GALLANTS HONOR BOBBIE

Poet of the Democracy Was Remembered With Dance, Speech, Song, File and Recitation.

The admirers of the Scottish bard, Robert Burns, met Saturday evening in the office of John Bayne and with appropriate ceremonies celebrated the anniversary of the Ayreshire poet's birth.

An excellent program was rendered after which a permanent organization was perfected. William McGilchrist, the well known proprietor of the White House restaurant, opened the program with "Blue Bells of Scotland," beautifully rendered upon a Scotch whistle. Attorney John Bayne acted as presiding officer of the evening and delivered the address of welcome. Other numbers of the program were as follows:

Song, Wm. McGilchrist, "Rantlin' Robie."

Toast, "Burns in Poetry and Song," with response by L. H. McMahon.

Song, "Scots Whan Hae," by Wm. McGilchrist and Mr. Douglas.

Toast, "Burns in Literature," by C. B. Moores.

Toast, "Burns' Assistance in the Cause of Liberty," responded to by P. H. D'Arcy.

Song, "Bring Me a Plat o' Wine," by McGilchrist.

Toast, "The Study of Burns and Rejoicings of Scotia's Bard," responded to by John Minto, who sang during this time "Braes o' Bal Whidder" and "Highland Mary."

Reading, "To Mary in Heaven," by John Minto.

Song, "Flow Gently Sweet Afton," Wm. McGilchrist.

Dancing of the "Highland Fling," by Mr. Douglas.

Toast, "The Extent of the Influence of Burns," by Dan Webster.

Song, "Annie Laurie," Mr. Douglas.

Toast, "Why I Am Here Tonight," by C. L. McNary.

Reading, "Tam O'Shanter," by Wm. McGilchrist, Jr.

Reading of "Death and Dr. Hornbeck," by John Minto.

After the program a permanent Burns club was organized with John Minton as president, John Bayne, vice president; Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., secretary. All those present are charter members of the club. The officers will draft a constitution. The club will meet again on January 25, 1909.

The club will meet once each year to commemorate the birthday of the Scottish poet. The meeting closed by all rising, joining hands in a circle and singing, "Auld Lang Syne." Those present were Hon. John Minto, P. H. D'Arcy, Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., and Jr., Miller McGilchrist, Mr. Douglas, John Minto, C. B. Moores, John Kirk, L. H. McMahon, Dan Webster, W. Carlton Smith, C. L. McNary, D. J. Fry and John Bayne.

ONE OF OLD ABE'S SWEETHEARTS DIES.

Sioux City, Ia., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Mary Frances Reilly, to whom Abraham Lincoln proposed marriage and was rejected, died here today at the age of 85.

It was when Mrs. Reilly was a girl in Quincy, Ill., that she won the love of young Lincoln, who was destined to be a great president of the United States. She idealized him and held his memory in tender veneration. She was a granddaughter of Henry Vanderbergh, who was appointed by President Lincoln one of the first judges of the Northwest Territory.

The Wallace, Idaho, Daily Times has suspended, owing to troubles with the printers' union.

TWENTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY KEPT.

Oregon Nursery Company Official and Wife Entertain—Home-Grown Olives and June Roses Helped Make Pleasant

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the reception given last Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett, on Chemeketa street, in honor of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage.

The bride and groom of two decades ago graciously received, and by 9 o'clock there were nearly 200 guests enjoying the hospitality of the elegant new home which had been artistically decorated for the occasion. In the brilliantly lighted reception hall there hung a gorgeous bunch of mistletoe, while the spacious drawing rooms on either side were scented by the perfume of state ly clusters of plinks, which nodded from vases on the mantles and tables. Jardinières of ferns graced the cosy corners, and with elegant simplicity completed the beauty of the scene.

From an alcove near the spiral stairway in the hall Miss June Patty and Miss Olive Metcalf served punch throughout the evening.

There was no program arranged, but the impromptu musical and literary numbers rendered were excellent and were probably more enjoyed owing to the informality. During the evening Miss Joy Turner, one of Salem's promising violinists; Mr. Frank Churchill, pianist; Mr. Charles Roth, tenor, and Mr. Chester Catlow, pianist and reader, delighted those present.

Luncheon, consisting of pabulum from sandwiches to tempting candies was served by the Misses Spalding, Gross, Shepard, King and Bennett in the dining room, which was appropriately decorated in pink and white. At either end of the table, which contained as a center piece a gorgeous bouquet of pink camellias, sat a young lady prettily gowned respectively in white and pink, who served. From each corner of the table to the chandelier swung streamers of white and pink crepe paper, intermingled with smilax. The guests, as they filed up the stairs, were presented with a miniature tea pot. On a large table on the second floor was displayed the many and costly pieces of chinaware which were the wedding gifts.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones and son, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Maddock and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Legg and son, all of Portland.

At a late hour the scores of friends left for their various homes, carrying with them memories of a delightful evening and wishing the host and hostess all the joy that was wished them just twenty years ago.

MANUFACTURE LIME IN SOUTHERN OREGON.

Have Secured Contracts from the Paper Mills for the Oregon Product.

Hon. W. A. Carter, of this city, has just returned from a trip to Jackson county, where, in company with his brother-in-law, he has engaged in the manufacture of a first-class article of lime. It has been "assayed" and found to be 98 per cent pure, which is nearly the best lime known in the world. Their kilns have a capacity of 100 barrels per day, and the Southern Pacific Company has made them a rate of 15 cents per barrel to Portland, so it looks as if they would be able to market all they can produce. As soon as this lime has been tested locally we hope to inform our readers, as we believe it to be the first duty of our citizens to give the home production the preference. Mr. Carter has secured a contract from the Oregon City and Lebanon paper mills, which use about 10 carloads a month.
