending the convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, at Springfield, Illinois, last Wednesday, from Mrs. Adlai E. Stevenson, of the former vice-president, "humane" side of the race argument.

"There is no thoughtful man in America," said Mrs. Stevenson, "who has not been more than troubled by the appeal for larger lies. While this appeal has more urgent, I do not recall there has been one word in regard to the health or life of the nation nor has the stability of the nation, physically, mentally, morally, actually or financially to rear children been touched upon. The question should not be how many children but their condition and what their citizens they will make. That some thought should be given to prolonging the life of the nation and thus protect the babies who occupy first place in the world mother clubs. The size of the family is of less importance."

Hard Times in Kansas.
The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today, though a citizen of Coffey, Shamburg, has not yet forgotten hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged coughing night and day, and find no relief till I tried Dr. J. C. Perry's New Discovery. It took me one bottle to completely cure me. The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Sold by J. C. Perry's drug store, 10c. $1.00 Trial bottle free.
