Tired But Energetic.

Monday evening at the church was not dull, as in such evenings. On the other the evangelist, Victor Dorn, tired from a heavy day's work, was full of energy, and to preach. An unusual audience the weather conditions grand speaker, and he gave an address the conversion of Paul—or Tarsus. The sermon fairly bristled with suggestions and strong that made the entire address with interest. Mr. Dorn seek notoriety or popularity in presentation of gospel themes, a man of great faith in God, and he never ceases to press the hearts and consciences of who listen to him. There were additions at the close of the service. There have been 25 added, and interest is increasing, and more seeking interviews and ending with the evangelist. Tonight's topic will be "Disposing of Jesus" Wednesday evening "God's Power."

New Artists Arrive

The new company of vaudeville artists of the Great Western Sullivan-Considine circuit, who, Mr. Cooper, of the Klinger Grand, was fortunate enough to secure, arrived last evening, and will be heard this week at the little theatre on State street. The fact that they belong to the Sullivan-Considine circuit is a sufficient guarantee that every act will be first-class and those who attend the shows at the Klinger Grand this week will probably be entertained by the best vaudeville acts that have ever been seen in the house. Mr. Cooper has been compelled in the past to rely on his own efforts in securing the talent that appeared in the theatre, and many times found it impossible to engage performers. By an agreement made recently with the Sullivan circuit the acts will be furnished directly by this well-known and reliable company. This means that Salem will hear the same artists who appear in the best vaudeville houses in the West, as the circuit accepts none but high-grade performers. Among the actors who arrived last evening were "The Goulds," a comedy sketch team; "Odor," the mysterious, and "La Petite Ruth," a dancing specialty act.

Don't Go It Blind!

Many people do, when they are buying shoes.

Some go into the first shoe store they come to and take most any pair of shoes the salesman says "fit."

Other shoe buyers are attracted by the price, alone. This is folly.
