London, Feb. 11.—In a scene almost unparalleled in the 700 years history of the English house of commons, an angry mob of London women, determined to force the members of parliament to at least take recognition of their claims for suffrage attempted to force their way within the sacred precincts of the floor. They created a scene of remarkable disorder. Before the ranks of women were driven off the usual police guard about the house had to be reinforced by squads of reserves, and the fight between the men and the frenzied women was long and fierce. Forty-four arrests were made. As each bedraggled, screaming, kicking advocate of equal franchise rights was torn away from her friends, the mob made renewed attacks upon the guards. After a battle lasting almost an hour, the women drew off and marched to the station houses in which their comrades were held, hooting and yelling.

They refused, however, to pay the fines of the arrested women, and the prisoners declared that they would allow no one to do it, as they were determined to be martyrs to their beliefs.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 11.—W.

E. Ridgley, comptroller of the currency, has accepted the position of president of the National Bank of Commerce here, and will assume his new duties within a short time. His salary will be $25,000 per year, and he will succeed Dr. W. S. Woods, who was president of the concern until it failed to open its doors last November. The National Bank of Commerce was the largest bank in the Missouri valley when it suspended.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Paris, Feb. 11.—Count Boni de Castellane was fined 100 francs this morning for striking his titled cousin, Prince de Sagan, with a cane in a recent street brawl. At the same time the prince's claim for one franc damages was allowed. Count Boni's brother, Jean, who was with Boni at the time of the assault, and who was not made a co-defendant in de Sagan's suit, was acquitted.

Marseilles, France, Feb. 11.—

Ex-Premier Franco left for Genoa today. He will live in Italy until conditions in Lisbon are such that he may dare to return. It is now believed here that Franco never intended to remain permanently away from Lisbon, and that Manuel can-

Fairbanks, Alaska, Feb. 11.—

United States Marshal Perry has the strike situation well in hand, and expects no further trouble with the strikers. All claims formerly non-union are working on the open shop basis, with a full quota of men. Deputies have cleared the Fairbanks-

PORTLAND BANK TO REOPEN

ORDER IS ISSUED

MERCHANTS' NATIONAL WILL BE DOING BUSINESS WITHIN THE NEXT TEN DAYS—DEPOSITORS LOST NOTHING THROUGH PORTLAND BANKS CLOSING.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Portland, Or., Feb. 11.—The Merchants' National Bank, of Portland,

Or., which suspended in November, will reopen within the next ten days.

The final arrangements were completed yesterday, and today Comptroller Ridgeley notified President

Watson to open the bank when ready to resume business. The reopening of the Merchants' National Bank closes Portland's chapter on the financial panic. Three banking institutions have closed here within six months, but in no case has a single depositor lost a dollar. Last night the formal order approving the merger of the Oregon Trust & Savings Bank and the German American Bank was authorized by the court.

The action of the Ladd estate in taking over the assets of the Title,

Guarantee & Trust Company saved the depositors of the institution from

MAX SIEBERT, OF SEATTLE, SECRETARY OF THE GRAND LODGE OF SONS OF HERMANN, CHOOSES DEATH RATHER THAN FACE DISGRACE.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 11.—Max

Siebert, a German sign painter, aged 60 years, and secretary of the grand lodge of the Sons of Hermann for the state of Washington, after a third attempt at suicide, was found this morning in his shop on First avenue.

Death was caused by a bullet which was sent into his brain while he stood in front of a mirror. A letter left states that he first took morphine, and, failing, he attempted death by inhaling gas. Finally driven to desperation, he used a revolver with fatal results. This afternoon it was made public that Siebert was short in his accounts to the grand lodge of the Sons of Hermann about $1600, and this is believed to have preyed so on his mind that he sought death by self-destruction.
