DIED.

ANDREWORTH. -- In Phoenix, Arizona, Tuesday, February 4, 1908, Bertha Irene Andreworth, aged 27, of tuberculosis.

Miss Andreworth formerly resided in this city, where she attended Willamette University and the College of Music. Besides her parents and a brother, who reside in Boise, Idaho, she leaves a wide circle of loving friends both here and in Idaho.

MARRIED.

M'NERNEY -- HALLEY. -- A the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dodge, in Lewiston, Idaho, Monday, February 3, 1908, Miss Ernestine M. Halley to Mr. James Mc Nerney.

The bride was one of Salem's most charming girls with a large circle of friends. She was for a time society editor on the Statesman, and had a graceful and piquant style of writing that made her department an interesting and always read feature of that paper. Miss Halley went to Lewiston a couple of years ago, and it is there she ran up against the decrees of fate that eventually led her to the altar. Mr. and Mrs. Mc Nerney will reside in Spokane, and, if the wishes of Salem friends materialize, their lives will be one round of happiness and content.

The following from the Lewiston Teller of February 4, gives a glimpse of the romance that preceded the wedding:

"The marriage of James J. Mc Nerney and Miss Ernestine M. Halley last night was the happy culmination of a romance commenced last summer, when the young man was thrown from a horse and rendered unconscious, to be loaded upon his horse and brought to the city, a distance of several miles, by Miss Halley, who was compelled to walk through the dust and lead the animal."
