"The Man on the Box."

One of the real dramatic treats of the season will be the appearance of Max Figman in "The Man on the Box" at the Grand opera house on Thursday, December 26. Mr. Figman is regarded by many as the foremost comedian on the American stage and has made one of the most pronounced successes ever achieved in this country in "The Man on the Box." Harold MacGrath's hero fits him as though specially written for him and there isn't a point overlooked in the performance. The play itself is one of those rare comedies that remind the theatre-goers of the substantial days when the Augustin Daly type of comedy were all the rage before they gave way to the frothy French farce. It relates a very pretty story and teems with bright lines and infectious comedy.

"The Gingerbread Man."

"The Gingerbread Man" which comes to the Grand opera house in the near future is a succession of beautiful pictures, song hits, pretty girls and wonderful mechanical and electrical effects. It is presented by an exceptionally strong company of Sloane, both of whom have been associated with some of the great successes of the present time. Messrs. Nixon & Zimmerman have furnished this organization with gorgeous trappings and costumes, magnificent scenic environment and appointments making it one of the great attractions of the current season.

How Diphtheria Is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Luck.

Papers in Demand.

Parties have been stealing from the Howells mail box, at the end of the Yew Park car line. At least one of them has been seen to take papers, and it will not be tolerated much longer.

Trouble Ended for the Hindus.

Allahabad, India, Dec. 30.—Scores of men and women were drowned today when the new pontoon bridge, just opened for traffic, gave way over the Ganges and Juman rivers. At least 100 were plunged into the water. It is reported that nearly all of them were drowned.

X-RAYS.

Now that the courts have decided the boycott illegal, would it not be well to take up the action of some corporations which have refused to furnish service to patrons or would-be patrons, because they employed men blacklisted by the corporations?

"Strongheart" which was billed for Salem, Tuesday, December 24, will not be here, the engagement being cancelled by a telegram this morning. The reason is that the date conflicts with that at Astoria. It would seem from this that Astoria is a better show town than Salem. However there are some genuine negro shows coming and maybe St. Perkins will come before spring.
