SENATOR FULTON SAYS IT IS A LIE

Is Not a Corporation Lawyer Never Bribed Smith Or Tried to and Will Prove Heney's Charges False

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—Senator Fulton, when shown a brief telegraphic summary of Francis J. Heney's attack upon him in Portland last night, made the following re-

"It is not possible, of course, and I shall not attempt, without a fuller statement than you give me, to answer fully or in detail Heney's charges. It is proper to suggest, however, that the diameter of his slander substantiates my statements heretofore published—that he is actuated solely by malice. I denounced him before as a malicious ... the answer proves the assertion ... justifies the language.

"I delayed making a public statement until he knew I would be on the opposite side of the continent and unable at once to answer it. I can now only answer generally, as I have but a very general outline of his attack.

Never Paid Smith Money.

"The charge that I paid Smith any money at any time, for Mitchell or any one else is, of course, untrue. I never was engaged, and would not engage in any such business. The contention will hardly be deemed satisfactorily established by one who professes and confesses that he deliberately robbed the old man out of ... by false pretenses. With such men as Smith and the Rev. Mr. ..., it is impossible for me to enter into controversy. True, they are witnesses for Heney.

"I do now recall that it was a matter of common knowledge at the ... 1897, that this fellow Smith ... Mitchell out of a considerable sum by promising that he himself with other Populists, would do ... therefore and qualify and take their seats as members.

Probably Called Smith Grafter.

"It is not improbable that I did, on learning that Smith was a candidate ... in the penitentiary, say ... that he was unfit, being a grafter. Indeed, I think I remember saying something to that effect to the governor. His affidavit, now ..., fully justifies my judgment. He would have robbed every ... in the prison. It is absolutely false, however, that I paid him at any time any sum, and is it not too ... to talk about that I tried to ... the amount on his breach of ...

"One naturally inquires why even such a creature should lend himself to become so base a witness. ... because I denounced him to the governor? Or because he and his confederates were again industriously prosecuting their trade in ... and, being apprehended, ... immunity by a slight addition to their infamy? Quite likely ... for such reptiles seldom ... a spirit for retaliation, be... actuated by lust for gain.

Disprove Brownell Charge.

"As to the charge that I agreed ... in order to secure immunity for Brownell, I will only now say in addition to my several statements heretofore published to that ... I have in my possession letters and telegrams which conclusively refute that charge, and I will shortly give them to the public. No one need doubt that I thoroughly and for all time annihilate that contention.

Defense of Burke and Gosslin.

"I was, I understand, charged by Heney that in 1899 I was attorney for the Hammond Lumber company, ... such, contributed to land ... in defending Burke, Gosslin and others. The degree of Heney's ... is evidenced by this action. That was years before I was elected senator. I was practicing law, and, these men being charged with an offense against the ..., I was asked to take up their defense. I happened on that day to be in Portland, which was the reason ... I said that I could not spare the time to defend them, but would see what I could do for them. I suggested that Judge Henry McGinn be retained, and was authorized to see him, and did so. He secured bonds for them. I afterwards wrote to the department proposing that the parties who had filed on the lands in question would relinquish their filings if the prosecutions were discontinued.

"This proposal was finally agreed to, and that ended my conection with the case, I may have written Senator McBride—I do not now remember—but it would have been perfectly right to do so. I never charged nor received a cent for what I did, as I did not conceive that I had performed any service worth charging for. All this I can prove beyond question whenever important to do so.

Never Hammond's Attorney.

"I never was attorney for the Hammond Lumber company, excepting, as I recall, in one place where I appeared for it in court, but it was never tried. It did business entirely in Portland, where its office was, and Portland attorneys acted for it. I never saw one of its deeds or abstracts, or was consulted in any of its purchases or acquisition of land.

"After I was elected to the senate, I ceased entirely the practice of law, and since have tried but four lawsuits, as I recall, three of which I had had charge of or had arisen out of matters of which I had charge, prior to my election, excepting in a murder case, in which I accepted a special retainer last spring.

"From the report I have, I infer that Heney charges that I represent railroads and large corporations here. The desperation of his case could not be more strikingly evidenced. Malice could not impel one further. My entire course in the senate proves the contrary, and of course he has not a single fact on which to base the assertion.

"Old, Stale, Filthy Slanders."

"Finally, I can only say to the people of Oregon that, when I shall receive a full report of Heney's attack, I will answer in such way that no one will doubt either the falsity of his statements, the maliciousness of his purpose, or the integrity of my conduct. Baffled in every attempt to involve me in some malicious and malevolent attacks on my character, he has descended to the sewer and dug up old, stale and filthy slanders, hoping therewith to cover his ignominious retreat. They will not suffice."

Tea is not infallible; moneyback makes amends. We are not, in the least, uneasy about the money.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best: we pay him.

American Shipbuilding company stockholders probably wouldn't care how long their 4 per cent dividends were held up—as long as they drew 6 per cent interest pending payment.

Normal industrial conditions are surely returning and workers are busy: Two Kansas counties report finding the green bug actively at work in the wheat fields.

One Austin had an injunction preventing the Panama Canal bond awards, but the court proceedings showed that the allotments antedated the suit. Cortelyou was working pretty fast those days.

"It takes Cortelyou longer to report on a bond issue than to issue the bonds," says Tillman. It's worth a job on the senate finance committee to study out the South Carolinan's epigrams.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.
