Quarantine Colds Threatens Life. (From the Chicago Tribune.) "Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. A cold may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are restrained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from any ordinary cold will be slight. But if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is the germs of influenza what honey is to the greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the "cold." Whether it is a cold or a fever, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and its great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable effects in pneumonia when it is given. For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

BIG WATER SUIT ARGUED FRIDAY

After four years of litigation, the fight between the Chewaucan Land & Cattle company, a subsidiary of the firm of Miller & Lux, California "Cattle Kings," and half hundred settlers of the rich farming and grazing lands along the Silver Creek river in Lake county for water rights, was argued at length before the supreme court here yesterday.

The suit for the water rights was originally before Judge H. L. Benson in the circuit court of Lake county. After a year and a half of stubborn fighting for the control of the river, Judge Benson rendered a decision in favor of a majority of the settlers, and against the Chewaucan Company and the remaining settlers. The case was then submitted to the supreme court, before whom it has since been pending.

It is the contention of the Chewaucan company, who own a vast area of land around the Pauline marsh, into which the Silver Creek river empties, that the settlers along the river use up the water before it reaches the marsh, thereby leaving their lands in an arid and unproductive condition.

Attorney E. P. Watson of Portland represented the Chewaucan company, which concern is one of the defendants and appellants, while S. C. Ruterich, appeared as attorney for the plaintiffs and respondents. The supreme court will probably decide the case within the next month.

$100 Reward $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. The Irrepressible Orientals. After a pugilistic encounter and the exchange of a few volleys of noodle bowls, Frank Aoki, the proprietor of the Ferry street Japanese restaurant, was last night arrested for disfiguring the countenance of one of his customers. Wait Johnson was the object of the Oriental's wrath, the exact cause of which could not be learned. Johnson was in Aoki's place, the Ferry street noodle house, between the hours of 11 and 12, and, an argument starting, they proceeded to hand out what each thought was coming to the other. Johnson came out of the melee with a gash over his eye, which soon became badly swollen. Aoki was placed under arrest and taken to the city jail, where he remained but a short time when his Salem compatriots came to the pail and deposited $20 as an assurance that Aoki would appear before Judge Moores today
