CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Weather—Rain tonight and Saturday.

Notice—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Capital National Bank of Salem, for the election of directors will be held at its banking house in Salem, Oregon, on January 12, 1908 at 3 o'clock p. m. JOB. H. ALBERT, Cashier. 122-12-264

Prisoners for Penitentiary

Sheriff E. M. Schutt, of Morrow county, arrived in the city last evening with John Moore, W. Heise and Louis Howard, three men sentenced to serve terms in the penitentiary for larceny from a warehouse. Moore and Heise will each serve one year, while Howard will remain for two years.

Justice Court Case

Wallace Hatchard, of Gates, is defendant in an assault and battery case before Justice Webster. It seems he had some trouble with one Davis. Recently he tried to speak to Davis about the matter, and there was another fight, in which Davis got the worst of it, and had the winner in the fight arrested.

Credit Was Sprung

It now transpires that, after several ballots on city attorney, A. O. Cundit's name was sprung, and he received four votes. Some of the Turner men then switched to Keyes, and he was made the nominee.

Leap Year Party—At the Auditorium rink tonight. Every music for couples only.

Mr and Mrs Fred Kurtz passed through the city last evening, en route for California, where they will spend a short honeymoon.

Dr. Will Skiff & Son—Dentists, Steusloff building, Phone 208.

First Leap Year Party—At the rink tonight—"Society" night. Every music for couples only. Everybody invited.

Will Said to Be Safe

The approach to the concrete bridge on North Commercial street, which has been giving trouble owing to the damage done there by the recent flood, is said to be safe. Several tons of rock and mats of brush were thrown into the washout, which stopped any further destruction. Competent engineers give it as their opinion that the entire fill would have been swept away had it not been for the prompt measures taken by the city council and the street commissioner.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Will Install Officers

Salem Carpenter Union will install officers Saturday night, and W. H. Pettit and A. W. Dennis are delegates to the State Federation Trades convention, held at Astoria January 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ordway, of San Francisco, are in the city visiting their aunt, Mrs. Ruth Sayre, and may make their future home among us. E. J. Harding and son, of Glendale, are in the city for a short visit.

Special Meetings

Rev. A. J. Folsom, new home missionary superintendent for Oregon, will conduct special meetings each evening next week at Central Congregational church.

Chinese War Junk

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, Jan. 3.—After having been on exhibition in the bay of San Francisco for several months, the Chinese war junk Wang Ho will put to sea tomorrow morning to journey to the Atlantic coast, where it will be placed on exhibition at all the important seaports. The war junk was taken from Oakland creek this morning to the Mission flats, where it was fumigated.

DIED.

EMMITT—At the family home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Q. Barnes, 545 Court street, Friday, January 3, 1908, at 9:30 a. m., Mrs. Mary L. Emmitt, aged 84 years and 18 days.

Mrs. Emmitt was born in Waverly, Ohio, December 15, 1823, where she spent her early life. She was married in Ohio in 1848, to David Emmitt, and later moved to Missouri. From Missouri Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt moved to Kansas in 1872, where Mr. Emmitt died in 1896. Mrs. Emmitt then removed to Salem to reside with her daughter. She was for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a devoted Christian all her life.

Of the immediate relatives she leaves one son, James R. Emmitt, of Denver, Colorado, and a daughter, Mrs. J. Q. Barnes, of this city.

The funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 2:30 p. m., Saturday, January 4, by Rev. W. H. Selleck. Interment in City View cemetery.

GREEN—At the family home three miles east of Salem, Wednesday, January 1, 1907, at 5 p. m., Mrs. Sarah D. Green, aged 72 years.

The funeral services were conducted from the home at 11 a. m. this morning. Interment in the Leo Mission cemetery.

WELCH—At the Williamson & McNary sanatorium, Portland, Thursday, January 2, 1907, at 5 a. m., A. S. Welch, 28 years, of stomach trouble.

Mr. Welch was, in his young days, a resident of this city, attending the public schools here. Besides relatives in Portland, he leaves two brothers, W. M. and G. S. Welch, of this city.

The funeral service will be conducted at the Rigdon undertaking parlors at 10 a. m. Saturday, January 4, at 10 o'clock, by Rev. David Goode, interment in the Leo Mission cemetery.

Carrie Nation

certainly smashed a hole in the barrooms of Kansas, but Ballard's Horehound Syrup has smashed all records as a cure for coughs, bronchitis, influenza and all pulmonary diseases. T. C. H., Horton, Kansas, writes: "I have never found a medicine that would cure a cough so quickly as Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it for years." Sold by D. J. Fry.

BORN.

MORGAN—At the home on Twenty-fourth street, Thursday, January 2, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Morgan, a son.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store.
