FADED DREAMS.

I want to be a gypsy in the springtime;
 I want to be a rover in July.
 But November's winds have racked me and those things now don't attract me—
 I just want to be a quiet little guy
 In a nice steam-heated dwelling in the city,
 With a carriage to conduct me to my toil,
 Which should last from 10 to 2 and corral the revenue;
 Yea, in winter, I'm an alien from the soil.

I want to be a farmer in the Maytime;
 I want to be a vintner in the fall.
 But I wake from such ecstatic dreams for reasons quite climatic—
 My ears no longer hear the wildwood's call.
 For me the simple joys of town existence,
 Some twenty minutes from the public square;
 Lost ideals! I wished, in June, I were tramp or picaroon—
 Now, I only want to be a millionaire!

HOW TO BOOST SUCCESSFULLY FOR SALEM.

If it's an industry or a new business, go after it with the right men, and after analyzing the situation.

PUBLICITY AFTER THE PROJECT IS LANDED WILL BE TIMELY ENOUGH.

If it is a family or a business man who is looking for a location in Oregon, do the work by organized correspondence and literature—but correspondence first—lots of it.

Send a copy of The Thanking Journal TO SOME ONE WHO HAS TALKED OR WRITTEN ABOUT COMING TO OREGON.

Write a letter at the same time calling attention to the strong points of our country.

Ask the party if he does not want more literature or information ON SOME SPECIAL LINE HE IS INTERESTED IN.

We have the country, the climate, the products. There's no disputing that. We need the people.

Salem,—the Willamette valley,—Oregon—HERE IS MATERIAL TO WORK WITH TO GET THE PEOPLE.

We have more attractive facts to offer in favor of our cities and counties than any other country but California.

We have more solid and substantial facts than California has—but not the glitter and golden halo of tropical fruits and flowers.

But the solid facts are good enough if we can get them to the people WHO ARE REALLY THINKING OF COMING TO THE WEST.

Why burn powder (good money) advertising to thousands who are not even thinking of coming here?

Our money, our time, our energy, our enterprise, is wasted SHOOTING INTO THE AIR FOR INDEFINITE RESULTS.

There must be direct, definite efforts to accomplish any marked success.

It is never wise to hunt ducks with a military band or bombard the skies to get turkeys. Let us quit it.

REASONS WHY THE FINANCIAL SCARE CAN'T LAST.

Keep cool; don't get excited; don't imagine that present monetary conditions are more than short-lived; don't talk panic; don't think panic; CREATE AN ATMOSPHERE OF FAITH AND OPTIMISM WHEREVER YOU GO.

Some good people lost confidence and that injured credit, and people who ought to be ashamed of such action drew currency out of banks and locked it up.

THAT CAN'T LAST.

Idle money soon burns a hole in your pocket and gets out. Men want their money to work 24 hours a day, Sundays and holidays included.

THEY WANT INTEREST OR INCOME FROM IT.

Don't imagine that idle money is going to stay idle. It will soon be coming back into the banks, just as soon as its owners come to their senses and realize that they have been more hysterical than a woman who yells because a poor little mouse happens in her room.

THE WHOLE SCARE WOULD BE LAUGHABLE IF IT WERE NOT SO SERIOUS IN ITS CONSEQUENCES.

It's like a nervous man who wakes up suddenly in the night and trembles with fear until he stops to realize that a banging shutter or snow sliding off the roof made the great noise.

Then his nerves soon quiet down and he goes peacefully to sleep. Mr. James J. Hill has sounded the keynote of the situation in these words:

"The heavy financial interests of the country are doing their part. THE PEOPLE MUST PUT AWAY MISGIVINGS AND DO THEIRS, AND THE PRESENT CRISIS WILL END."

In further exposition of the hardships which unreasonable panic produce, Mr. Hill says:

"The consequences bear hardest on the farmer.

"THE FRUITS OF A YEAR'S LABOR ARE NOW JUST GATHERING, READY FOR THE MARKET.

He has the food supply ready, and the world needs and is able to purchase it.

"But the movement from producer to consumer requires the use of both money and credit.

"Without such use the farmer, WHO IS THE FOUNDATION OF ALL PROSPERITY AND WHOSE LOSS OR GAIN AFFECTS THE STATE OF OTHER INDUSTRIES, loses a large percentage of the value of every pound of butter and live stock that he has to sell.

"It is this which makes the present situation such a hardship and an injury to the whole community.

"For if the cultivators of the soil suffer, no business will escape."

THERE ARE JUST AS MANY PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES AS THERE WERE A MONTH AGO, AND POSSIBLY A FEW BABIES MORE.

There are just as many miles of railroad, just as many bales of cotton and bushels of grain except what Europe had taken and paid for in gold, just as many people to feed and clothe and house.

Some of them may eat a little less or wear their old clothes a little longer, but this sad condition will be sooner be righted by a return of sanity.

STOP NOW FOR A MINUTE AND THINK.

Do you see any fewer people in the streetcars or on the steam cars, do you see any fewer people moving up and down the streets, do you note any sudden disappearances of any large number of the 85,000,000 people whose wants and activities will keep us busy even if somewhat less than during the strenuous rush of late years, which has been overtaxing night and day nearly every productive enterprise in America.

THESE PEOPLE DON'T STAND STILL.

