PEANUTS AND PINK LEMONADE

Lives Two Months on Diet of Peanuts and Lemonade, and Is "Natty" Enough to Tackle Banana Diet.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Dec. 18.—Dr. T. J. Allen, of Aurora, has completed a record-breaking test of living for two months on exclusive diet of peanuts and lemonade.

Allen showed that the peanuts and lemonade had rejuvenated and restored his health. He walked two miles and, leaping nimbly upon the roof of the court house, made an address to a large crowd. His last farewell meal consisted of peanuts and lemonade. On January 1, Dr. Allen has announced that he will begin a 60-day diet of bananas, which, he says, are equal to peanuts and lemonade in strength and nutrition. The only monetary benefit gained by Dr. Allen in his 60-day peanut-lemonade test was the price of a new hat, which he won on a wager from Judge F. M. Annis, of Aurora.

WILL HURT TAFT.

Gould's Decision Claimed to Be Based on Taft's Injunction Decision.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, Dec. 18.—Justice Gould's decision against the American Federation of Labor will be used by that organization of unionists as a campaign weapon against the presidential aspirations of Secretary Taft. The federationists declare that Justice Gould's opinion was based largely on decisions handed down by Taft, when the latter was on the bench.

PLANS TO STAMPEDE CONVENTION

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 18.—"Theodore Roosevelt is a candidate for president of the United States, despite his original statement and the reiteration thereof," declares former Congressman Charles A. Towne.

"I may say that, if the plan he has in mind is carried out, he can put it entirely up to the national convention that nominates him.

"No plan was ever more carefully evolved, in my judgment, than this third term one. The convention is to be stampeded for Roosevelt, and the unanimous nomination will compel him to accept.

"There is not any Taft candidacy and the President has known it for months. The only candidacy that has disturbed him is the Cortelyou one, and Taft is merely kept in the field to kill that, and to hold a stampede vote for Roosevelt."

HARNSBURGER ARRESTED.

Worked the Hospital Stewards on the "Left a Legacy" Racket.

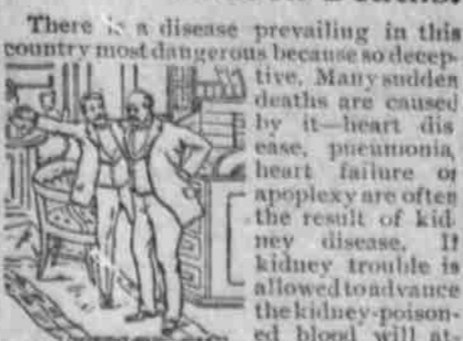

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—Charles Harnsbarger, alias Sam Bootman, is on his way to Portland, after wailing examination before United States Commissioner Hoarock and being held in $2000 bonds for trial in Portland.

Harnsbarger had a novel scheme of gathering unearned dollars. His equipment was a directory of the hospital stewards of the United States, and from this he would pick the names of his victims. The one who was Carl Weinberg, a well-known hospital steward, in Denver. To him he wrote saying that he was one of the administrators of the estate of a Portland man who died leaving some real property to one Carl Weinberg, a hospital steward. The reason for the bequest was gratitude for services rendered by Weinberg while the man was confined in a Santa Fe hospital as the result of a wreck on that road some eight years ago.

Weinberg was not surprised, as similar legacies are not uncommon, and replied stating that he was hospital steward at the hospital in question at the time stated.

In answer Harnsbarger wrote that the identification was satisfactory, and that the property would be turned over to Weinberg as soon as the latter paid certain fees, which were required in that state when a legacy was left to a non-resident. In this case he said the fees would amount to $49.50, and asked that a money order for that amount be sent

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The matter was placed in the hands of Postal Inspector Clement, of Portland, and he traced Harnsbarger to Sacramento, where he had him arrested.

A THEATER MANAGER'S VIEW.

Thinks Salem's Chances to Get Good Plays is Growing Small.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 16, 1907.

Ed. Journal:

In a recent Journal you state that theatrical managers are in the business for the money that is in it the same as people who are in a mercantile business; in fact, the theatrical business was never on a more thoroughly mercantile basis than it is today. Mr. Henry B. Harris, who is the proprietor of "The Lion and the Mouse" company, which played in your city on the above date, is also the proprietor of a number of other attractions, one of which—"Strongheart"—comes to your city December 24th. It is only fair to say that any man goes to a town to do business, a profitable business if he can, after he has tried it several times with a resulting loss each time, he finally decides that that particular town don't care for his merchandise. "The Lion and the Mouse," one of the greatest successes of the past three seasons, played in Salem on December 14th to business that was absolutely bad. When other managers are routing their companies, they will be very much inclined to give Salem the go-by, as they will naturally figure that if "The Lion and the Mouse" can't draw any business in Salem, what chance would the majority of other productions have?

"Strongheart" is a success of undoubted merit now in its third season and is worthy of patronage. It is only a question of a very short time now in which the theater-goers of Salem will have to decide if they want first-class attractions, or whether they will be satisfied to get a line of productions which you name in your article of December 10th.

I remain very sincerely yours,
H. F. ERTHEILER,
Manager "Lion and the Mouse."
