He Did.
She—Do you believe in hypnotism?
He—Certainly. I can't explain how you got me to marry you by any other theory.—Exchange.

Here's Good Advice.
O. S. Woolever, one of the best known merchants of La Rayaville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

He Explains.
What an oratory, Brudder Jackson?
"Brudder Simmons, I will elucidate. If you says black am white, dat am foolsh. But if you says black AM white, an' bellers like a bull, an' pounds on a table wif bofe flats, dat am oratory, an' some people will believe you."—Washington Herald.

A Good Liment.
When you need a good reliable liment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel lightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lams and pains in the side or chest. It also relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Faith.
Little Willie—What is faith, pa?
Pa—Faith, my son, is something that will cause a bald-headed man to buy a bottle of infallible hair restorer from a druggist who hasn't a hair on his head.—Chicago News.

Song of the Depositor.
I have bat little in the bank,
And, quoting from the song,
The bankers have decided that
They want that little long.
—Chicago Record-Herald.

If You Knew
The merits of the Texas Wonder, you would never suffer from kidney, bladder or rheumatic trouble; $1 bottle two months' treatment, sold by druggist or by mail. Send for testimonials. Dr. E. W. Hall, 2926 Olive street, St. Louis.

Better Than Nature.
Crittick—I just saw Kammerer's picture of your wife. You don't like it, do you?
Henpeck—Yes, indeed.
Crittick—Why, it doesn't look like her.
Henpeck—Perhaps not, but it doesn't talk like her either.—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Real Wonderland.
South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by J. C. Perry, druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free

Cured.
The Colonel—Do you believe in dreams?
Little Jones—No. I married one.
—London Opinion.
