Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

Took Tarpley's Turkeys—

Henry Tarpley, who resides at 739 Liberty street, is mourning the loss of two fine Christmas turkeys which were stolen from his chicken house last Saturday night. Henry has been developing an appetite for fat turkey for some time and so great is his disappointment that if he could find the man who stole his turkeys all might not go well with the gobbler grafter. It would also be wise for all persons who are likely to be in the vicinity of the Tarpley hen house after dark, to apprise the landlord of their business in advance.

worth doing is worth doing well. If you wish to be cured of Rheumatism use Ballard's Snow Liniment and you will be "well cured." A positive cure for Sprains, Neuralgia, Bruises, Contracted Muscles and all the ills that flesh is heir to. A. G. M. Williams, Navasota, Texas, writes:

"I have used Snow Liniment for sprained ankle and it gave the best of satisfaction. I always keep it in the house." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Dark Days.

At midnight in their guarded coops. The Turks were dreaming of the hour When cruel men with gladsome whoops, Would exercise their power. —Baltimore American.

Here's Good Advice

O. S. Woolover, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Science and the Orange.

For a product of nature a California navel orange, as it graces the breakfast table or the pushcart, is about the most artificial thing in the world, so writes William R. Stewart in the Technical World Magazine. It is also a very striking illustration of the fact that, while beauty may be only skin deep, it counts for a whole lot.

To begin with, the navel orange of California is an exotic, reaching its present habitat after devious wandering. And be it ever so sweet tasting, if its skin has had its beauty marred it scarcely ever gets farther than the orchard where it grew. Not only that, but even the most comely ones, before they are boxed and shipped are brushed by machinery and polished and otherwise fussed with to give them a beauty which mere nature never would have provided.

Science and machinery have been busy with the navel orange ever since it came to California, and the result has been striking. Fifteen years ago there were only 1,250,000 boxes of oranges shipped a year from the state; now there are about 12,000,000 boxes, and their value is upward of $20,000,000 annually. To their cultivation 75,000 acres in the southern part of the state are devoted, representing an investment of about $125,000,000, and there are said to be more than 6,000,000 trees in process of growth in the various orchards.

Labor-saving devices have been applied to the handling, polishing, grading and packing of oranges, and a system of co-operative direction in their marketing, till now the average cost to the grower for both packing and marketing is 35 cents a box, as compared with 50 cents to 75 cents a few years ago.
