PREVENTS PNEUMONIA

I had the most debilitating cough a mortal was ever afflicted with, and my friends expected that when I left my bed it would surely be for my grave. Our doctor pronounced my case incurable, but thanks be to God, four bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me so completely that I am all sound and well.—MRS. EVA UNCAPHER, Grovertown, Ind.

Moore-Bybee Wedding.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. O. Engstrom, Thursday evening, December 5, when Miss Frances Moore and Mr. Clay Bybee were united in marriage. Rev. Selleck performed the ceremony. Miss Lulu Goodrich was the bride's attendant while her brother, Mr. Marvin Moore, acted as best man.

The home was prettily decorated with Oregon grape and mistletoe. White chrysanthemums were also used, the bridal party standing under a large bell made of these pretty flowers. The bride wore a pretty cream albatross dress and carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

After congratulations a dainty lunch was served. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moore of this city and has many friends here. The groom is also well known here having been for many years in the employ of Mr. Fitz, a well known Salem business man.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Fleetwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Engstrom, Miss Sara Davis, Marvin Moore, Alec Bybee, O. P. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fleetwood, Mr. Fitz and family Mrs. W. B. Lindsey, Misses Ora and Lulu Goodrich, Miss Mabel James, Miss Thresa Benidict, Mr. and Miss Kalpke.

Mr. and Mrs. Bybee will be at home to their friends after December 15, on High street.

Mrs. Lee Entertains.

Mrs. A. A. Lee entertained the Standard Bearer society of the First Methodist church at her home last Saturday afternoon in a most delightful manner. Mrs. Lee has had charge of these young ladies in the society for some time, but Mrs. Kimball will take up the work from now on. Both of the ladies are greatly beloved among the young people of the church.

The amusement of the afternoon was a testing of the five senses. For instance 15 articles were placed on a table and the young ladies passed around this table going into another room where they wrote as many of the articles down on their paper as possible. For the sense of hearing, 15 piano numbers, mostly well known songs were played; for the sense of feeling the guests were blindfolded and articles passed; for the sense of taste, something to eat and for the sense of smelling bottles in which had been placed perfume, medicines, etc., were passed. In all it was a novel entertainment.

The members present were Nellie Roberts, Ruth Boyer, Ema Steinberg, Inice Bell, Opal and Alice Hatch, Alta Jones, Evaline Reigleman, Eunice Miller, Pearl Eyre, Katy Willis, Ruby Woodward, Vida McMillan, Beryl Holt, Laura Woods, Emma Minton, Alberta Hale, Francis Dimmick, Edith Sherwood, Inice Goitra, Lola Cook and Ruth Mitchell.

An Informal Party.

Miss Althea Moores informally entertained about a dozen of her friends, last Saturday evening, in honor of Miss Barbara Durbin, and Ellen Thielsen, who are attending St. Helen's hall in Portland. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, "500" and music, and having a general good time. Refreshments were served.

In Honor of Portland Girl.

Helen and Dorothy Pearce entertained a number of their girl friends last Saturday afternoon in a very charming manner in honor of their cousin, Miss Leonide Fleury of Portland, who was visiting them. Cut flowers were used as decorations. Music and games furnished the amusement and refreshments were served.

O. A. C. Dance.

The hop given at Corvallis last evening was one of the social events of the college year at Corvallis, and a great many out of town guests were present. It was the Thanksgiving hop, postponed that the conquering football team might be present. On Thanksgiving day they were in Los Angeles. Among those who attended from this city was Miss Jessie Keeton, who, while in Corvallis, is the guest of Miss Gertrude McBee, one of the popular college girls.

Freshmen Party.

The freshmen of the high school held their class party last evening in the high school building, and it was a merry evening for the 130 pupils who were present. Music and various games furnished the amusement, after which light refreshments were served. Miss Claudine Rose and Dorothy Shanks assisted in serving, while Miss Ruth Kress presided at the punch bowl.

Illite Reception.

The house committee of the Salem Illitees are completing details for a New Year's eve reception, when they will keep open house to the members of the club and their families. There will be dancing and bowling and music. The annual billiard and bowling tournament is being arranged.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Daue at their home in South Salem, on Wednesday evening. The time was spent in dancing and music. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Visco, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Stapleton, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tallmen, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans, Misses Mildred Lucas, Delma Visco, Maud Evans, Laura Bennett, Dott Shelton, Grace Daue, Dora Newbury, Messrs. Edward Visco, Lyod Lucas, Martin Visco, Willie Daniels.
