Artisans Initiate.

A large number of the members of Capital Assembly, United Artisans, attended the initiation in Odd Fellows' hall last evening. The team, under the direction of Mrs. Henry St. Helens, had charge of the floor work, and H. S. Belg had charge of the team exemplifiers.

After the business session several impromptu addresses were delivered, and Chester Catlow, the well-known reader, delighted those present with a story of a young man waiting for his lady love. He, in turn, impersonated the young lady in her many maneuvers before the looking glass in getting ready to receive her caller.

Woodmen Dance.

The local order of the Woodmen of the World gave a dance in the Holman Hall last evening. A large number of members and invited friends were present, and an excellent time is reported. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Helen Pearce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pearce, gave a pie party at her home on North Winter street last night to the members of the G. O. B. club of Willamette University. Each guest was requested to bring a pie of her own

WOODBURN MAN IS SHOT DOWN

Was Wanted on Warrant Connecting Him With Jordon Assault.

Woodburn, Jan. 25.—City Marshal Riddell and Constable Amos Beach got into a deadly encounter with one Charles Elwell, brother of the bartender in Pat Douglas' saloon and, as a result, Elwell was shot through the thigh, and lies in the hospital in a precarious condition.

Elwell was under surveillance of the Woodburn officers on the charge of having robbed a farmer from Hubbard named Jordon, but there is no evidence that Jordon was robbed of anything. The theory is that Elwell was trying to rob him, but was interrupted before he got anything. In attempting to make the arrest, Elwell got out of the back door of the saloon, and Riddell grappled him in the dark. At first Elwell had the best of the officer, but the latter got in several blows with his club, and Elwell let go his hold on Riddell's throat and fled. Constable Beach, who had the warrant, got around the other way, and at first fired a shot in the air at the fleeing man, but as he did not stop brought him to the ground with a shot from his revolver, that smashed his thigh bone, and is really a dangerous wound.

More Details From Woodburn.

Woodburn, Jan. 25.—(Special)—Elwell was wanted for assaulting a man named Ben Jordan in this city on December 23, 1907. Jordan was badly cut about the head and claimed that his assailant's intention was robbery, but that parties appearing on the scene frustrated the designs of Elwell. The marshal entered the saloon to serve the warrant, when Elwell ran. The marshal fired six shots at him, and Marshal Beach, who was passing, ordered the man to halt. Waiting a few moments, he fired, bringing down his man. Elwell will be taken to Salem this morning.

PHYSICAL MUSICAL NATATORIAL

"Visitors' Night," which was observed last evening at the local Y. M. C. A., proved to be a great success. The musical and literary program was excellent and well received by the large audience present.

The physical work, demonstrating the class exercises, which are the regular routine of the association, was executed with precision. There were no especial circus stunts performed, as the purpose of this part of the entertainment was to prove the practical work of the Y. M. C. A., which is to promote health and stimulate strength and manhood.

After the gymnasium classes had finished their work last night the program was rendered.

Tonight the association building will be turned over to the boys. At 7:30 the regular class work will be given, which will be followed by class games in the gymnasium. At 8:15 the swimming pool will be in readiness. At 9:20 a musical and literary program will be rendered in the lecture hall. The Y. M. C. A. guitar and mandolin club will be present, and will add much to the pleasure of the occasion. All friends of the association, ladies and gentlemen, are given a cordial invitation to be present tonight. Every parent, who has a boy old enough to join the Y. M. C. A., should attend the exercises, which will demonstrate the great work which is being done by the association.

The Steinberg Funeral.

The funeral of Harry Steinberg, whose death occurred on Wednesday morning, was conducted by Rev. P. S. Knight, at the family residence on 20th street Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. A committee composed of members of the Y. M. C. A. had charge of the arrangements, and special music was furnished by the Baptist quartet. The senior class of the high school attended in a body, and six boys of the class acted as pallbearers. The house was banked with the beautiful floral offerings, from his classmates and young friends, with whom he was very popular. Mr. W. H. Steinberg accompanied the remains of his son to Hull, Iowa, their former home, where the interment will be made.

MOTHER DEAR AND BABY JOHN

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, Jan. 25.—Mrs. John Martin, famous all over the coast because of her connection with the John Martin will case and the "baby John" incident, is under arrest at Redding, California.

The complaint charges her with arson in burning a cattle barn on Brown's creek, near Weaverville, January 7, entailing a loss of $2000. The barn was the property of Mrs. James Morris, who was a strong witness against her in the famous will case.

"Baby John," now a boy aged 16, was bound over to the superior court on the same charge. At his preliminary examination, which lasted over a week, and was full of sensations, Mrs. Martin acted as his counsel, and was calling nearly every person in Trinity county as a witness to pile up expenses, saying: "I'll bankrupt Trinity county or free my son."

Mrs. Martin created a sensation in New York about two months ago by setting up the claim that "Baby John" was the son of Princess Chimay.

WEAK FROM SUFFERING UNABLE TO PERFORM WORK

Discouraged After Spending Money Without Benefit— Found Help at Last

Mr. Earl McCoy, living at 1506 So. Branson street, Marion, Ind., has passed through an experience that is being duplicated every day in every town and city of any consequence in the United States. It furnishes abundant proof of the correctness of L. T. Cooper's theory in regard to the degeneracy of the human stomach, and shows conclusively the merit possessed by his New Discovery medicine to restore the weakened system to full strength and vigor.

Mr. McCoy says: "For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach trouble. I was unable to retain any food, and became so weak and run down that I was compelled to stop work. My system was nearly a wreck, and I had tried so many remedies and spent so much money without deriving any benefit, that I became discouraged and gave up hope of ever being well again.

"I heard a great deal of Mr. Cooper's theory and medicine, and after much hesitation decided to try it. The result was a pleasant surprise. Before I had taken half of the bottle I was able to retain all food eaten, and my strength began to return. I have taken six or seven bottles, and am feeling fine. I eat and sleep well, do not cough at night, and am able to perform a hard day's work. I can cheerfully recommend Cooper's New Discovery, for it has done wonders for me."

The Cooper remedies are meeting with remarkable success wherever they are introduced. They are without a rival in toning up a weakened and run-down system. We sell them —J. C. Perry.
