

WHY I LOST MY JOB

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along, it is usually "Your services no longer required." If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things as we all know are the most frightful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active, and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of "floaters" who go from one place of employment to another giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no hope no will power, and no ambition.

Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first free from all fretful indispositions and worries.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order, and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes, and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmosphere. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position, and my employer is satisfied, and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 3000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The tablets do all the work. No matter how heavy the meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eructations, burning sensations, bloating, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory, and dyspepsia and indigestion in their worst forms.

No other little tablet in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize that it is to be freed from stomach torment, and have a clear mind, quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50 cents a package.

Will Start Tannery.
S. B. Catterlin, formerly of this city, now of Portland, is in the city in the interests of F. J. Catterlin & Co., who will probably establish a tannery either in this city or in the metropolis.

The Catterlin company use the Antioak Leather company's method for tanning which is said to be superior to the oak solution. Mr. Catterlin is in the city to confer with the Salem push club as to the opportunities and advantages to be gained by establishing the industry here.

Band Serenades.
The members of the Salem Military band gave an open air concert yesterday afternoon on the corner of State and Commercial streets, after which Charles Yanke took the musicians for a drive in his big carry all. The drive extended over the main streets of east Salem and thence to residence portion between east Salem and the big bridge and back to the Yanke stables. Mr. Yanke has for the past two years donated the use of his carryall to the band on New Year's day in order that the musicians serenade the residence portion of the city which concerts are always appreciated.

DIRECTORS ARE NOW CHOSEN

FOR THIS VALLEY

WITH TWO MORE WILL MAKE COMMITTEE OF SEVEN OUT OF FIFTEEN TO CONTROL THE PACIFIC COAST HOP GROWERS' UNION—MR. DURST SAYS HE WILL NOT BE MANAGER.

There are still two members of the board of directors of the Pacific Hop Growers' Union to elect—one at Aurora and one at Woodburn. Those already selected are Jos. Baumgartner, Salem; Col. Harry Haines, Forest Grove; Director Henshall, Eugene; Director Simpson, Airlie; Director Jacobsen, McMinnville.

M. H. Durst and the rest of the California committee left last night for their home, having held ten meetings in Oregon, and saying that 80 per cent of those attending the meetings are in the union. They claim that 90 per cent of the Washington growers will go in. As a matter of fact, the big work of the Oregon committee is still to be done, and it is not likely that so far much over one-third of the growers are enlisted. The rest will be got in if the committees do lots of hard work, and they are full of energy after the boosting of the Californians. There are only 300 California growers, and nearly all wealthy men.

So for the present the work is going to be the enlisting of the growers, and that will take some time. Then the directors will meet and choose an executive committee. The readiness of the California growers to give Oregon seven directors to their own five, and Washington only three, indicates that the Californians are anxious to tie up to the Oregon crop on any terms, and the fun is yet to come when the actual selection of a business manager will be undertaken. For the directors will not be able to get together and do business as a body, except to select a manager. Last night at Hotel Willamette Mr. Durst denied that he was seeking the job. He says a quarter of a cent on the pound of the Pacific coast crop of hops would secure the best business talent in the United States, and that is what will be needed to make the union a success.

The Swine and the Flower

Oh me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of LARD!"

I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

COTTOLENE is a pure and wholesome frying and shortening medium, made from refined cottonseed oil. There is not an ounce of hog fat in it to make food unwholesome, greasy and indigestible. As evidence of its superiority, COTTOLENE received Grand Prize (highest possible award) at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; and Gold Medals (also representing highest awards in each case) at the Charleston Exposition, the Paris Exposition, and the Chicago World's Fair. In fact, in every case wherever COTTOLENE has been exhibited in competition with other cooking fats, it has invariably been granted the highest award.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.

In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

To Collect Commission.

A. C. Smith vs. Henry Tucker is the title of an action which has been commenced in department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court, and in June, 1907, furnished the defendant purchasers in F. F. Townsend and E. B. Karn, who agreed to pay the price of $10,000 for the selling the defendant's farm, which is situated near Salem, and the crop crop.

growing upon the said farm.

The complaint sets forth that A. C. Smith performed his part of the contract, and in June, 1907, furnished the defendant purchasers in F. F. Townsend and E. B. Karn, who agreed to pay the price of $10,000 for the selling the defendant's farm, which is situated near Salem, and the crop crop.

Besides the $250 commission the costs and disbursements of the action are asked.

C. W. Corby and Grant Corby are the attorneys for the plaintiff.
