TWO YEARS FOR SMITH, FISHER FREE

Grierson vs. Curry, Action for Money. Settled—Aupslund vs. Anderson Suit, Default and Judgment—Other Circuit Court Business.

Sherman Smith, who, on last Monday, plead guilty to the charge of larceny in a building, was this morning sentenced by Judge Burnett to serve two years in the penitentiary. Sherman Smith and James Fisher were arraigned on last Monday to answer the charge of having stolen some jewelry and other valuables from the dwelling of G. A. Young, near the Fair Ground store on November 20, last. The defendant, Smith, plead guilty and Fisher, when arraigned on Tuesday, plead not guilty, and was so found by the jury on Wednesday. Fisher admitted that he was with Smith at the time of the robbery, but there was not sufficient evidence to prove that he was guilty of larceny. D'Arcy and Richardson were their counsel.

THORNE DIES AT HOSPITAL YESTERDAY

Unfortunate Man Who on December 14 Attempted Suicide in the Scott Hotel, Dropped Dead of Heart Failure.

William Thorne, who, on Saturday afternoon, December 14, slashed his throat and completely severed his windpipe with a jack-knife, in his apartments at the Scott Hotel, died Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Salem hospital, where he had been taken shortly after committing the act.

Thorne was thought to be gradually gaining strength until yesterday at dinner, when he suddenly fell over and expired from heart failure. He had been walking around in the hospital but a few minutes before lunch time, and seemed to be feeling as well as usual.

Thorne was a native of New Zealand, and was 41 years of age. He was a resident of Salem six years ago, at which time he moved to California, and was ill in San Francisco at the time of the earthquake. After his sickness there he went to Illinois, where he resided until last June, when he returned to this city.

He owned a team of good horses, and, previous to his rash act, had been engaged in work on the new Court street pavement. Six dollars was found in his trousers when taken to the hospital, and it is said that he has a snug bank account.

Before engaging apartments at the Scott Hotel Thorne had a room at the home of Harry Hatch, the well-known mail carrier. Mr. Hatch said that Thorne seem to be a man of steady habits. There seems to be nothing known as to his relatives.

Dr. Carlton Smith, Thorne's physician, said that Thorne told him he had no relatives in Oregon.

The Blue Moon at the Grand Last Night.

Those who missed seeing the "Blue Moon" last night missed the biggest treat of the season. The company, as a whole, was one of the best looking and most evenly balanced that has ever visited Salem. Instead of one lone star, there were about six. Powers took the leading male part, while Clara Palmer played to him. Powers' ability as an actor is too well-known in Salem to need any mention. Miss Palmer, who is new here, made a great hit with the audience. The singing of Nanon Jacques, as "Blue Moon," was the best that has been heard in the Grand opera house this season. She sang very clearly, and the audience was able to understand every word.

Space will not permit the proper mention of all the characters for every one of the principal parts was taken by a star.

The stage settings were beautiful, and entirely out of the ordinary. The scenery illustrating the song "Moon, Dear," was simply magnificent, and the smile on the face of the man in the moon was no broader than that of the audience.
