CLARK PRACTICED FREEZE OUT

MILLIONAIRE AND RICHEST COPPER MINE OWNER IN THE WORLD HAS HIS OFFICE FURNITURE ATTACHED.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, Jan. 9.—W. A. Clark, former United States senator from Montana, owner of the richest copper mine in the world, part owner of the Los Angeles and San Pedro railroad and several million dollars' worth of other things, had his palatial office furniture seized here to satisfy part of a judgment of $44,894, which Mining Expert George Treadwell has obtained against him. Deputy sheriffs are waiting a chance to seize the rich collection of paintings which the Montana magnate has stored in his apartments at 175 West Fifty-eighth street. The $44,000 judgment which has brought on all the turmoil dates back to the day that Treadwell claims, he discovered the $300,000,000 United Verde mine in Arizona. Treadwell says he was paid for his prospecting for the owners and presented with 100 shares of the company's stock. At that time the stock was quoted at $10. A little later, being cramped for cash in London, Treadwell hypothecated the 100 shares. Then Senator Clark stepped into the situation. He knew that there were hundreds of millions in the United Verde. Even then the shares had risen from $10 to $100. But Treadwell says the senator reorganized the company and froze him out completely.

FRISCO PLANNING BIG FIGHT

That is to be pulled off in honor of the Birthday of the Father of Our Country.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, Jan. 9.—In all probability the next prize fight of any proportions will be on Washington's birthday, and will come as near involving the middleweight title as is possible under the conditions. Stanley Ketchell, through his manager, has signed with Promoter Coffroth for that date, and is willing to meet either Billy Papke, Hugo Kelly or Mike (Twin) Sullivan at 154 pounds, four hours before the contest. Coffroth has set his wires to work, and if he can land Papke or Kelly, preferably the former, the match will be made. Papke and Walter Stanton, the California middleweight, have been matched for ten rounds before a Boston club on January 21, but Coffroth thinks he can get Papke to break that date in view of the fact that he would draw more money in San Francisco.

Kid Sealer, the Northwest lightweight, has at last secured a match. He signed up with Johnny Frayne last night for a 25-round fight before Coffroth's Colma Athletic Club, Friday night, January 24, with Billy Roche as referee. There was a long-winded dispute over the weight.

GAREY MARTIN TRIAL

LUPER DIVORCE CASE

PLEADINGS IN THAT FAMOUS SUIT MADE THE BASIS OF AN INDICTMENT AGAINST POPULAR YOUNG ATTORNEY OF THE CAPITAL CITY.

The case of the State of Oregon against Carey F. Martin, a prominent and popular young attorney of this city, was called for a jury trial a 9 o'clock this morning in Judge Burnett's court. Mr. Martin was indicted at the last term of court on a charge of having procured T. J. Luper to swear falsely to certain pleadings before him, in which Martin appeared for Luper, in a suit for divorce against Mrs. Luper. Luper was convicted of perjury in the same case, having sworn to a year's desertion on the part of Mrs. Luper, when he had been living with her but recently. The case against Luper was contested by the ablest counsel in this city, and were twice reversed in the supreme court on technicalities, and would have been carried there again, but Luper was unable to get bail and has been lying in the county jail, although he is a man who is well liked and has always held a responsible position under the Southern Pacific railroad. Mr. Martin is handling his own case, and appears by his counsel, William Holmes, of this city, and M. L. Pipes, one of the best lawyers of the city of Portland. Counsel for defense opened case to the jury, when court adjourned for noon. This afternoon presentation was completed, and Deputy Clerk Bertha Allen was first witness to identify certain records.

EVERGREEN DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 9.—Ignoring the action of the war horses of Democracy, who met yesterday morning and decided that it was not the proper time to announce allegiance to W. J. Bryan, the central committee, at its meeting late yesterday afternoon, endorsed the Nebraskan for president. The state convention to select ten delegates to Denver will be held at Spokane, May 18. Tacoma will, in all probability, be chosen for the second state convention to nominate a state ticket to be voted on at the primary election. Each convention will be entitled to about 700 delegates.

BETTER MILITARY CONDITIONS

Are Suggested in the Annual Report of General Bell, of the American Chief of Staff.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Jan. 9.—Cupid, the canteen and more pay are suggested by Franklin Bell, chief of staff, as the only three things that will induce experienced soldiers to remain in the army. General Bell says so in an important report, bubbling over with recommendations for the betterment of the conditions of the soldiers, which he has submitted to President Roosevelt. "To hold a man in the service 30 years and deny him the privilege of normal life, which is married life, is impossible," says General Bell. "To permit all to marry is equally impossible. In my opinion, the restoration of the canteen feature would operate for greater efficiency and contentment." Then the general suggests that the government provide quarters for married non-commissioned officers and give them a general increase in pay. He also recommends that a new grade of warrant officers be created to be above that of a non-commissioned officer. General Bell thinks more clothes should be allowed the army man; that their rations should be improved; that they be given better quarters, more amusement and that the tax of 12 1/2 cents for the support of the soldiers' home should be abolished.

A NURSE DESIRES REVENGE

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 9.—Because she permitted her ward, Miss Lillian Brettan, to wed William Hargrave, after a hurried courtship, before first informing her employer, Miss Annie Woolley, a nurse from the Royal Infirmary, of Hull, England, is out of work. She is now seeking money to go back to England, and warm up the atmosphere surrounding her late employer. Miss Woolley has retained counsel, she is after back pay, and declares that if the unclad symbol of love with his conventional bow and darts got in his deadly work she could not help it. She also wants a return ticket home, so she can tell Mr. Brettan just what she thinks of him.

A WOMAN'S DEVOTION BRINGS HER FORTUNE.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., Jan. 9.—To Mrs. James Barr Woods, of Eagle Harbor, has come a legacy of $50,000 as a result of bravery performed years ago at Montgomery, Ala. Mrs. Woods at that time nursed many patients during the epidemic of yellow fever. Some years ago Mrs. Woods removed to Eagle Harbor, where she has since been living. Yesterday as a complete surprise came to her the news that one of the men she had nursed in Montgomery had died, leaving his fortune between her and his own sister. Mrs. Woods' share is $50,000.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 9.—What is believed to have been an attempt to wreck a locomotive and a carload of passengers going out to the steamship Santa Rosa, was made last night. Through the discovery of the plot many lives were saved. A heavy steel rail had been placed directly across the tracks over which the train had to pass to reach the steamer. To all appearances the rail had been placed there with the deliberate intention of hurling the train into the bay. The wharf of the steamship company projects more than 1000 feet into the bay. The steamer's dock is at the end of the wharf, and for the accommodation of passengers, trains are run out to the steamer from the shore at stated intervals. At the point where the rail was placed across the tracks the train would have been hurled off the wharf with a drop of 12 feet to the waters of the bay, which are 30 feet deep at this place.

COMING TO EXAMINE COAST DEFENSES.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Jan. 9.—The board of army engineers, who will visit several of the Western cities to investigate the harbor improvements under way or under consideration looking toward further operation, left for the West this morning, first to California then up the coast to Puget Sound. The board will visit Tacoma, Olympia and Everett.

Miss Winifred Kelly, of Eugene, who disappeared from that city a few days ago, was thought to be lost or drowned. She was found at an Albany hotel.
