FROM "SNOW-BOUND."

By J. G. Whittier.

The sun that brief December day
 Rose cheerless over hills of gray,
 And, darkly circled, gave at noon
 A sadder light than waning moon.
 Slow tracing down the thickening sky
 Its mute and ominous prophecy,
 A portent seeming less than threat,
 It sank from sight before it set.
 A chill no coat, however stout,
 Of homespun stuff could quite shut out,
 A hard, dull bitterness of cold,
 That checked, mid-vein, the circling race
 Of life-blood in the sharpened face,
 The coming of the snow-storm told.

THE POOR SCIENTIST.

The current number of The Popular Science Monthly develops an interesting point in the life of the modern scientist, to the effect that the more this class of brain workers does for the world, the more the world taxes them for their bare living.

As fast as physicians develop systems for the prevention of disease, just so fast is the work of the physician being changed.

It is an easy stretch of the imagination to see the physician entirely removed from civilized lands within a few generations, his place being supplanted by the surgeon and the man of hygiene.

More particularly, however, the article in question deals with the recent increase in the production of gold, made possible by scientific investigation, and which has in turn raised the cost of living to the scientist as well as to every body else, without in any way increasing the earning power of the man who made the increased gold production possible.

The editor of The Popular Science Monthly points out how severe has been the pinch felt by scientific men, most of them on salaries, in consequence of the rise in cost of living during the past ten years.

HE ESTIMATES THE NUMBER OF THOSE IN THIS COUNTRY ENGAGED IN SCIENTIFIC CALLINGS AS ONLY 5000.

He fears that unless there is a decline in cost of living or an increase of salaries there will be "a negative natural selection drawing the ablest men away from a scientific career" into more remunerative callings.

Such an outcome he thinks would be deplorable.

AS HE VENTURES TO SAY, ONE GROUP OF SCIENTISTS BY THEIR APPLICATION OF KNOWLEDGE TO THE PROBLEM OF GOLD PRODUCTION HAVE MADE LIFE HARDER FOR MANY WORKERS IN THE SAME FIELD, and have contributed to lessen the number of men willing to accept the scientists' present pecuniary reward.

All that is here said about scientists may be said with equal force about teachers in all grades, from the kindergarten to the presidents of the universities.

Educators prepare the men and women of the nation to make a better output of their own energies, thereby increasing the activity of the world at large.

YET THE SALARIES OF TEACHERS IN THE UNITED STATES HAVE BEEN THE SUBJECT OF MUCH EARNEST DISCUSSION DURING THE PAST TEN YEARS OF PROSPERITY.

The very business world which they have helped to create has turned about and DEMANDED MORE OF THEM FOR THEIR NECESSITIES, WHILE REFUSING TO PAY THEM MORE FOR THEIR SERVICES.

A decade of lower prices to all and higher pay to the teacher, the preacher and the scientists would be welcomed by millions of American citizens.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him. Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles, by J. C. Perry druggist. 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

When to Go Home.

From the Bluffton, Ind., Banner: "When tired out, go home. When you want consolation, go home. When you want fun, go home. When you want to show others that you have reformed, go home and let your family get acquainted with the fact. When you want to show yourself at your best go home and do the act there. When you feel like being extra liberal go home and practice on your wife and children first. When you want to shine with extra brilliancy go home and light up the whole household." To which we would add, when you have a bad cold go home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and a quick cure is certain. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. John Gibson and family wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted them during the sickness and death of their beloved husband and father.

A Simple Cure for Piles.

Pile sufferers know that ointments and other local treatments sometimes relieve but never cure. They don't remove the cause.

There is a little tablet that is taken internally that removes the cause of Piles and cures no matter how long standing.

Ask for Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid (a thousand dollar guarantee goes with every bottle.)

Hem-Roid is the discovery of Dr. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., one of the most distinguished and successful physicians in the western states. $1.00 at druggists, or Dr. Leonhardt Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y., Proprietors. Sold by Dr. S. C. Stone, Salem.

THE CURTAIN IS DOWN.

