

SOCIAL GOSSIP

A China Shower.
Miss Elene Fawk today gave a china shower in honor of an intended bride, Miss Lenna Cavanagh of Astoria, who is to be married Feb. 1 to Mr. Otto Ragan of this city. The residence on Nob Hill was decorated and darkened for the occasion, and then electric lighted into semblance of a fairyland scene. Refreshments, entertainment and music to the bride-to-be were all lavished and beautiful, as Miss Fawk has a superior as a hostess. She was assisted by her sisters, Mrs. Josephine Tillamook and Mrs. Claudine of The Dalles. Her guests of honor were Miss Hazel McNary Eugene and Miss Blanche McNary Tillamook.

Newby-King Wedding.
The marriage of Mrs. John King to Samuel Newby of Rosedale took place last Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs. King, 565 North 24th street.

At 6:30 o'clock Miss Genett Smith presided at the wedding. Immediately after which the ceremony was performed by Rev. Elmer Peterson in the presence of about fifty guests and friends. After the ceremony a dainty five-course dinner was served by Mrs. John Pemberton. A number of useful and pretty presents were received.

Mrs. Newby came to Salem from Astoria, about two years ago, and purchased the Prof. Parvin residence on 24th High street, which will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newby. Mr. Newby also came here from Iowa, a few years ago, and is the owner of a large orange orchard at Rosedale. Both have many friends here who wish them much happiness.

Reduced Rates to Teachers.

After extended correspondence with Supt. Ackerman of the department of public instruction, finds he has mistaken in the statement made in his former interview, to the effect that delegates to the National Educational association had never been given reduced rates this side of the coast river. He says, the railroads are showing a good disposition to the Cleveland meeting of the National Educational association as well as by giving reduced rates to those who wish to attend that great national gathering to be held from July 29 to July 3. The program is now ready for distribution to those educators.

The Elks Gave a Ball.

The regular monthly dancing party given by the order of Elks was most successful Thursday evening, with one hundred taking part and a very pleasant evening. The orchestra of ten performers and the music and punch was served until midnight.

Hat Social.

An innovation in the way of entertainments was given on Tuesday evening by the League of the Leslie E. church, at the home of Miss Melntyre, on South Commercial street. All the ladies brought trimmed hats, with loose trimmings, and the special feature of the evening was the trimming of them by the gentlemen guests. Clark Melntyre won the first prize for having the prettiest hat, while Carl Melntyre received the consolation. Coffee and cake was served by Misses Ruby Vera Townsend, Florence Alma Nye and Nellie Melntyre.

The Melntyre residence was prettily decorated, the color scheme being red and white—the colors of the League.

An interesting program was given during the evening, including a solo by Clark Melntyre and Mrs. Melntyre, a solo by Nina Johnson and a number of instrumental solos. About 75 guests were present.

Discuss Labor Organizations.

The recently organized Civic League held a lively discussion last Thursday evening in the offices of Palmer & Gehlhar. The discussion of the evening was on the question, "Resolved, labor organizations are a benefit to the working man." The speakers presented strong arguments pro and con, and in such a way as to show a great deal of ability and thorough knowledge of the question, but the decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative. S. H. Heitzel and D. H. Duncan and M. H. Gehlhar were the negative. At the special meeting of the members, Mr. J. H. Duncan gave an interesting talk on life insurance, which was presented in such a way as to show a complete mastery of the subject.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, R. D. Duncan; Vice-President, S. H. Heitzel; Secretary, D. H. Allen; Treasurer, J. H. Lanterman; Censor, M. H. Gehlhar.

During the short time that the league has been organized the young men have improved splendidly, and it is hoped that more of Salem's progressive young business men will avail themselves of this opportunity for discussing current problems.

The K. O. T. M. Smoker.

A very unique entertainment of the week was the stag social and smoker given by the Knights of the Maccabees (Williamette Tent No. 6) last Wednesday evening. Short addresses were delivered by State Commander J. W. Sherwood of Portland, Gideon Stolz, W. T. Rigdon, August Huchenstein and others. About 10 o'clock an old-fashioned Dutch lunch, consisting of sauer kraut, liver sausage, crackers, Swiss cheese, prezels and coffee were served, after which clay pipes and tobacco were passed around. The balance of the evening was spent in smoking, card games and general merriment. A goodly number of applications was one of the valuable results of the smoker. About 125 guests were present and all report an unusually jolly time.

Abraham-Zwicker Wedding.

On Wednesday evening a pretty home wedding took place at the home of the groom's parents, on 24th street, where Miss Clara Zwicker was united in marriage to Gustav Abraham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Geo. H. Engle, pastor of the German Lutheran church of this city. The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk and lace.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to about forty guests. The tables were beautifully decorated in ferns and roses. The newly married couple will make their home in Salem.

Priscilla Club Entertains.

The Priscilla Club held its weekly meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. T. Wahn, 677 South Commercial street. After a couple of hours spent in sewing, sandwiches, salad and coffee were served by the hostess.

Skating Party.

Invitations are out to a skating party to be given by Miss Allee Myers next Monday night. On that evening the Auditorium rink will be closed to all except the invited guests, of whom there are about 120, including many out-of-town people. A special program will be furnished by McElroy's orchestra.

An Affair of Letters.

We were much surprised at meeting little Polly Contosel, formerly of Bowersville, in England.

"Why, Polly!" we say. "How is it we find you here?" "Polly!" she repeats, with a dignity we never knew she possessed. "Lady Oledobts, if you please."

An opology on our part establishes friendly relations once more, and she tells us that she really has won and wedded Lord Oledobts and that her father's dollars are being expended in the refurnishing of the Oledobts castle.

"But," we say, "it was rumored in Bowersville that you were hesitating in your choice between three honest farmer lads in the vicinity. How was it, then that you married his lordship?"

"Oh," she titters, "he came to Bowersville one day. When I saw him I dropped my eyes and he began dropping his b's, and it wasn't long until he induced me to drop my j's, and now we are both making papa drop his v's and x's."—Judge.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

In Solomon's Class.

Mrs. Amelia Jaeger, who conducts a rooming-house in Chicago, can claim one five hundredth part of the affection of Dr. Geo. A. Wilchoff, whose career of polygamy has just been revealed by his arrest at Bristol, England. For a brief period, she was, or supposed she was, Mrs. Wilchoff, then she lost not only the fractional part of Wilchoff's love which she possessed but also $500 which carelessly she had left on the chiffonier.

Like most of the other 499 brides Mrs. Jaeger wishes the multifarious bridegroom could be released from custody just long enough for her to have a short chat with him.

"I would just like to meet him," she said yesterday, with some fervor. "I feel I could pull his heart out."

Mrs. Jaeger is 47 years old. She had been a widow for 14 years when in 1905 she met Wilchoff then known as Anton Dobler. As soon as he learned she had money in the bank, he is said to have begun an ardent courtship. They were married on August 3, 1905, and five days later Wilchoff disappeared along with the $500 which his bride had drawn from a savings bank to start him in the saloon business. He was said to have eloped to New York with Mrs. Adam Heinrich, wife of a pastry cook.
