Royal Neighbors Met—
The Royal Neighbors gave a very successful entertainment and basket social last evening. A considerable sum was raised, which will be used for the benefit of the lodge. The following were in charge of the reception: Mrs. Thomas Eckhart, Mrs. Edw. Clough and Mrs. Bernard.

Dr. R. Cartwright—
Has resumed his practice in Salem and has opened an office in rooms 0 and 2, over Fry's drug store. Office hours, 12m to 4 p. m. 2-1-1m

Wagon Ran Over Him—
Fong Kim, a Chinese caretaker on the farm of os, Baumgartner, east of Salem, narrowly escaped being crushed to death Wednesday afternoon, when the team attached to the hay wagon which he was driving ran away throwing him under the wheels. The Chinaman was returning home on Asylum avenue, at the lower end of the grade leading to the asylum, when the team took fright, pulling Kim off of the wagon and throwing him beneath one of the wheels, which passed over his arm and chest. There was no load on the wagon, and when examined at the hospital it was found that Kim had escaped with nothing more serious than a severe bruising and a bad fright. The team was brought to a stop by one of the planks sliding from the wagon and anchoring it to the ground.

Elks Off to Portland—
Three special cars of the Southern Pacific and two of the Oregon Electric were filled Thursday afternoon with local Elks, who went to the celebration in Portland. It is estimated that fully 150 left this city yesterday, and as they are all a good, jolly, enthusiastic lot, according to the creed of their organization, there is no danger but that they will more than hold their own in rivaling the other delegations in having a good time in the metropolis.

The Highest—
Market price paid for chickens Capital Commission Company. Phone 179. tf

Portland Panels—
One dollar per dozen at Trover-Cronise studio. Over Barnes' cash store.

Gram, president of the State Federation will address the meeting, and other addresses will be made. Everybody is invited, and especially those who earn their living by manual labor.

Express and Delivery—
Ben N. White has a brand new delivery and express wagon, and will be glad to take orders from all his old customers, and the general public. His stand is in front of Barnett's restaurant. Give him a call.

Begin Road Work Monday—
The county board has arranged for work to begin on the road running south of the penitentiary from the city limits to the Red Barn next Monday. On that day the rock crushers will begin, and from then the work will continue until the road is in good condition.

Funeral Tomorrow—
The funeral of the late George

Walt will take place tomorrow afternoon at 10 o'clock at Zena. The services will be performed by Rev. Dr. Davis Errett of the First Christian church. Relatives and friends will leave here at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Paving Commercial—
Judge Maxwell was working hard today getting signers to put down bitulithic pavement on Commercial street from Trade to Center—"Bitulithic or something just as good"—are the words of the petition, and he said the property owners were, so far, unanimous in signing the same, and it contained the names of some of the most conservative men.

Filed Their Petitions—
Edwin R. Bryson, of Corvallis, has filed his petition for nomination for the office of Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket for the fourth district with the secretary of state. J. A. Buchanan, of Roseburg, and J. E. Marks, of Canyon City, have filed their petitions for joint representative on the Republican ticket of the 9th and 21st districts, respectively.
