Pills and Piles. A prolific cause of Piles is the use of cathartics and pills of a drastic nature, always followed by a reaction on account of the resinous, irritating properties they contain.

Here's Good Advice. S. Woolver, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good years ago."

Hoarding Money. Those people who are hoarding their money in safe deposit vaults, chuckling over their farsightedness, don't deserve to have it. They are not good citizens, and the only thing which prevents them from being a positive menace to the community is lack of ability.

Beecham's Pills. How much nourishment food furnishes the body, depends upon the condition of the stomach. Food is readily assimilated when the digestion is aided occasionally with a dose or two of Beecham's Pills.

care to spend it, deposit it, getting credit at some good bank—or buy postoffice money orders with it, or establish a credit with it in the manner that may best appeal to your judgment. But do not put it where it will be equally useless to yourself and the people. It was not intended for that purpose. The fact that we are doing business all over the country today on clearing house receipts means we have "barred our talents," and the circulating medium which the government has so wisely provided is locked up by some ignorant or criminal people for the purpose of creating a panic, upsetting values, and buying the property of the people at a fraction of its value.

The possibility of a parcels post will give Senator Platt a further opportunity to do some of what he considers his best work in the senate.—Indianapolis News.

A Good Liniment. When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings.

Now, if Roosevelt would only order General Apathy out for a fifteen-mile ride with the "fat colonels," perhaps the old warrior would get shaken up a bit.—New York Mail.

TEA Tea is not infallible; moneyback makes amends. We are not, in the least, uneasy about the money.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best; we pay him.

A Dangerous Deadlock that sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy.

Perhaps the reason President Roosevelt moved his camp from Stamboul, La., is because it occurred to him that Dr. Long lives in Stamboul, Conn. Too stam much similarity.—Ohio Sun.

Talking, you can't beat Herbine for the liver. The greatest regulator ever offered to suffering humanity. If you suffer from liver complaint, if you are bilious and fretful, if your liver, and Herbine will put it in its proper condition.

Although "Uncle Joe" Cannon kicked off in the Galesberg game he managed to get off the field quickly enough to prevent his boom from being damaged in the scrimmage.—Indianapolis News.

Food Values. How much nourishment food furnishes the body, depends upon the condition of the stomach. Food is readily assimilated when the digestion is aided occasionally with a dose or two of Beecham's Pills.
