

Hard Lot of Female Workers About English Coal Mines.

Pit brow women are among the most remarkable women workers in the world. They work as hard as men and dress almost like them.

At present the duties of the pit brow women consist in dealing with the coal as it comes up the shaft to the pit head.

They start work at 6 o'clock in the morning and finish at 4 in the afternoon. They receive 2 shillings or less a day, and men that do the same work get 4 shillings.

The secret of fire eaters consists in washing out the mouth and rubbing the skin with pure spirit of sulphur which cauterizes the outer skin.
