

DYSPEPSIA PROOF.

How Any Meal Can Be Thoroughly Enjoyed by Any Stomach.

Men, as a rule, are first discovered by their enemies. Their antagonists turn on the searchlight, and the proof of merit will lie in being able to stand the flash.

It was only in this way that Mr. White ever knew that dyspepsia was one of Mr. Black's worst enemies. Sitting face to face at a two-by-four table he handed his afflicted friend the bill of fare:

- Oyster Cocktail. Stuffed Olives. Boston Clam Chowder. Strained Gumbo. Sirloln Steak with Mushrooms. Roast Beef Hash. Boiled Ox Tongue with Sauerkraut. Lobster a la Newberg. Baked Pork and Beans. Combination Crab Salad. Hot Mince Pie. Pineapple Fritters.

Mr. White ordered a "little of each." Mr. Dyspepsia Black ordered crackers and a glass of milk. "I had such a big breakfast this morning," he said, "that I'll just take a bite to keep you company." But White could not be deceived; "I am afraid you can't stand the gleam, Mr. Black. Why don't you say you have the dyspepsia, and be done with it? You'll always have that hungry look, anyhow as long as you have dyspepsia. Now listen. My stomach was in just as bad condition as yours at one time. But now I can eat anything, at any time. For instance, this clam chowder or sirloln steak or even the lobster salad would be just as welcome to my stomach as your crackers and milk. You don't realize how this dyspepsia business is robbing you of your spirit, of your energy and ability to think quickly. I can't help notice it. You haven't the cheer and sociability you had three months ago. Now, I'll tell you what to do," and thereat the cheerful Mr. White took a vial from his pocket and extracted a wee tablet. "There, there is a tablet that contains an ingredient, one grain of which digests 3000 grains of food. For even the worst dyspeptic it is the only thing that really gives relief. The reason is it relieves the stomach of nearly all the work it has to do, digests everything in the stomach and stimulates the gastric juice. I can't get along without them. They are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. You can get them anywhere on earth for 50c a package."

Yes, it is true, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets absolutely stop heartburn, nausea, indigestion, dyspepsia of the worst type, sour stomach, bloaty feeling and all eruptions and irritation, and freshen and invigorate the stomach. They cheer you up, and make you get all the good there is in your food. You will forget that you ever had a stomach to worry you.

Send us your name and address today, and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Mrs. Mary Scriber.

Her father was Chrisholm Griffith born in Virginia, her mother was Maria Clayton of Lexington, Kentucky. Soon after their marriage they moved to Missouri where their children were born. Mary Griffith was their oldest daughter and third child. She was born in 1839. In 1850 with her parents she crossed the plains by ox team, coming down the Columbia river in September they reached Vancouver where she met Charles W. Scriber the following February they were married soon removing to the Waldo hills on their donation land claim. They lived happily and seven children were born to them. In order to give these children the advantages of a good education they moved to Salem in 1865. In 1901 they celebrated their golden wedding. Five years ago Mr. Scriber crossed the river and was waiting for his loved one to join him when her summons came.

Mrs. Scriber lived a true Christian life always ready to help the needy and to speak a kindly word. She had been in the Women's Christian Temperance union since 1853, over 25 years, and with her gentle, kindly manners was a power in the union. The following resolutions were passed by the union:

Whereas, it has pleased the all wise Father to remove from our midst, our well loved sister, Mary Scriber;

Resolved, that we, as members of the Salem Women's Christian Temperance union, do by this means pay our tribute of love and respect for her, and our sympathy to the bereaved ones, and while we mourn our own loss we can but rejoice that she has been promoted to the higher life that she has gone to the home prepared for her by one who has said, "I go to prepare a place for you." Sister Scriber has for years been one of our most honored and trusted members, and we feel that the inspiration of her life among us will still help us to go forward in our work; be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and be sent to the two city papers and also a copy be spread on our record. MRS. E. M. LAW, MRS. M. W. RHODES, MRS. MARY JORY, MRS. E. M. VANDERVORT, Committee.

"Don't be afraid," said the woman on the front step, "that dog likes strangers."

"Yes, madam," answered Meandering Mike. "I do not question your assurance that he would like me. But do you refer to him as a seeker for companionship or as an epicure?" —Washington Star.

A Cure for Misery.

"I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louisville, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store.
