HARMONY GRANGE HOLDS A MEETING

Albany, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—A very enthusiastic meeting of Harmony grange has just closed, a good attendance with several visitors from neighboring granges being present. C. L. Shaw, overseer of the state grange and inspector of this district, was also in attendance. A rousing resolution was passed unanimously indorsing Statement No. 1, and avowing intention to work against all candidates who refuse to subscribe to it, and resolving "That we mentally pledge each other to use all honorable means to defeat any and all candidates for the legislature who refuse to publicly pledge themselves to this proposition, or in any manner equivocating by giving a meaningless pledge, which can be construed differently from the broad, and simple pledge of supporting the people's choice for United States senator," and indorsing the action of Blue Mountain grange throughout on the Statement No. 1 Brother E. C. Roberts, county fruit inspector, gave a good talk along horticultural lines which was timely. Brother C. L. Shaw gave a short talk on "Good of the Order," and kindred topics. Nearly all joined in discussing several farm topics; a mirth provoking solo by Brother E. C. Roberts together with other songs, and recitations duly interspersed made this one of our successful meetings. Brother and Sister G. D. Harris of Crawford grange was of great assistance, and their talks were interesting and well received.

X-RAYS.

There were representatives here from all parts of the valley last night, and a goodly delegation from Portland, and they all wore the booster brand and ear marks.

Those smuggled goods found in Shont's house, did not count because the bride was going to take them back to France, anyway.

The reports of the board of charities of Portland shows that for every dollar given it for the benefit of the poor, the board paid out 85 cents for salaries and 15 cents for charity. The startling part of this statement is the fact that 15 cents on the dollar reached its original destination.

Some Other Boosters—

Sixty young men, representing the Methodist, Baptist, Congregational, and Presbyterian churches, will meet and banquet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 6:30 o'clock this evening.
