SPEAK GENTLY TO THE ERRING.

(F. C. Lee in Oregon State Prison Lend a Hand.)

Speak gently to the erring—ye know not all the power,
With which the dark temptation came, in some unguarded hour;
Ye may not know how earnestly they struggled, or how well,
Until the hour of weakness came, and sadly thus they fell.

Speak gently of the erring—oh! do not thou forget,
However darkly stained by sin, he is thy brother yet:
Tear of the self-same heritage, child of the self-same God
He hath but stumbled in the path thou hast in weakness trod.

Speak kindly to the erring—for it is not enough,
That innocence and peace are gone, without thy censure rough?
It surely is a weary lot, that sin-crushed heart to bear;
And they who share a happier fate, their chidings well may spare.

Speak kindly of the erring—thou yet may'st lead him back
With holy words and tone of love, from misery's thorny track;
Forget not thou hast often sinned, and sinful yet must be;
Deal kindly with the erring one, as God hath dealt with thee!

NO LET-UP IN ADVERTISING OREGON.

Salem with four social and commercial organizations will be better advertised than ever before.

Two new industries the past month of bank panics BREAKS THE RECORD OF THIS CITY.

The location of a gasoline engine factory and a foundry and fruit sprayer factory proves what we say.

The Capital Journal Thanksgiving edition will be A FINE BOARD OF TRADE AND BOOSTER CLUB ADVERTISING EDITION.

Salem needs today an organization that will result in building several hundred new houses in the next six months.

Reduced prices of lumber and building material and labor more plentiful WILL MAKE THIS POSSIBLE.

Oregon is bound to go ahead more rapidly as our fruit growing possibilities become known.

The Willamette valley apple product is FIGHTING ITS WAY TO THE FRONT AGAINST ALL COMPETITION.

With a new electric line coming into Salem this coming month, and another starting south Salem will grow more rapidly than any Oregon town.

Look at all that is being done to send Oregon to the front by the railroads and by the commercial organizations.

Salem capitalists have nearly completed arrangements to establish another LARGE MANUFACTURING PLANT THAT WILL EMPLOY 200 PEOPLE.

Do you know that over 230 new people found homes in Oregon every day from September 1st to October 31st as a result of the colonist one-way tickets, and through the help of the newspapers THE POPULATION AND WEALTH OF THE STATE HAS BEEN ENORMOUSLY INCREASED.

The exact number of tickets sold as reported by Mr. William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman Lines, for 1907, was 13,753.

For the same time in 1906 it was 8890, an increase of 4863 OR ABOUT 60 PER CENT.

This of course does not include tickets sold to Oregon over the Canadian Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern, or any other roads whose tickets came around by way of Puget Sound.

The development league has made the colonist rates the chief feature of its work.

Portland circulated 400,000 leaflets with this low rate its central feature, and probably no advertising ever done by any state in the Union HAS SHOWN BETTER RESULTS.

The rates will be on again during March and April, 1908.

The Oregon Good Roads association which convened at Portland Thursday and Friday was the best attended and most practical good roads meeting ever held in this state and was considered by visitors as equal to any similar meeting yet held west of the Rocky mountains.

A canvass of the business houses, wholesale and retail, as well as the factories, proves that business has gotten back to normal conditions. Many report an increase over last year.

There has not been a failure or a suspension of a single businesshouse or factory in this city.

The people of the state can depend upon the newspapers giving them the facts, and before they get these facts they can depend upon ANY NEWS CONTRARY TO THE ABOVE STATEMENT BEING MERELY RUMORS.

The words of Mr. Theodore B. Wilcox, president of the Portland Flouring Mills, in an address before 150 business men when he announced, "The flurry is over. Will be in the market buying wheat and paying gold for it tomorrow," met with a more enthusiastic reception THAN ANY REMARK THAT HAS BEEN MADE IN MANY YEARS.

There is going to be no let-up in advertising Oregon.

There is a determination TO INCREASE RATHER THAN DIMINISH THE GOOD WORK.

The great apple displays made in the board of trade windows here, in which the excellence of those of the Willamette valley is shown, have drawn many visitors and the entire population is more convinced than ever THAT OREGON GROWS THE FINEST APPLES ON EARTH.

All of our citizens are becoming experts as to the different varieties.

All Salem board of trade visitors are greatly impressed with the wonderful possibilities of the valley in a horticultural way.

Salem has a great deal of apathy, inertia, and conservatism to overcome. To accomplish results every loyal Oregonian's help IS NEEDED TO FIGHT OUR LOCAL BATTLES FOR PROGRESS.

We need the board of trade, the Boosters, and the Business Men's league, and the Illihee club. The Capital Journal has no other mission but to be the organ of progress and development.

GREAT GUNS AND SMALL

KRAG OR NEW SPRINGFIELD, WHICH SHALL IT BE?—GREAT INTEREST IN RIFLE PRACTICE.

