PRACTICAL PRESENTS.

Shirt Waist Protector, Collar and Cuffs and Penwiper.

Five inexpensive Christmas gifts that may be made at home are shown in the illustrations. They are particularly suitable for girls. No. 1 is a heart shaped sachet of pale blue china silk, covered with fine linen, on which are embroidered a spray of flowers and French knots. The edge may be finished with a frill of the linen or valancing. A lace bow or ribbon is put at the top. A pretty idea would be to embroider on the linen the flower of the kind of perfume used.

No. 2 is a collar and cuff set of heavy linen intended to be worn with a coat. The shape of the cuffs and collar can be marked on the linen after making an outline with a lead pencil. The scallops may be marked with a half dollar and the dots with the end of a pencil. The scallops are done in buttonhole stitch and the dots in satin stitch. Launder the linen before cutting.

No. 3 is something entirely new, and a woman or girl will find it very useful to protect the front of white shirt waists. It is made of plain white, either linen or muslin. At the waist it is slightly gathered and sewed to an inch wide piece of beading, through which a yard and a quarter of ribbon is run. The edges are featherstitched. The tabs on either side at the top may be pinned to the waist or finished with ribbon, which goes over the shoulders and comes down and is fastened to the ribbon at the waist about one inch either side of the center of the back.

No. 4 is a penwiper made from pieces of chamolis cut in an irregular shape at the edge. A clover leaf is either painted or embroidered in pretty shades of green on a piece of dark leather used for the top. The leather may be bought at any department store.

No. 5 is a traveling case made from a strip of pretty flowered cretonne and interlined with rubber sheeting. The pockets, which are for the brush, comb, toothbrush, soap and sponge, are made of the sheeting and stitched on. The edges are bound with ribbon. The case rolls and is kept in place by tying it with the ribbon shown at the pointed end.

Gifts Girls Can Make.

A spectacle cleaner made from cut leather and filled with chamolis leaves is a thoughtful gift, and any little schoolgirl could certainly manage to draw a simple conventional design on the ooze leather, afterward cutting it away with sharp scissors and lining the two rounds with a bit of pretty bright silk. The chamolis leaves are cut a wee bit smaller than the leather covers, and all are threaded on a bit of baby ribbon tied with a bow. A very nice penwiper is on the same order as the cleaner, except that the rounds are cut larger and the leaves are made of cloth, the threading together being exactly in the center instead of at one end, as in the case of the spectacle cleaner.

Denim Shoe Bags.

Denim shoe bags are most useful, and to make eight bags a yard and a quarter of material will be needed. Tear the thirty-six inch wide denim into twelve inch strips and cut each of the three strips into three pieces crosswise; double each piece over and sew the seams on the right side, trim them off closely, turn the bag and sew them on the wrong side so as to make a neat fell. When folding the material for the bag allow one side to be three inches longer than the other. This will serve as a flap. The flap should be neatly hemmed by hand and button over the opposite side of the bag with a button and buttonhole.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system, the organs are strengthened. The heart action is better; digestion improved, the sluggish condition overcome, and healthy activity re-established.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and the first thing that met my eyes was an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I concluded to try it and let the doctor go, and I did so. After taking two bottles I could dress myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the benefit I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet." ANNA R. PALMER, Lewistown, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

The Fashion Stables, Salem's Most Stylish Livery Parlors.

Charles W. Yannke is the proprietor of the most fashionable equine establishment in the Capital City—the Fashion Livery parlors, with neat offices and waiting rooms and all modern conveniences. He was raised on a farm east of the city, educated in the public schools, and bought out the Club Stables in 1903. In September 1905 he bought out the present palatial establishment, where about sixty horses of his own and boarders are kept on two floors, together with about fifty vehicles from the single one-horse roadster to the big carryall. He conducts the cab line for the city, having six cabs.

An Attractive Calendar.

As the holiday season approaches almost all other work is laid aside that one may devote all her time to making suitable gifts.

A dainty calendar is always useful and acceptable, and there are a number of attractive designs for this season.

One is oval in shape and made of linen in a dull green or blue shade and mounted on an oval cardboard mat.

It has a design of dogwood embroidered entirely around it in white, or small white flowers of any sort can be used. After the embroidery is finished and pressed it is mounted very carefully and neatly on the oval mat, and the edges are turned over and fastened on the back with good library paste.

This is covered with another card oval, which has a ring attached.

Two pieces of ribbon the color of the linen used or of white are caught between the two pieces of cardboard and tied in a graceful bow, by which it can hang. The small calendar is fastened on the front. This will also be attractive made of white lawn embroidery in wild roses or buttercups and mounted over an oval card covered with pink or yellow silk and tied with pink or yellow ribbon.

A Useful Gift.

A useful gift that will be acceptable to women, especially when traveling, is the little linen case for covering powder loaf books. It may be made from a small dolly hemstitched or buttonholed on its edges. Just fold it book fashion and on one cover work an initial, on the other a tiny spray of flowers. Catch the book and covers together with ribbon, then add narrow ribbon ties. This little case will wash well, and new books may be readily inclosed as necessary.

A Good Luck Box.

A good luck box of Japanese paper has a frill and twisted top. When opened the box is like a flower, which reveals a second box inside. This little box is the repository for a small Christmas gift.

Corset Pad Sachet.

A pretty corset pad has a sachet of the usual shape in pale blue satin covered with a crocheted cover of pale blue silk.
