Horticulture Society Will Meet—

The State Horticulture Society will meet in Portland on the 14th, 15th and 16th of this month. At the last meeting of the local society, held in this city, the question arose as to whether the members of the local organization were members of the state society. Mr. Armstrong immediately communicated with the state secretary in Portland, who said that every member of the local organization would be a member of the convention, which will be held this month in the metropolis, and all such members who were in attendance would be entitled to the same voting privilege as members of the state society. In fact, every one who belonged to a local organization was a delegate to the state meeting.
