ner Mr. Jorgenson lost his balance and fell beneath the cayuse, which, to use Ira's words, just walked over him. Mr. Jorgenson was so near the animal's feet that no serious damage was done by its kicks, although it had the Salem habit. As soon as the other men of the shop extricated Mr. Jorgenson from his perilous position he was sent home in a cab. Fortunately the injuries have proven to be just bruises, and the veteran horse shoer will be able to resume work in a day or so. The cayuse is shod, and healthy.

JOHN SAVAGE SR., PASSED AWAY

The best-known pioneer of the immigration of 1846 left this world today at 12:30, after an illness of about three months' duration—John Savage, Sr. He lived to be 81 years old the 16th of last September, and has been confined to his room for about a year. His last visit to this city was on December 15, 1906. He lived near Salem on his Jonation land claim almost continuously since the day of his arrival, September 11, 1846, and few men were better known, had more friends or a bigger heart than "Uncle" John Savage. He was a native of Coshocton county, Ohio, born September 16, 1826, and went to Michigan in 1829 with his parents, and left with them for Oregon, March 18, 1846. His first wife was Rhoda Presley, married in the fall of 1850. To them were born eight children, five living. Mrs. W. G. Evans and Mrs. Eliza Keppinger, of Brooks; G. O. Savage, and Mrs. Ella Byrne, of Salem, and Mrs. L. T. Gleason, of Gervais. He married again in 1871 to Mrs. Eleanor Herrin, who survives him. Deceased had no church connection, but was a member of the Masonic order. He leaves quite a property, and was a successful business man in all that he undertook. His funeral will be held from his late home near the fair grounds on Saturday at 11 a. m. Burial in the family lot in Rural cemetery.

HERE'S ANOTHER LEARNED ASS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 22.—Japan is destined to master the Pacific, according to the view of the situation taken by Professor P. J. Treat.
 Professor Treat made this statement in the course of a lecture delivered by him last night on the history of Japan.
 "If geography means anything," he said, "it tells us that the destiny of Japan is the mastery of the Pacific."

Earthquake in Italy.
 (United Press Leased Wire.)
 Reggio di Calabria, Italy, Jan. 22.—A strong earthquake shock was felt in this province today. The terrified people rushed from their homes to the open fields or took refuge in nearby subterranean grottos. No loss of life has been reported.

Spider Chased a Man.
 A story is told by an explorer of a large and fierce South American spider which chases men if they come too near its lurking places. On one occasion he was pursued by one. "Riding at an easy trot over the dry grass," he writes, "I observed a spider pursuing me, leaping swiftly along and keeping up with my breast. I aimed a blow with my whip, and the point of the lash struck the ground close to it, when it instantly leaped upon and ran up the lash and was actually within three or four inches of my hand when I flung the whip from me."—London Standard.

DIED.
COONSE.—At the home of his sister, Mrs. T. B. Jones, corner of Commercial and Center streets, Thursday afternoon, January 23, 1908, at 12:15 o'clock, Phillip Murray Coonse, aged 65 years, of stomach trouble.
 Mr. Coonse was born in Missouri and crossed the plains in 1852 with his parents, who settled in Marion county near Gervais.
 He has ever since been a resident of this county. He served in the Indian wars in Company G, at Fort Vancouver, and was wounded in 1861 by Indians.
 Of the immediate family he leaves a wife and five children, all of whom reside in Oregon.
 The funeral will be conducted from the Jones residence Friday, January 24, at 12:30, by Rev. Arnold, of Brooks. Interment in the Clagget cemetery.

CITY NEWS

A Collection of Important Paragraphs for Your Consideration

Weather.
 Occasional rain tonight and Friday.

Marriage License.
 The following marriage license was issued yesterday: Emile Graber, aged 28, and Minnie Harris, aged 23, both of this city. Pastor Ombler, witness.

The Price Shoe Co.
 Big clearance sale ends Saturday night. Get busy.

