KREBS WINS HOP SUIT

Gets Judgment for $6000—Other Court Matters Decided Yesterday and Today.

The jury in the case of the Krebs Hop Company vs. T. A. Livesley & Co. yesterday afternoon returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $6000.

The case arose over the difference in price of hops on October 15, 1907, and a contract price agreed upon between the two parties.

The Krebs Hop Company, in 1905, contracted to deliver to T. A. Livesley & Company 100,000 pounds of hops each year for five years at 14 cents per pound. The first lot in 1905 was delivered, but in 1906 the price of hops decreased, and a suit followed. The case was appealed to the supreme court, where a decision was given in favor of the Krebs Company, and as a result the Livesley yard was attached.

The same trouble arose last season, and terminated in yesterday's decision after a trial before Judge Burnett.

The jury was out only about 15 minutes, and returned with the verdict which was for the amount asked by the Krebs Company.

Carson & Cannon represented the plaintiff, while Tilmon Ford was the attorney for the defense.

Robertson vs. Bates.

After being out over five hours yesterday afternoon the jury in the commission suit of J. F. Robertson and E. B. Walters, real estate dealers, of Albany, vs. Isaac C. Bates, et al., returned a verdict for the plaintiffs for $1, and for the defendants for the costs and disbursements of the suit. The plaintiffs asked five per cent on a $1500-deal which had been closed by the Bates, the defendants, although the plaintiffs claimed that they were instrumental in making the trade.

Other Docket Entries.

Paul H. Hauser vs. M. Christenson, action for money; default and judgment.

Marcella C. Grierson vs. W. H. Curry, action for money; settled.

W. H. Harding vs. C. T. Van Allen, action for money; plaintiff's motion for new trial overruled.

State of Oregon vs. C. E. Doty, abduction of female; motion of state to postpone trial to April term allowed.

The court adjourned to meet at 1 p. m., January 13.

VOTES ARE AGAINST LABOR

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, Jan. 11.—Champions of the labor cause in the house of representatives today made a fight on the floor to have a clause inserted in the new codification penal law providing that labor leaders cannot be punished under the o'd "Kuklux" statute, on the ground of conspiracy to injure citizens enjoying their constitutional rights.

Representatives Smith, of Missouri, and Hughes, of New Jersey, who introduced amendments with this end in view, demand that congress grant labor "some relief from the manner in which it has been hounded by injunctions.

Representative Sherry, of Kentucky, a member of the committee that framed the new law, opposed the amendments.

Various amendments to bills affecting the cause of labor were defeated today by about 15 votes on the average.

Overland Delayed by Wreck.

The southbound overland due in Salem at 11:35 a. m. was delayed this morning over a freight car being wrecked on the Miller place near the reform school. The train was held in this city until the wreck could be cleared, which will probably be about 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The accident was caused by a car loaded with lumber getting a hot box and twisting the axle in two, which threw the car across the rails and jammed other cars into the load of lumber. No one was injured. The private car of Manager O'Brien is attached to the southbound overland which was held in Salem.

It Does the Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed without leaving a scar behind." 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
