White Dress Goods

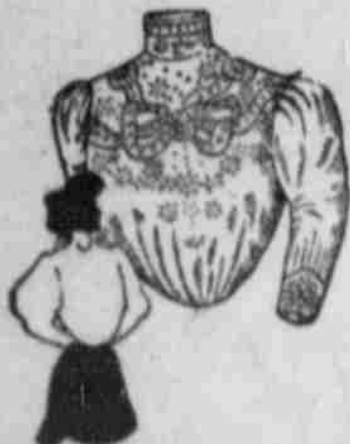

Unquestionably and by far it is the best dress goods offering we have made this season. There are about 20 pieces in all and a well assorted variety, embracing the most fashionable white goods for suits and skirts at a great saving. Eolienne, Voilles, Bedford Cords, Crepe de Chine, Crepe de Paris, Henrietta, Sicilian Silk, Voile, Panama, Storm and French Cheviot, Prunille, and Nub Voille, at White Sale Prices.

SHOES

You know the restful sensation of walking on a grassy lawn. Here are shoes for men, women and children that make every cement and pavement into a grassy lawn. We are now comfortably located in the new shoe annex, where we have the largest and best line of shoes to choose from. We can fit every foot, no matter how large or how small, we have the shoes that will fit. Remember the shoe store is in the new annex on Court street.

WAISTS

Here's another opportunity that you would not expect until later when assortments are very much broken. It is a piece of good fortune of which thrifty shoppers will take advantage. White waists in lace taffeta and Jap silks in a large range of sizes, all of this season's newest designs, at White Sale prices. (See Liberty Street Window.)

Salem High Beat Eugene—
The Salem high school basketball team Saturday night carried off the honors in the game with the Eugene high school with a score of 29 to 22. The game was a hard fought one from start to finish and the local team deserves great credit for their victory, which places them second to Roseburg. Eugene started in with fast playing and had soon scored 8 points before Salem's team made any. At the end of the first half the score stood 12 to 9 in favor of Eugene. Within 5 minutes of the finish the teams stood even at 19 to 19. Cockerline and Bean made the best individual plays for Eugene, while Roberts, Jones, Farmer, Utter and Minton starred for Salem. Roseburg will contend with the Salem team next Friday, and it looks as if the visitors will be sent home defeated.

The Shop to Move—
Mrs. Smith, manager of the Needlecraft Shop at Portland and Salem was in the city Saturday, and has decided to move the shop to a new location in about a month. Miss Clara Warner will remain as the local manager.

Masons May Build—
Col. S. M. Yoran, of Eugene, was in the city a few days last week meeting with the local Masonic lodges, and says they have still under contemplation building a Masonic temple in this city. He says wherever built they have been a success financially, as the order has a very highly perfected system of transacting business.

Stabbed by a Hobo—
Carl Sellau, a machinist, was badly stabbed by a hobo while riding on the blind baggage of the Cottage Grove local north of Salem Saturday evening. The trouble occurred over a bottle of whisky, which Sellau offered to two men who boarded the train with him, but which he refused to give to the hobo, who was already very intoxicated. Sellau was first stabbed by the hobo when Sellau and the two men, who boarded the train with him, attempted to put the drunken tramp off. He grabbed his knife, which he had drawn once, and lunged at Sellau, catching the latter in the arm. As the train drew near Chemawa, the hobo, in his drunken frenzy, again drew the knife, this time striking Sellau over the right temple. Dr. Tucker at the Indian school sewed up the injured man's wounds and then telephoned the police here to be on the watch to arrest the hoboes, but the message was too late, the tramps having made good their escape. Upon his arrival here, Sellau was examined by City Health Officer Dr. O. B. Miles and sent to the Salem hospital. The hobo who did the stabbing was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Minto at the corner of Ferry and High streets at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Dr. Miles paid a second visit to Sellau at the Salem hospital and expresses his opinion that the latter's wounds will not result seriously.

Some Social Events—
A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spitzbart by their many friends Saturday afternoon to commemorate the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. An informal musical recital was given Miss Elma Weller by her pupils on last Saturday evening. Miss Margaret Fisher gave a piano recital at her home on Commercial street, Saturday afternoon.

Wants a Divorce—
Because of her husband's continual threats against her life, his abuse, and general ill-treatment of her, Mrs. Eva M. Palmerton yesterday began suit against her husband, P. Palmerton, for divorce in department No. 2 of the circuit court on Saturday. They were married at Seattle on June 25, 1903, and have two children, whose custody the mother desires.
