Albany Police Kept Busy. According to City Marshal W. A. McClain's annual report, which was read before the Albany council last Monday, there were 288 arrests made in Albany during November and December. A pretty good showing for a dry town.

A Cure for Misery. "I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store.

SOCIETY PEOPLE WILL BE IN EVIDENCE TONIGHT

To See James Powers, the Famous Creator of San Toy, in the Greatest of All English Operas "The Blue Moon."

Sam S. and Lee Shubert (incorporated) announce that their latest and greatest English importation, "The Blue Moon," in which James T. Powers is being starred, and who is supported by a particularly capable company, will come to the Grand opera house at Salem tonight. "The Blue Moon" was an unqualified success abroad for two solid years, and its cordial receptions so far this season would lead one to surmise that it will go down in theatrical records as one of the most substantial and pleasing musical comedies that England has ever sent us.

JAMES T. POWERS IN THE BLUE MOON

James T. Powers in all his career has never had such unlimited opportunities as he has in this musical comedy. This statement is made with the full knowledge that Mr. Powers was the leading comedian with the Augustin Daly Musical Co. for seven years, and where all of his parts were arranged by Mr. Daly to suit his somewhat peculiar methods. Salem society people who think nothing of spending $10 going to see a first-class high-class opera at Portland will not object to paying $1.50 to $2.50 a seat for "The Blue Moon."

AMUSEMENTS. Tonight—James T. Powers in "The Blue Moon."

Auditorium Roller Rink. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions.

The Vaudeville. Moving pictures and illustrated songs, every afternoon and evening except Sunday and Monday afternoons.

San Toy Operas Tonight. The Grand opera house tonight will offer to the theater-going people of this city James T. Powers in the musical comedy success of two continents "The Blue Moon." Mr. Powers is said to be surrounded by a company of exceptional clever artists and a regular New York Casino chorus, where, by the way, Mr. Powers appeared in "The Blue Moon" for one full year, playing to capacity houses. The same beautiful and full production will be presented here as was seen at the Casino.

It goes to the root of disease, strengthens and invigorates. Its life-giving qualities are not contained in any other remedy. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea has stood the severest test—time. For thirty years the surest remedy. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's Store.

Delinquents Paying Up. Many of the citizens who were reported delinquent in the payment of their poll tax and against whom the city has prepared complaints, have appeared at Recorder Moores' office with the required amount of "mazuma" to settle their respective accounts. It is probable that most of the delinquents will pay up before Chief Gibson gets a chance to serve the warrants.

It Does the Business. Mr. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed without leaving a scar behind." 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

The Real Value

If you have headache or neuralgia you want relief; want it quick. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills stop the pain in just a few minutes. But their real value lies in the fact that they leave no bad after effects. They do not create nausea or derange the stomach. Nothing can therefore take the place of Anti-Pain Pills for the relief of headache or other pain.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do all that is claimed for them in curing headache and neuralgia. I was in Farmington and I had a fearful headache; the gentleman of the house said, 'Take one of my wife's Pain Pills,' and I did, and in less than one-half hour I felt as well as ever. I asked the name of these and he said Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. I purchased a box, and told my family I had found a great prize—something to cure headache. My three daughters also used them. A thousand thanks for such a remedy."

MRS. JAMES BLACKBURN, 36 Summer St., Rochester, N. H. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails, he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