Manager Heilig and Wife End Play With a Short Second Act.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Hillsboro, Dec. 20.—Calvin Heilig, the Portland theatrical manager, was granted a divorce by Judge McBride, in this city, this week. The findings of fact set forth that the plaintiff and Mrs. Ella Heilig were married in Hillsboro, Ore., November 6, 1906, and that two days later she deserted the husband, and has since resided in Tacoma. Mr. and Mrs. Heilig had been married and divorced prior to their last marriage. The property rights were settled out of court. There are no children.

IF YOU KNEW

The merits of the Texas Wonder, you would never suffer from kidney, bladder or rheumatic trouble. $1 bottle two months treatment, sold by druggist or by mail. Send for testimonials, Dr. E. W. Hall, 2922 Olive street, St. Louis.

A Hop Suit.

Samuel Scanlon has filed proceedings against John Carmichael in department No. 1 of the circuit court, asking for damages in the sum of $380.20, which amount is alleged to be due the plaintiff for 3802 pounds of hops which were wrongfully appropriated by the defendant. Scanlon claims that in May last he was the owner of the said hops which he stored in the warehouse at Airlie in the name of J. W. Bush and alleges that the defendant sold the hops and took the proceeds.

Here's Good Advice

O. S. Woolover, one of the best known merchants of Le Raysville, N. Y., says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Cures every sore, wound, burn or abrasion. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Christmas Shopping Dull.

Aurora, Or., Dec. 20.—The holiday season in this section has not panned out as well as in former years, and the two merchants here attribute the cause to the tightness of the money market. While the people in this immediate vicinity are all well fixed they have shown a decided inclination to hold onto their coin, and the purchases that were made in former years two or three weeks before Christmas do not materialize this year. With the taking off of the lid from the bank holidays by the governor the merchants are looking for better times.

NO PLACE FOR HINDUS.

Earth Needs an Annex, Unless They Stay at Home.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 20.—Cheap Hindu labor is not wanted in Hawaii, according to a letter received here from Alexander & Baldwin planters, of Honolulu, in their reply to a proposal that a shipload should be sent there to take the places of Japanese on the plantations. The letter says: "The Hawaiian Planters' Association has discussed the question, but no Hindus will be brought here. We much prefer good European laborers, such as Portuguese and Spaniards. The Europeans are preferable to the Hindus, whose low standard of living and uncleanly habits do not appeal to us."

A Dangerous Deadlock.

That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel function. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back at J. C. Perry's drug store. 25c.

May Settle Smelter Trouble.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Grand Forks, B. C., Dec. 20.—At the meeting of the labor unions held here last evening a vote was taken on the question of going back to work at reduced wages. The result, however, will not be made public until a similar vote has been taken in Phoenix tonight. It is considered that both parties are now nearer together, and that things look better for a settlement of the labor smelter trouble than heretofore.

This is the season of decay and weakened vitality; good health is hard to retain. If you'd retain yours, fortify your system with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, the surest way. 35c, Tea or Tablets. For sale at Dr. Stone's store.

PERSONAL MENTION

Constable Johnson left this morning for Silverton on official business. Contractor Young went to Gervais this morning on business.

J. A. Taylor, formerly of this city, now of Scotts Mills, who has been visiting in the city, left today for his home.

Miss Beetha Gross, a student of Willamette University, left this morning for Pendleton, where she will spend the holiday vacation with her parents.

Miss Norberg, a popular student of Willamette University, has gone to her home in Astoria, to spend the holidays with her parents.

Found Big Meteor.

Tocoma, Wash., Dec. 20.—H. G. Herold, a timber cruiser and mining man of Tacoma, has found one of the largest meteorites ever discovered, a short distance from the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia railroad in Whatcom county, and is now negotiating with the museum connected with the Columbia university at New York for the sale of the curiosity. The aerolite is four feet thick, six feet wide by ten feet in length.

Juror Wanted a While

(United Press Leased Wire.) Butte, Mont., Dec. 20.—Sensational affairs of Judge Collins, president of the Brewing Company, and Sheriff Ward Morrissey and James Amos Doney, a member of the panel now attending district court on a bench warrant issued by the district court, are being held in a bribe. It is alleged that Doney paid a sum of $50 to secure the favor of the defendant's attorney in getting up for trial. The judge has stated that a subpoena of the jury was issued in care of the various cases and that verdicts were given.
