JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

Our Clearance Sales which we conduct twice a year serve a double purpose—First that we may clean up all the odds and ends left over after each season, whereby we are able to show a new up-to-date stock the beginning of each season; Second, by giving a reduction twice a year on everything in the store, we gain many new customers, for when they see that we are going after their trade only by honest methods of advertising and dealing, they will be added to our long list of satisfied regular customers.

When It Became Personal.
Vick-Senn—I had ever so many chances to marry somebody that amounted to something, and I threw myself away on you.
Her husband (unexpectedly spunking up)—In my case it was quite different, madam. You were absolutely the last resort. Every other girl had refused me.—Chicago Tribune.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Safe Medicine for Children.
In buying a cough medicine for children, never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it, and relief is always sure to follow. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and there is no better medicine in the world for these diseases. It is not only a certain cure for croup, but, when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given as directed. It contains no opium or other harmful drugs, and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

The Wily Burglar.
First Burglar—What's that?
Second Burglar—That's my sample case. Ye see, I've just become a house-to-house canvasser.
First Burglar—What are ye sellin'?
Second Burglar—Oil to keep doors from squeakin'. Great scheme, ain't it?—London Telegraph.

It goes to the root of disease, strengthens and invigorates. Its life-giving qualities are not contained in any other remedy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has stood the severest test—time. For thirty years the surest remedy. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's Store.

Realism.
Star Actor—I must insist, Mr. Stager, on having real food in the banquet scene.
Manager—Very well, then; if you insist on that you will be supplied with real poison in the death scene.—Boston Transcript.

How It Happened.
A certain member of the fashionable Metropolitan and Chevy Chase clubs at the national capital has all his life borne many quibs by reason of his exceedingly diminutive stature.
Last spring the diminutive clubman took unto himself a wife, the daughter of a well-known Federal official, who is said to be as witty as her father.
"Mrs. Blank," said a friend one day recently, "I have just seen your husband for the first time since his marriage. Do you know, he seems shorter than ever."
"Why not," asked his wife, with a smile; "he's married and settled down."—Harper's Weekly.

Rank Foolishness.
"When attacked by a cough or a cold, or when your throat is sore, it is rank foolishness to take any other medicine than Dr. King's New Discovery," says C. O. Eldridge, of Empire, Ga. "I have used New Discovery seven years and I know it is the best remedy on earth for coughs and colds croup, and all throat and lung troubles. My children are subject to croup, but New Discovery quickly cures every attack." Known the world over as the king of throat and lung remedies. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Something In That.
A young man of Boston who had failed to pay his laundry bill endeavored to turn his Chinese aside from inquiry by an attack upon the Celestial's manner of speech.
"Why do you say 'Fliday,' John?" he asked.
"Say Fliday because I mean Fliday," replied John stoutly. "No say Fliday and mean maybe week after nex' like Melican man."—Christian Register.

But In Three Installments.
Knox—Oh, I don't think your friend Pinchpenny is so awfully close. I had a full meal in his house once.
Jigley—Go 'way! I don't believe it.
Knox—Fact. I was there to breakfast, lunch and dinner one day.—Philadelphia Press.

FROM THE ANTILLES.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councillor at Kingston, Jamaica.
Mr. W. O'Reilly Forgarty, who is a member of the city council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.

A Quibble.
"But," asked the absolutely bald old party, "can I be assured that this horse is quite gentle?"
"My dear, sir," replied the foxy horse dealer, "he wouldn't harm a hair of your head."—Philadelphia Press.

The Polite Debtor.
The proprietor of a hotel, hearing of the whereabouts of a guest who had decamped from his establishment without going through the formality of paying his bill, sent him a note:
"Dear Sir: Will you send me amount of your bill and oblige?"
To which the delinquent replied: "The amount is $47.50. Yours respectfully."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A CLEVER REPORTER.
He Got the Interview Word for Word and Took No Notes.
Interviewer—I have come to get your views on the proposed change in the curriculum of the school.
Mr. Swelthead—Curriculum! What's that mean? I'm against it, whatever it is.
Mr. Swelthead (reading the report of the interview in the next morning's paper)—"Our distinguished townsman, Mr. M. T. Swelthead, was found at his charming home, surrounded by abundant indications of ripe scholarship and sturdy common sense. In reply to our representative's questions he said, 'I do not desire to force my opinions upon the public, but this I will say, that I have given to this question long and studious attention, incidentally examining upon the curricula of institutions of learning, both at home and abroad, and, although I found in the existing course of study not a few matters for condemnation, still I cannot say that I should advise any radical change until I have further time to examine into the subject.'" By George, that fellow's got my exact language word for word. And he didn't take notes neither. Jiminy, but what a memory that fellow must have!—London Telegraph.

Stockholders' Meeting.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mutual Canning Co. will be held January 13, 1908, at 1 o'clock p. m., at the office of the company in Salem, Oregon, at which time directors for the ensuing year will be elected.
