

THANKS AT SALEM

Grateful that the supply of flags for school houses is holding out.—D. Patton. Glad people drink tea and coffee and use and Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines. Going to build a corrugated addition to my store on Court Commercial streets, 26x80, two high to accommodate the growth of my renters, and am glad to the city council for giving me a permit to spend my money. Anderson. The Boosters: 'Tis sweet dream of things as they will be day. A Salemite dozing off in Rip Van Winkle sleep could himself awakening in twenty and seeing the principal business residence streets paved; a width steel and concrete straddling Mill creek north and the South Commercial hill down a little and the grade going up at the south end of the street; a palatial marble and iron Pacific passenger depot from the court house; a large mill on the old abandoned power on the north bank of river; Twelfth street paved to passenger station of the Southern company, with a beautiful of roses and rhododendrons; Mettette University campus covered with brick buildings, except football and nursery corner; a park north side of the city between and Capital streets; a park south side between High and street; a magnificent library erected by the city and on the block west of the state block east of the capital; an automobile road to Portland and a model tourist hotel on State and Liberty. Then he Henry T. Babcock of the Presbyterian church gives me to state in a few what we have most to be thankful for in Salem, and in Oregon answer at once: For the old church organization here, experience has proven that where recognized, worshipped and that material prosperity accompanies spiritual blessings. The man is a better man, relative, friend. A man might well hesitating to a place in which to rear his family, though that offers as Salem does the best facilities for business enterprise, if the church was not to make him realize his responsibilities to God. I am blessed with Christians of the principal denominations, aggressive, and led by men united and united in their effort to make clear the gospel of our Jesus Christ, and to make of community a people fearing and serving one another. This we have most to be thankful in Salem.

Thackeray's Poets.

Thackeray's favorite poets were with the "sweet lyric singer" Prior, who he thought the richest, the most charming and humorous of English lyrical and Gay, the force of whose melody and artless riving he appreciated. He admired too; but while admitting greatness thought him "such a poet no one could read him." Not surprising therefore, that never assayed the "big new kind" of poetry.—Forty Review.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

His Finish.

Trotter—When I left here five years ago old Graspitt was worth nearly half a million. How much has he now? Homer—Not a dollar. Trotter—What! Did he fall? Homer—No; he just died.—Chicago News.

A Dangerous Deadlock that sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at J. C. Perry's drug store. 25c.

One Man's Concoct.

Hyker—Talk about concocted people, that man Biggs is the limit. Pyker—He is, eh? Hyker—That's what I said. Why he even boasts of his mistakes because he makes them.—Chicago News.

Fashion Items.

Winter millinery is varied, large and small hats being equally stylish. Hats are fashioned to set well down on the head without a bandeau this season. Lattice-work applique is being used on many yokes and cuffs of late gown models. Fringes are growing in favor for finishing new gown models. Long sleeves are being introduced on gowns and blouses of all types. Waistcoats and vest effects are almost inevitable in the making of new suits. A distinct novelty in suiting is a fabric called shadow stripe. The covert coats come in tans of mode and green shades, are laced, and lined throughout with silk. Muffs are larger and flatter than ever, running as large as fourteen by eighteen inches. Many of the new suits have embroidered vests and skirts. Longer coats are appearing on the latest models of tailored suits. The V-shaped yoke is the favorite, and is always the most becoming to the figure inclined to stoutness. There is a new feature to the opera coats, and that is the kimono sleeve, making it easy to put on, and comfortable.

There's No Use

Talking, you can't beat Herbine for the liver. The greatest regulator ever offered to suffering humanity. If you suffer from liver complaint, if you are bilious and fretful, if your liver, and Herbine will put it in its proper condition. A positive cure for Constipation, Biliousness, Dyspepsia and all ills due to a torpid liver. Try a bottle and you will never use anything else. Sold by D. J. Fry.

A Case at Home.

Teacher—Here in our copybooks, today we find the sentence: "Evil communications corrupt good manners." Tommy Jones, do you know what that means? Tommy—Sure, Pa got a communication this morning from Ma's dressmaker that made him swear.—Philadelphia Press.

Tedious.

Towne—Tiresome talker, isn't he? Browne—Yes; reminds me of a woman sharpening a pencil. Towne—Sets your nerves on edge, eh? Browne—Oh, yes, but I mean it takes him so long to get to the point.—Philadelphia Press.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

But It Never Touched Him.

"Of course," said Cholly, "I admit I talked about myself, but they talked about trade all the time and, of course that was worse." "You were perfectly right," replied Miss Peppy. "It's better to talk about nothing than to talk about trade."—Philadelphia Press.

Biliousness and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Due and Legal Form.

"Since it is all over between us, Miss Berkenhead," said the young man, pale but calm. "I am compelled to ask for the return of the numerous and costly presents I have given you from time to time during the last six months, under the mistaken idea that I was your accepted lover and you were my affianced wife." "No, Henry," she answered; "you can't claim them now. All you can do is to give me the necessary sixty days' notice. By that time—perhaps confidence will be restored."—Chicago Tribune.

The Hollow Bones

of the arms and legs are tubes like a piece of gas pipe. The hollow centre is filled with soft red fatty material called marrow. This is the place where new red blood is made.

Scott's Emulsion feeds bone marrow. The rich fat and the peculiar power in SCOTT'S EMULSION gives new vigor and new nourishment. That is why pale people improve on SCOTT'S EMULSION. It has the power to produce new red blood. All Druggists; 50c. and $1.00.

Her Remedy.

He—I understand you have been attending an ambulance class. Can you tell me what is the best thing to do for a broken heart? She—Oh, yes. Bind up the broken portion with a gold band, bathe in orange-blossom water and apply plenty of raw rice. Guaranteed to be well in a month.—Judge.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. J., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by J. C. Perry, druggist, 50c.

Bunkoed.

Hotel Proprietor—So that bridal couple skipped out without paying for their room. Clerk—Yes; it was a case of two hearts that beat as one.—Chicago Journal.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