Prepared for The Capital Journal by Wm. Wolf Smith, Secretary National Board for Promotion of Rifle Practice, Washington, D. C.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—"Shall the national rifle matches of 1908 be shot with the Krag or the new Springfield?" is one of the most important matters which will come before the national board for the promotion of rifle practice, at its annual meeting in Washington next January.

There is some question as to whether the ordnance department will be able to supply the new Springfield, of "Model 1903," as it is officially designated, to the National Guard in time for the out-door practice of 1908. Obviously it would be unfair to require the teams to use in the matches rifles to which they had been unable to accustom themselves in spring and summer practice. At the same time all authorities agree that the militia should be armed with the same weapon as the regular army and as the latter will soon be completely equipped with the "Model 1903," the equipment of the militia should speedily follow.

The new Springfield would long since have been in the hands of the National Guard had it not been for changes in the ammunition, which, while greatly increasing the ranges and efficiency of the weapons, necessitated re-chambering and thus delayed their issue. A new powder has also been adopted calculated to reduce the erosion attendant on high velocity and it may take some time to secure a sufficient supply of this powder. General Crozier, chief of ordnance, expects to be able to state definitely by January 1, whether the war department will be in a position to honor requisitions for the 1903 model for equipping the militia in time for spring practice. As many of the Krags now in the hands of the militia have sadly worn barrels, it is hoped the new rifles can be issued in the spring to avoid the expense of drawing new Krag barrels only to be shortly discarded for the new Springfields.

The national board will also determine the place of holding the national matches of 1908. It is generally understood they will again be held at Camp Perry, Ohio, which range will be extensively improved by next August. The National Rifle association has already endorsed Camp Perry. Among other matters to be considered at the January meeting will be the increasing work of the national board. In 1903 congress created the board and provided for three national matches: a rifle team, an individual rifle and an individual pistol match. A small appropriation was made for the national matches and a magnificent trophy was provided for the team match. From a handful of teams the competition has grown until next year every state and territory will probably be represented. In addition to the money the army and navy expend in rifle practice, $500,000 is now annually given to the states and territories for this purpose. To handle the national matches this year required the services of considerably more than one hundred regular army officers and two battalions of infantry. The importance of the national board has grown with the tremendous increase of interest in the sport and in many quarters it is felt that some steps should be taken toward the organization of at least a skeleton corps to handle the matches from year to year. While the national matches have not increased in number the National Rifle association is adding to its prize list each year and the two series being shot on the same range and one after the other, an attractive program is presented covering two weeks. It has been suggested that the prize list of the national matches be increased, not so much in amounts as in the number of prizes, especially in the national individual match, which this year had over 700 entries.

In connection with the revived interest in rifle practice the war department is highly gratified at the progress being made in the organization of rifle clubs throughout the country, including military and civilian clubs, practicing with rifles and revolvers.

The National Rifle association, under the energetic direction of Gen. James A. Drain, its president, is especially active in organizing such clubs, and Lieut. Albert S. Jones is now devoting his entire time to the work of the N. R. A., of which he has been secretary for a number of years. Affiliation with this association obtains for the clubs many favors in the way of reduced prices for government ammunition and rifles, medals and National Marksman's Reserve Buttons, etc. The National Rifle association's permanent headquarters are in New York city.

While much attention is paid to the firing of these great guns in the navy, the blue-jackets are quite as noted for their skill with small arms. To Commander Sims, now naval aide to President Roosevelt, may be ascribed a large share of the credit for the excellence in rifle shooting displayed by the navy, as it was under his direction that the work assumed its present activity. In the national rifle matches this year the navy won the team match, Midshipman W. A. Lee of the naval academy won the national individual rifle match and the national pistol match, and Midshipman H. T. Smith, also of the naval academy, carried off the title of military champion. The navy has a splendid range at Guantanamo, Cuba, and utilizes other ranges wherever available. Practice is expected at least once in each six months and a number of prizes are awarded, the amounts depending on the number of men qualifying from each ship's crew. The last available report shows qualifications in the navy as follows: 36 sharpshooters and marksmen; 374 first-class; 1019 second-class; 1793 third-class; and 5312 as fourth class.

To further encourage rifle and revolver shooting, especially on the superb range at Sea Girt, N. J., the Sea Girt Tournament association has been organized with Brig. Gen. R. Heber Bretnall, president; Col. Charles A. Ried, vice president; and Brig. Gen. Bird W. Spencer, secretary and treasurer. In addition to the above the board of managers will consist of Justice Charles W. Parker of the N. J. supreme court, Lt. Col. William Libbey and Major Arthur Rowland. The new association will co-operate with the New Jersey State Rifle association one of the oldest and most influential of the state organizations.

Can you afford to trifle with so serious a matter as to neglect a bad cold or cough, when for a trifling amount you can secure a bottle of "Hickory Bark Cough Remedy," that is guaranteed to cure or money refunded. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by dealers everywhere.
