KNOX TURNING TURTLE?
HAS BIG LABOR BILL

FORMER CORPORATION CONSUL WOULD MAKE INTERSTATE RAILROADS LIABLE FOR DAMAGES TO EMPLOYEES HURT WHILE ON LINE DUTY.

Washington, Jan. 25.—A bill of tremendous importance to hundreds of thousands of railway employees throughout the country has been introduced in the senate by Knox, of Pennsylvania, and is now under consideration by the judiciary committee of that body. This bill is designed to take the place of the employers' liability law which was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States. The Knox bill makes all railroads engaged in interstate commerce liable to their employees for injury sustained in service, and to their heirs in the event of a fatal accident. The fellow servant doctrine is returned by the Knox bill, and the rule of contributory negligence is greatly modified. Under its terms it is a mere fact that an employee is injured or killed through the negligence of a fellow employe does not relieve the employer from responsibility. Nor does contributory negligence bar an injured employe from claiming damages. It merely lessens the amount of damage in proportion to the percentage of negligence contributed.

Under the terms of this bill no contract of employment, insurance, benefits, etc., can constitute a defense to any action brought to recover damages for personal injuries or death. Mr. Knox is looked upon as one of the great lawyers of the country, and it is believed that this bill has met all of the objections raised to the former law by the supreme court. He believes that railroad men deserve this greater consideration from their employers, and he has stated that he proposes to bring this bill to a vote at the earliest feasible time. In discussing the bill Senator Knox said: "I have drawn this bill with a view to meeting the objections of the supreme court to the former law. It will be referred to the judiciary committee, the committee will be expected to report a bill entirely satisfactory, and that will stand the test of the courts."

Edward A. Meeley, secretary of Interstate Commerce Commission, is very much in favor of the bill. In discussing it he said: "I have heard the arguments of the supreme court this bill is a complete answer to the fault found in the law which was declared unconstitutional."

You Should Never

BAKING POWDER YOU WANT NOTHING OF FOR BAKING PURPOSES.
WHEN YOU INSIST ON YOUR SUPPLYING YOU WITH THE BEST PERFECTION BAKING POWDER, YOU CAN RELY ON SEEING THE KIND THAT WILL BE SATISFACTORY TO YOU. ALL USERS OF PERFECTION BAKING POWDER HAVE NOTHING BUT WORDS OF PRAISE TO SAY REGARDING ITS BAKING QUALITY.

The Knox bill is in line with the senator's action heretofore. He has always been heartily in sympathy with efforts to ameliorate conditions surrounding labor. While attorney-general he introduced an innovation by which the United States was allowed to intervene in a private suit to sustain the validity of a statute. That case was what is known as the 'Johnson' case, and the action of the department of justice, of which Senator Knox was then the head, resulted in having the statute declared valid and practically revived. His action then resulted in the enforcement of the safety appliance act, and recent statistics show that thereby deaths and injury to employes engaged in train service and in coupling and uncoupling cars have not increased, while other accidents have largely increased."

BRICK MASON INHERITS A WHITE ELEPHANT.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 25.—Not having fitted himself to become the owner of a big educational institution, J. C. Felon, a brick mason, of this city, discovered today that he has a "white elephant" on his hands in Spartlett college, of Upper Alton, Illinois, to which he is heir. One of his wealthy ancestors, to spite immediate heirs, bequeathed all his money to found a college, providing that after a certain number of years it should revert to his lineal descendants. This time has now elapsed. Mr. Felon, the brick layer, is one of the descendants.

HENEY DIVULGES NO FUTURE PLANS.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Portland, Jan. 25.—When shown a dispatch from San Francisco which quoted District Attorney Langdon as stating that following the Hall-Mays land fraud cases here Henev intended to withdraw from the government service and devote all of his time to the San Francisco graft trials, Henev refused to comment upon it.
"I will make no statement relative to my future plans," he said. "At present I will not confirm or deny Langdon's remarks."