Property Owners Object.
 Property owners along north Mill creek, just above the concrete bridge, complain that their property has been damaged by the construction of the bridge in the stream, causing the bed of the creek to change. On one side of the stream property owners say that their land has been damaged by a washing away, while the other side sets forth that the soil has been damaged by piles of gravel which have been deposited by the changed current.

The Last Chance.
 To get a reduction in up-to-date shoes at The Price Shoe Co's store. Sale ends Saturday night.

Advertising Doesn't Pay.
 Maybe not, but if you'll notice it's the men who advertise that have the big business. Journal locals are a cheap investment for a big profit.

The Last.
 Week of the big reduction sale at The Price Shoe Co's store.

Does the Public Read the Locals?
 Of course they do. What are you doing now. A Journal local is the same as telling everyman you pass on the street about some good thing you have to sell.

Dr. Coleman Goes East.
 Dr. John Coleman, of Willamette University, left yesterday for Troy, New York, where he will remain for several weeks on business. Dr. Coleman belongs to the Troy conference of the M. E. church, in which place the doctor resided before coming to Salem to take up the work of the school. He is said to be a probable successful candidate for one of the bishoprics, which will be given at the conference which will soon meet in Baltimore.

Dr. Coleman made a farewell address yesterday in chapel to the students, who bade him an affectionate goodbye. Dr. Coleman's value as an earnest worker for "Old Willamette" cannot be overlooked, and his services in bringing the school to a stable financial basis is appreciated by the thousands of friends of the institution.

New Customers.
 Are what you want. If a Journal local brings in several new customers, look what it means. A satisfied customer brings business. It is up to you to satisfy them.

The Newest Dainty.
 Boston Honeycomb Taffy at the Spa.

See Our Waterproof Shoes.
 In all heights. Big reduction. The Price Shoe Co.

The Way to Advertise.
 The man who yells into a well about the goods he has to sell, will never reap the mighty dollars like the man who climbs a tree and hollers.
 Some wise man said this, so let the Journal locals carry it out for you.

Meeting Postponed.
 The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church has postponed its regular monthly meeting for one week. They will meet with Mrs. L. K. Page, 492 Cottage street, on January 31, instead of Jan. 24.

Willamette vs. Dallas.
 The basketball fans will be treated to some rare sport tomorrow evening in the 'varsity gymnasium, when the Dallas college five meet "Old Willamette's" aggregation in the second contest of the season between the two teams. Willamette was defeated shortly before the holidays by the Dallas team, in the Dallas gymnasium, and the game tomorrow night promises to be a battle royal. The local players have been practicing hard for the past several weeks, and feel that not even the strong aggregation of the Dallas college can defeat them on their own floor. The Willamette students will be in attendance at the game in a body, and will keep the atmosphere full of appropriate harmonies.

Petition of Road District No. 4.
 A petition signed by the residents of road district No. 4, east of Salem, asking for county aid has been filed with the county court. The action of the court on the petition will decide whether or not an appropriation will be made for the improvement of the Garden Road.

His Leg Broken.
 While endeavoring to repair a trolley wire, which was down for a considerable distance, on the Oregon Electric road near Wilsonville, yesterday morning one of the men was knocked from the car and his leg was broken.

Street Commissioner Busy.
 Street Commissioner Martin is one of the busiest men in Salem, looking after the repairing of the various bridges damaged during the recent storms, and repairing the streets. Bridges have been repaired at Cross and Twelfth streets, Turner road, Bush street, North Summer, Pine and on Twenty-fifth streets. This morning Mr. Martin started his force to hauling gravel to repair the chucks and low places on Twenty-first street. In speaking to a Journal reporter last evening Mr. Martin said: "We find that gravel scraped off the road and re-used is of no practical value. We find that all such gravel is so mixed with mud that it washes away and leaves the road in a worse condition than when it was thrown on. We will haul the gravel from the river, which is the cleanest and most convenient gravel obtainable."

Narrowly Avoided Serious Injury.
 Ira Jorgenson, the well-known blacksmith, who conducts a shop on High street, just north of the Farmers' feed yard, narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon, while shoeing a horse. The animal became frightened, and in some man-
