CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Post Card Hall—

New subjects daily.

Car and Steam Roller Collide—

Car No. 8, running on the Fair Grounds line, and the big 12-ton roller which is being used to pave Court street yesterday afternoon came together at the corner of Commercial and Court streets, resulting in a smashed vestibule, and one of the big posts broken on the car. The car was not derailed, and the damage, which was slight, will soon be repaired. A misguided streetcar that would jump onto a road roller is utterly irresponsible, and must have been imbibing the same sort of booze as that frequently mentioned that "one drink of it would make a jack rabbit tackle a bull dog." It is a case of trying to mash the masher.

Remember—

Cleveland's Baking Powder, in 3-lb cans, only cost $1.00, and 5-lb can $1.65. Both these cans have the metal handle under the regular cover. They are useful when empty. 10-7-1m

Night School—

A night class in shorthand, type-writing and spelling will be organized at the Capital Business College on Monday evening, November 4, provided a sufficient number enroll to justify continuing. For further information phone or call at the school. 11-1-3t

When You Want—

Good baking powder ask your grocer for Cleveland's. Don't allow him to give you any other brand. 10-7-1m

New Shorthand Class—

A new class in shorthand will be commenced at the Capital Business College on Monday, November 4, day school. Any who expect to enter soon should arrange to begin then, as another class will not be started for two or three weeks. 11-1-2t

Do You Want to Be Cured—

Of the "dope" or "jag" habit? See Dr. D. B. Griffin, 371 South Church street. Phone 568. 10-28-1wk

Those Who Have—

Used it the longest praise it the most—Cleveland's Baking Powder. 10-7-1m

Wood—

Can make prompt delivery of slab wood. Place your orders at once. The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. mill and office foot of Ferry St. 10-26-10t.

He Likes Salem—

B. T. Vandecar of Detroit, Mich., who has been employed as watchmaker at Astoria and Myrtle Point, has taken a position with Barr Bros. jewelry store. He is an experienced man and is greatly impressed with this city.

An Old Vest—

There is nothing about the vest which is displayed in the east show window of Joseph Meyers' store on Liberty and Court streets which would attract the attention of the passers-by with the exception that it is made with a roll collar similar to a soft shirt and near by a sign which reads: "This vest worn by Joseph Meyers over 50 years ago." The fact that it lasted that long indicates that Mr. Meyers was a good judge of "good goods" even in his younger days. A garment that will defy time, moths, moths and moth balls for 50 years, and then show up unabashed in a Salem store window is one to be proud of.

Bought New Piano—

A $500 Schuman piano was placed in the Masonic hall yesterday. The instruments was purchased by the Eastern Star ladies and is to replace the piano injured in the fire.

Back From Jintown—

Rex Turner, who has been at Jamestown for the past ten months being employed as chief pass clerk, arrived home Wednesday night and after a brief visit and getting acquainted with his folks again, he will go to Eugene and matriculate at the University of Oregon.

Where Time Is Valuable—

A young person may make an unwise investment and lose the money invested, but this may not be so serious a matter as at first supposed. The person had the experience—that is worth something; and the amount of money lost may be made again. But when one loses or wastes time, it is lost forever—it cannot be recovered. Many young people are wasting time every winter by not attending school. A winter's schooling, or two even, does not cost much in comparison to the benefits derived in the way of increased opportunities. The Capital Business College of Salem, Oregon, is a practical school. It will give you a useful training. Send today for catalogue.

Street Paving—

May stop when it rains, but Steusloff Bros. keep on selling off their sanitary counters just the same.

Chickens, Chickens, Chickens—

Clark's market. Phone 125.

An Excellent Sermon—

Evangelist Victor Dorris held a large audience in marked attention last night at the First Christian church. The sermon was one of the most masterful efforts ever heard in the city. The meetings will continue each evening next week. The theme chosen by Mr. Dorris for Saturday at 7:30 p. m. is "Today and Your Duty."

Chickens a Specialty—

Clark's market, 480 State street. Phone 125.

Got Wise on Oregon—

G. W. Flesher, who lived 18 months near Liberty, and sold to Jim McGinnis, has returned from a two-years' sojourn in Colorado, and has bought more land in the Red Hills, and has decided to stay this time.

Hearing at Albany—

The railroad Commission goes to Albany today to hear complaints against the C. & E. railroad, preferred by Hon. B. F. Jones, of Independence, relating to train service.

Just a Little Halloween—

The members of the Baptist church held an enjoyable social last evening. The students of Willamette University and the high school were out enjoying the fine evening in Halloween pranks and various parties. The old dilapidated wooden walk just north of the race on High street, which has for years been a nuisance to the residents of South High street was last evening rescued from its rickety foundations and thrown into the street by some industrious celebrators of "All Saints." While the promiscuous tearing up of walks can not be sanctioned, yet last night's proceedings on South High street probably did no serious harm.

Chickens and Fish—

Clark's market, 480 State street. Phone 125.

Salem City Politics—

In the seven wards 582 voters have registered for the primary Saturday. First ward 72, second ward 130, third ward 44, fourth ward 99, fifth ward 73, sixth ward 107, seventh ward 58. N. D. Elliott was nominated by the citizens of the seventh ward at a meeting held Thursday night at Buckner's feed store. George Rose in the second and W. H. Eldridge in the third ward are being urged to run. It seems likely a candidate will be brought out in each ward, and then if the charter is not adopted there will be no vacancies. The nominating primaries will be held in each ward Saturday afternoon.

Some Fine Wheat—

Has been received at the mills lately and gone into Olympic Hard Wheat Flour, the great favorite with Salem cooks.

Assistant in Oratory—

Miss Mabel Adams, of Boston, is expected to arrive in the city today to begin her work in Willamette University, as assistant instructor in the department of oratory. She comes to Salem highly recommended, and will doubtless prove a valuable acquisition to the able corps of teachers of the school.

Rainy Weather—

Does not prevent the Salem cigar factory turning out its first-class cigars. Try a "Bon Ton."

On South Commercial—

At the corner of Ferry street, is a busy corner. Hundreds of Salem shoppers go there to buy groceries from J. M. Lawrence.

Ghosts See the Vaudette—

A bevy of Salem girls, dressed in "spiritual wrappings"—white sheets wound round them, and their pretty faces hidden inside of pillow slips, presented themselves at the door of the Vaudette last night. Manager Mott wasn't running a spiritualistic seance, neither was he looking for any intangible money or checks from defunct banks, so he just invited the bunch to amuse their ghostships, free of charge. In a few minutes another gang, similarly dressed, appeared and was passed in. This was kept up until near 20 of the white-cap bunch were inside looking at the pictures. None of them spoke, and when the show was over faded off into the darkness, as silent as so many real ghosts. Mott says he knew his show was popular, but didn't think spooks would get out of their graves to see it.
