THE GINGERBREAD MAN. A Delightful Musical Comedy That One Will Remember.

The Gingerbread Man has come and gone, leaving behind him only pleasant memories that carry one back to and mingle with childhood's days. It was a remarkable creation, in that it is something made from practically nothing, its foundation being simply the "Old Mother Goose" jingles, but it is certainly artistic and poetical, for surely the author "gave to airy nothing a local habitation and a name."

Put in Jail. very accurately describes anyone's feelings who is confined to the house with an attack of rheumatism, lumbago, stiff joints or muscles. Ballard's Snow Liniment will cure the trouble, relieve the pain, and make you as supple as a two-year-old. For sale by all druggists.

WAS A CASE OF SUICIDE

Woodburn, Or., Jan. 29, 1908. John Whitney, a prosperous and highly respected citizen of this vicinity, committed suicide at his home two miles north of this city at 2 o'clock this afternoon, by shooting himself with an old musket. It is supposed he placed the gun against the barn or on the ground with the muzzle against the pit of his stomach, and discharged the weapon with a stick 2 1/2 feet in length.

Mr. Whitney had been out shooting chicken hawks, in company with three nephews, Charles, Henry and Gage Whitney, and had returned to the house and put the gun in the rack. While the boys were at the front gate, waiting for a chance to ride home, Mr. Whitney was seen going toward the barn with a gun, and as soon as he was out of sight they heard a report, and saw Mr. Whitney falling past the corner of the barn. They hurried to the spot and found Mr. Whitney breathing his last. His clothing where the charge went in was on fire. Worry over nervous troubles and insomnia are the causes assigned for the rash act. He was 55 years of age, supervisor of road district No. 8 1/2, a favorite with everyone, in good circumstances and with a large farm. Mr. Whitney was a native son, being born and raised on the old farm, a part of which was his home.

He leaves a widow, a son, Peter, and daughter, Mrs. G. W. Knight, of Hubbard, Oregon, two sisters, Mrs. Jonathan F. Staiger, of Salem, and Mrs. Joseph Dodge, of Hubbard, Oregon, and three brothers, George W. Woodburn, Oregon; Charles, Lebanon, Oregon, and William, of California, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Rumor About Ruel. San Francisco, Jan. 30.—Warned by a persistent and well-defined rumor that Abe Ruel, grown frantic on the eve of a trial which means almost certain conviction for him, has planned out in detail an escape from custody to be accomplished on the lonely road between this city and the county jail, Sheriff Dolan has doubled the guard over the slippery prisoner, and has taken every precaution to prevent the carrying out of the suspected plot.

FAIR WILL BE HELD IN 1909

Seattle, Jan. 29.—Owing to a slight rumor that the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is going to be postponed, caused by the recent financial flurry, the executive committee of the 1909 fair has passed the following resolution: "It is the unanimous sense of the members of the executive committee that the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition be held at the place and time hitherto planned—Seattle, U. S. A., from June 1 to October 15, 1909."

The contract for another large exhibit palace, the agricultural building, has been let for $81,830. Six of the main buildings will soon be well under way. The manufacturers' building is progressing rapidly.

The executive committee announces that there is plenty of money on hand with which to carry on the work and that money for stock is coming in all the time.

Word received from Washington, D. C., from Vice-President John H. McGraw, Director of Exploitation Henry E. Reed, indicates that congress is looking with favor on the exposition. The appropriation bill will soon come up for consideration. The government has asked for more ground space than was originally allotted to it.

The management of the exposition has secured the services of Col. Henry E. Dosch, of Portland, Ore., as director of the division of exhibits. The exhibits' department is being organized and prospective exhibitors can now receive information in regard to space by applying to Col. Dosch. Already many large firms throughout the country have applied for space.

Col. Dosch represented the state of Oregon as commissioner at New Orleans, Chicago, Omaha, Buffalo, Charlestown and at the Fifth International Exhibition held at Osaka, Japan, in 1903, he was commissioner from the state of Oregon and Lewis and Clark exposition. The directors of the Japanese exposition recognized Col. Dosch's ability as an "expositionist," and placed him in charge of all foreign exhibits. His services were recognized by the emperor of Japan, who decorated him with the medal of the chevalier of the sacred treasure. Col. Dosch was also given a diploma of merit for his services at the Osaka exposition. It bears the signature of the mikado and the royal seal.

Col. Dosch was also commissioner general to the Louisiana Purchase exposition for the Lewis and Clark fair.

If You Are Sick

It is because some of the organs of the body are not doing their work well. There is a lack of that nervous energy that gives them motion. Consequently you are weak, worn-out, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep; have headache, indigestion, etc. because there is not sufficient nerve force to keep the organs active and allow them to perform their natural functions. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores health because it restores this nervous energy.

"I have been sick for a year, and did not know what was the matter with me. I tried many remedies and none of them proved of any value. I heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine. I procured a bottle, and before I had taken half of it I was better. I would have had nervous prostration if I had not got this medicine when I did. I continued to take it until I was entirely well. I have since recommended it to five of my lady friends, and they have all thanked me for doing so, for it benefited them all."

DR. MILES' NERVINE. 289 E. 2d St., Columbus, Ohio. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