They are trading one with the other; they are producing something and consuming something; they are making necessary constant enlargements of all our transportation facilities; they are buying and selling, they are sowing and reaping; they are mining and manufacturing and ANY IDEA THAT THE BUSINESS WORLD IS COMING TO AN END and that we must sit around with our thumbs in our mouths and wonder how soon the undertaker will be ready for us is unworthy of men.

BALLOT TITLES PROVIDED

Attorney General Crawford has sent the following communication to Secretary of State Benson relative to a request to provide a ballot title for house bill No. 281 referred to the people by referendum petition relating to appropriation of lands for corporate purposes, "Permit me to say that we have prepared title therefore as follows:

"For an act requiring railroads and other common carriers to grant free transportation to state officers and county judges and sheriffs as a condition precedent to acquiring land for corporate purposes by the exercise of eminent domain."

For a ballot title for house bill No. 37, also referred to the people by referendum the attorney has submitted the following title:

"For an act increasing the annual appropriation for the support and maintenance of the University of Oregon from $47,500 to $125,000."

TAKES RAP AT PORTLAND NEWSPAPERS

Mayor Lane Says Chief of Police Is Doing His Duty by City.

Portland, Nov. 28.—Mayor Harry Lane came to the rescue of Chief of Police Gritzmacher and the Portland police force yesterday in an open letter in which the chief executive administers a mild slap on the wrists to the local press. Ever since Chief Gritzmacher issued his press censorship ukase forbidding his officers from giving the reporters any police news, he has been humorously cartooned and caricatured along with the mayor and the police commission by the disgruntled dailies.

This constant rain of criticism stung the mayor to the quick and yesterday he issued a public letter defending the department. He declared that the local press were not giving the force a square deal in their editorial attitude of condemnation and that their energy in publishing statements to the effect that Portland was a happy hunting ground for all the criminals of the northwest would have a tendency to bring more criminals here has further embarrassed the local upholders of the law.

The mayor declared that the local police force never exceeded 140 men and that this number had 40 square miles to patrol each day in three shifts. He deplored the fact that the local facilities were insufficient to provide for proper accommodations for the prisoners and asserted that the local cubic air ordinance was broken each night by the city because of this fact.

Will Select Pastor.

At a meeting of the members of the First Congregational church which was held after a meeting of the church last Wednesday evening the following committee was appointed to select a pastor to succeed Rev. F. E. Dell, who recently resigned his position here to accept a pastorate in California, John Bayne, Dan. J. Fry, F. W. Steusloff, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. Ida Babcock.

There was also a committee to draft resolutions expressing the good will and friendship of the members of the church toward Rev. and Mrs. Dell, who will leave for the sunny south the first of January. This committee was selected as follows, John Gray, Mrs. William Staiger and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks.

Always Was Sick.

When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists.

Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Don't Think Sullivan Will Win.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 San Francisco, Nov. 28.—It is evident that the San Francisco betting public that follows the first game don't figure Jack (Twin) Sullivan to have much of a chance against Al. Kaufman, at the Mission street arena this afternoon.

After going to 8 to 10 Tuesday night, the first sign of Wednesday afternoon betting saw the odds sag to 7 to 10, and last evening when the commissions accepted were still more brisk it went to 6 to 10. It will hardly drop further, however. At 5 to 10 there are plenty who like Sullivan's chances.

While it is almost impossible to get exact weights from heavyweight fighters, who are not required to step on the scales, it is believed that Kaufman will weigh 195. Sullivan now claims that when he fought Bill Squires he weighed 158 pounds, and that he will do 165 for Kaufman. If it is true that Sullivan weighed 158 on that occasion, it is hard to see how he will scale better than 163 this afternoon.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

PERFECTLY WELL WOMAN

TELLS SUFFERING SISTERS HOW SHE WAS CURED.

Had Dizzy Spells and Would Reel and Fall.

Was Subject to Headaches, Weak, Nervous and Depressed—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Saved Her Life.

Bright eyes, rosy cheeks an elastic step and a good appetite should be the birthright of every American girl.

Pale, sallow, languid girls and women have either inherited ill health or have disregarded some rule of right living.

But nature is constantly striving to restore the natural, healthful condition and, with proper aid, will do so in most cases.

A Tonic for Women.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic especially adapted for girls and women of all ages and give just the aid required to bring back health and strength to the nervous and exhausted.

Mrs. Frank Hensell, of Augusta, Mich., says that she is a perfectly well woman and her appearance does not show that she has ever been ill in her life. But a short time ago she was an almost hopeless invalid as she tells in the following interview:

Pains in the Back.

"I was badly run down in health a few years ago," she says, "and had terrible fainting spells. I would often stagger and reel until I dropped. The blood rushed to my head at these times, giving me raging headaches. I became weak, nervous and depressed and had aching pains in the small of the back and loins. My stomach was sour, liver torpid and the whites of my eyes and my complexion were yellow. I had a cold most all the time and coughed until my friends thought that I must have consumption.

Sure They Saved Her Life.

"I had taken all kinds of medicines and paid doctors' bills until I was discouraged. I received no benefit from their medicine and might as well have taken so much cold water. At last I made up my mind to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and bought them. It was marvelous to see the great improvement in my health after I had taken the pills only a short-time. I continued their use and have been a perfectly well woman ever since, do all of my work and have no more need of medicine. I am certain Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life."

Many women suffer as Mrs. Hensell did and we want all of them to know that there is a remedy suited exactly for their condition. Thousands have taken this treatment with equally good results.

A helpful book, "Plain Talks to Women," will be sent to any address upon request in a plain, sealed envelope.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
