JUDGE BURNETT ATTORNEY

There is a well authenticated rumor that the name of Judge Geo. H. Burnett is being considered for the vacant United States District Attorneyship. In case the delegation cannot agree on Schuebel or Bingham, there will be a new name taken up, and, if the question of enforcement of the laws determines the matter, Judge Burnett has quite a reputation in that direction. As district attorney of this district he was noted for being a vigorous public prosecutor. His term will expire July, 1910, and his appointment would mean selecting a new judge by the people at the primaries in April.

SEGY, KINGAID CITED TO SALEM

Ex-Secretary Kincaid has been cited to come to Salem and bring his records and give testimony in the suit to recover fees entitled Sears vs. Kincaid. His counsel asked that the complaint be made more specific, and as a result he was ordered to appear before City Recorder Moores February 19, at 10 a. m. and give his testimony in form of a deposition. The suit is for an accounting of $60,000 fees alleged to have been collected in violation of law while Kincaid was secretary of state.

The demurrer in Sears vs. Dunbar will be decided by Judge Galloway Saturday at noon.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

doers among the business men, politicians and labor leaders alike. The principle is the same in the two cases, just as the blackmailer and bribe-taker stand on the same evil eminence of infamy, so the man who makes an enormous fortune by corrupting legislators and municipalities and fleecing his stockholders and the public stand upon the moral level with the creature who fattens on the blood money of the gambling house and the saloon.

Kind of Business to Hurt.

The business which is hurt by the movement of honesty is the kind of business in the long run it pays the country to have hurt.

The methods by which the Standard Oil people and those engaged in other combinations of which I have spoken above, have achieved great fortunes can only be justified by the form of criminality on the part of labor unions and every form of violence, corruption and fraud, from murder to bribery and ballot stuffing in politics.

I do not for a moment believe that the action of these men have brought on business distress; so far this is due to local and not to world-wide causes, and to the action of any particular individuals; it is due to the speculative folly and flagrant dishonesty of a few men of great wealth who seek to shield themselves from the effects of their own wrong-doing by ascribing its results to the actions of those who have sought to put a stop to the wrong-doing. But if it were true that to cut out rottenness from the body politic meant a momentary start of unhealthy seeming prosperity, I could not hesitate to apply the knife to such corruption.

We pray that this scourge may speedily pass away, yet if God will that it continue until all the wealth piled up by the bondsmen in 250 years of unrequited toil shall be sunk, and until every drop of blood drawn by the last shall be paid by another drop drawn with the sword, as was said 3000 years ago, so still it must be said "the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether."

GALLOWAY DECIDES

BALLOT TITLE CASE
In ruling on the ballot title case Judge Galloway said: "The statute section 5, chapter 226, session laws of 1907, provides that in submitting a measure under the referendum there may be printed on the official ballot the title given the measure by the legislature, or a distinct title prepared by the attorney-general, but in no case shall the title be misleading or prejudice the vote for or against the measure. I find that both the title prepared by the attorney-general and the one proposed by the remonstrants on behalf of the University are objectionable and incomplete, and will rule that the legislative title be employed for house bill No. 137." This decision seems to be satisfactory to both sides. It reads an act to amend the act by increasing the annual appropriation for the support and maintenance of the State University.

A Higher Health Level.
"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at J. C. Perry's drug store; 25c.
