

This woman says that sick women should not fail to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as she did.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health.

HE SCORES ROOSEVELT

Salt Lake, Utah, Jan. 23.—Repeated flings at President Roosevelt because of his utterances concerning lands in the West were the features of an address delivered today at the Arid Farm Congress by J. L. Donahue, of Denver, who is president of the congress.

The speaker referred particularly to Roosevelt's Jamestown speech, in which he declared that the lands of the West were only fit for forage.

President Donahue then gave reasons why certain federal laws pertaining to arid lands should be modified.

OREGON CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

Will Hold Meetings at Eugene, February 20-23.

Plans for the eighteenth state convention of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union, to be held in Eugene, February 20 to 23 inclusive, are well under way.

The program is not yet complete, but it includes conferences for the delegates, and open meetings for the people of Eugene; also three simultaneous meetings for Sunday afternoon, the last day of the convention—one each for men, women and children.

The railroads have granted the usual one and one-third fare to all delegates.

Eugene Endeavors have organized the necessary committees, and will provide entertainment for all accredited delegates.

There are between 200 and 300 of the Christian Endeavor societies in the state, and an attendance of fully 200 delegates is expected.

People Want What They Want When They Want It. You have what they want. Let everybody know about it through the Journal locals, for everybody reads them.

Dr. Rowland. The many friends of Dr. Rowland will be pained to learn of his death, which occurred at the Salem hospital on the 19th inst., at 6 a. m. It has been the privilege of the writer to have known the deceased very intimately for more than forty years.

Let no one say that these statements are posthumous adulation. A multitude of witnesses, who knew him best, would gladly testify in verification of the above, if they could have a hearing.

ONE WHO KNEW HIM WELL.

PITIFUL STORY OF AGED INDIANS

Word was received by Dr. Mingsus last night that two old Indians had been found dead in their cabin at the mouth of Larsen's Inlet, and he visited the scene this morning to ascertain what was the matter.

A rancher passing the place a week ago today saw signs of life about the place, but since that time there had been no sign of movement.

The body of the woman was found half way between the cabin and the water in a nude condition, and it was evident that she had been bathing, as was her habit, in the waters of the inlet.

Can't Miss It

So many ailments are purely nervous affections, that you can hardly miss it if you try Dr. Miles' Nervine. It restores nervous energy—and through its invigorating influence upon the nervous system, the organs are strengthened.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine is worth its weight in gold to me. I did not know what ailed me. I had a good physician but got no relief. I could not eat, sleep, work, sit or stand. I was nearly crazy. One day I picked up a paper and the first thing that met my eyes was an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I concluded to try it and let the doctor go, and I did so. After taking two bottles I could dress myself. Then I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I can work and go out, and have told many the benefit I have received from these remedies and several of them have been cured by it since. I am fifty-nine years old and pretty good yet. I did so. After taking ANNA B. PALMER, Lewistown, Pa. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money."

coat and a sheet, and then crawled back to his cabin and dropped dead, grief evidently affecting his numerous years and a weak constitution too greatly for him to stand the blow.

That they had not starved was easily evident from the fact that there was plenty of food on the premises, also considerable clothing, most of which had been furnished by the county. Up to a short time ago the condition of the Indians was pitiable, because they were without food and were unable to help themselves.

Very little is known of the old couple as they have kept to themselves for many years. It is claimed, however, that they were the oldest Indians of the Kusan tribe in Coos county, and that they were full grown before this section had ever been visited by whitemen.

The Indians do not keep track of their age, and while the deceased Indians may have been much more than a hundred years old, judging from their appearance, little is known about them, their age is placed close to the century mark.

KIT CARSON

Feat of Which the Hardy Frontiersman Had No Recollection.

One of the most noted of the hardy western frontiersmen was Kit Carson, to whom, with Daniel Boone, belongs the credit of having always dealt fairly with the various Indian tribes, as they themselves acknowledged.

"My own conception of Kit Carson as a child was that he was ten feet high, that it would have required the strength of two men to lift his rifle, that he usually drank a river dry and picked the carcass of a whole buffalo clean as easily as a lady does the wing of a quail. Years after, when I made the acquaintance of the foremost frontiersman, I found him a delicate, reticent, undersized, wiry man, the very opposite type of what my childish brain had created.

a gigantic figure dressed in the traditional buckskin. On one arm rested an immense rifle. His other arm was around the waist of the conventional female of such sensational journals, while in front half a dozen Indians lay prone, evidently slain by the hero in the impossible attire in defense of the preposterous female. The legend stated how all this had been effected by Kit Carson.

I handed it to Kit. He wiped his spectacles, studied the picture intently for a few seconds and then said: "Gentlemen, that may be true, but I hain't got no recollection of it."

Swiping the Water Front.

San Francisco, Jan. 23.—That the Western Pacific Company, by a shrewd move, has completely bottled up the best of the Oakland water front, and thereby defeated a project to build municipal wharves at that point, is the belief of five of the city councilmen.

The "joker" in the grant upon which the company will act was the insertion of a clause giving the railroad company a "fairway" which extends from the lighthouse at the north wall of the estuary to the pier head line. This "fairway" will allow the company to extend its piers so that the harbor front between the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific will be inclosed, thus shutting off the proposed municipal wharves.

Economical Woman.

Of small economies the following will be difficult to beat for smallness: A laboring man who hands over his weekly wages to his wife is allowed by her an ounce of tobacco a week. She buys it herself in two separate half ounces in order, she declares, to get the advantage of the two turns of the scale.—London Chronicle.
