kins of Salem.

ITS MUSIC MIRTH AND JOLLITY

ALL THE EVENING

THE U. OF O. BOYS ARE SPLEN-DID MUSICIANS AND SINGERS AND DO SOME MIRTH PROVOK-ING STUNTS THAT ARE ALMOST HEART-BREAKING.

Salem society will enjoy an entertainment of merit this evening according to reports from Albany in which place the clubs appeared before a crowded house last night in the first of a series of concerts to be given on a tour of Oregon and Washington. From accounts published in the Albany papers this morning the concert of the Oregon clubs given in that city last evening was a tremendous success.

The strictly musical numbers were rendered in such a manner as to win the unstinted approval of the most experienced critics in the audience, and to call forth unrestrained and well deserved applause. It was with the new and catchy college songs, however, that the Glee club fairly took the house by storm and brought it up to the highest pitch of enthusiasm. The audience seemed determined to hear everything the boys had on the bill of fare and obliged them to respond to encore after en-cours. The supply of new material in reserve was apparently inexhaustible and the last recall brought out even more applause than the first.

Oregon's reputation for putting on new and absolutely original stunts was sustained by the famous college comedians, Van Dusen, Cooper and Germanus. The dude at college as portrayed by Germanus convinced the audience that in some cases hazing could be resorted to with good effect, and by their expressions the audience indicated that they themselves were ready to come to the assistance of the hazers should it become necessary.

Cooper's original parody on "No Wedding Bells for Me," was as fine a piece of work as has been given by professionals and in the middle of the fourteenth verse he had to be stopped by the ushers so that a fleshy gentleman occupying a front seat in the gallery could catch his breath.

Van Dusen had even the famous "Sporty Hicks" stopped, and showed the people what a real college sport was.

A large delegation of students from O. A. C. came over especially to attend the concert and see that no reflections were cast upon their institution by the Oregon boys. And while they had no just cause for complaint, the U. of O. delegation did not miss the opportunity to jolly their rivals. Although the night was stormy the capacity of the large opera house was taxed to its utmost and standing room in every part of the house was sold early in the evening.

The clubs arrived this morning at 8:40 and immediately went in a body to Willamette chapel exercises where they had been invited to sing. They were heartily received by the local students who will constitute a large part of this evening's audience. They sang appropriate songs before the high school students in assembly at 1 o'clock and it was gathered from the expressions on the faces of the younger students that their ambition for college education was aroused.
The majority of the boys spent the afternoon at the Illihee club resting up for this evening's concert and reception.

The curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock, and the reception to be tendered the clubs at the Elks hall will immediately follow the concert and from all indications will be a great success.

"The Lion and the Mouse."

Two of the cleverest people in the theatrical profession, Dorothy Donnelly and Paul Everton, head the strong cast which Henry B. Harris is sending to the far west this season to present that masterpiece of Charles Klein, "The Lion and the Mouse," which has been the sensation of the dramatic world ever since its first production in New York three seasons ago, and where it is still being produced today.

It is not generally known that Miss Donnelly is to be starred next season by Mr. Harris in a new drama which will deal with a new phase of American social life, the mad pursuit of money, and how everything goes down before the clink of gold, life, honor, reputation, family, friends, health, position, all are subservient to this mad quest. Miss Donnelly will play the young wife who is caught in the maelstrom.

"The Lion and the Mouse" will be seen here for the first time when it comes to the Grand opera house Saturday night. Seats on sale at box office, Saturday, Dec. 14, 9 a. m.

GROWING FURNISHING BUSINESS

What One Salem Merchant Has Accomplished in Three Years—L. U.
Josse Going Into Larger Quarters.

L. U. Josse, the house furnishings merchant, is having a removal sale preparatory to going into his new quarters on Court street. After January first he will occupy the Chris Paulus block, which has been built especially to accommodate Mr. Josse's large business which will occupy three floors 55 by 85 feet, with plate glass windows and all modern lighting conveniences for displaying a stock of furniture and carpets. The building is solid brick with concrete front, and will have nearly 14,000 feet floor space. Mr. Josse came to Salem, Nov. 14, 1904, and has been doing a constantly increasing business. He came to Oregon in 1881, and settled in Washington county.
At Independence he went into the furniture business and built up a wonderful trade. He bought out Campbell Brothers, and in a short time trebled the business. Mr. Josse says: "I always aim to give the people a square deal and the worth of their money. I have come to Salem to stay and am not afraid of any competition." Mr. Josse has bought the old Hirsch property and fitted himself up a beautiful home. His son, L. W. Josse, is associated with him in business.

X-RAYS.

Bank Wrecker Barnett, of San Francisco, has one sympathetic friend, ex-Mayor John D. Phelan, who, it will be remembered, subscribed a million dollars' worth of sympathy to the relief of the earthquake sufferers. It is good to notice that his stock of sympathy is not yet exhausted.

A Chicago school director is kicking at the modern teaching methods. "Why," he said, "not one of a class of 43 15-year-old pupils could discount a note for $100 for 6 months at 6 per cent." The director evidently overlooked the stringency of the money market.

It is said that Charles B. Hanford resembles Bryan. This should not be held against Bryan, as he is not responsible for the fact.

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR
AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enliven, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1908.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.
