SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

Ragan-Cavanagh Wedding.
One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred Wednesday evening, February 19, when Miss Lenna Eleanor Cavanagh was united in marriage to Otto Ragan, at the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Henry Babcock officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, potted plants, carnations, hyacinths and streamers of ivy.

The ceremony was performed beneath a huge bell of white roses, intermingled with maiden hair ferns and white satin ribbon.

The bride was attended by Eleno Luellie Fawk, Paul B. Wallace acted as best man and the ushers were Clarence Bishop, Paul Stahl, Clifford Brown and R. M. Hofer. The wedding march was played by Miss Blanche Brown, pianist, and Miss Joy Turner, violinist. Mrs. Carlton Smith sang Bohm's "Still as the Night," with piano accompaniment by Prof. Newberry. At 7 o'clock, the appointed hour, and to the strains of "Lohengrin's" wedding march, the bride entered with her father and marched up the aisle to the altar, where the groom awaited her. The T. E. C. girls, of which the bride was a member, came in a body and sat near her. The bride was resplendent in a lovely gown cut en train of white silk chiffon over taffeta of the same tone, with full-length veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The maid of honor wore a gown of white accordion plaited chiffon and Venetian lace over green satin, and carried pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, amid a profusion of evergreens, palms and carnations. The Y. M. C. A. Mandolin Club furnished the music.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Harry Olinger, Mrs. Carlton Smith and Miss Margaret Cooper.

Lunch was served in one corner of the room in a pretty arbor formed by the entwining of ropes of pink satin ribbon and smilax, interspersed with carnations and hyacinths. The Misses Althea Moore, Bulah Meyers, Mildred Bagley and Bertha Alton assisted in serving. The piece of wedding cake containing the ring fell to Miss Emma Brown, that containing the thimble to Miss Margaret Looney and Alene Thompson got the dime. Miss Bulah Meyers caught the bride's bouquet.

Among the out-of-town guests were: From Portland, Captain and Mrs. George Bailey, Mrs. J. V. Beach, Ernest B. Wiggins and Mrs. Margaret Wittcheson, also Geo. Judd, from Astoria; Vernel Beach, of Eugene; Mrs. Clarence Wittcheson Keene, of Silverton; Mrs. James Walton, of Tillamook; Miss Blanche Fawk, of Rickreall; Mr. and Mrs. Looney, Miss Margaret Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stahl and Mrs. Frenal, of the Reform School; Mrs. R. O. Thomas, Mrs. Kate Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Herros, of Turner, and Els Richards, of Cottage Grove.

Miss Lenna Cavanagh is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cavanagh, of this city. Otto Ragan is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ragan. Mr. and Mrs. Ragan have gone to Eastern Oregon to spend their honeymoon, and will be at home after March 10.

Burch-Smith.
At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Newton Smith, in West Salem, Thursday evening, February 20, at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Jessie Pearl Smith and Warren Burch were united in marriage by the Rev. Henry Babcock, of the First Presbyterian church.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white landsdown with trimmings of rare lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the spacious dining room, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Burch will spend their honeymoon in Rickreall, after which they will go to Portland to reside. Mrs. Burch is an accomplished and highly esteemed young lady, and carries with her the best wishes of a host of friends.

Kitchen Shower.
Miss Marie Muths whose marriage to Louis C. Stringer takes place the latter part of this month, was the guest of honor at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. A. E. Hucksstein Wednesday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated with daffodils, ivy and violets. "Hearts" was played during the afternoon, and a dainty luncheon served. Miss Muths also sang several popular songs in a pleasing manner.

Miss Muths is a charming girl and is very popular among her friends, while Mr. Stringer is one of the progressive young men of the Capital City. The guests were: Marie Muths, Emma Muths, Mildred Lucas, Hattie Hargrove, Ermengard Carey, Myrtle Knowland, Willa Hucksstein and Mrs. Henry St. Helens.

Portland Concert.
Prominent among the social events of the week in Portland will be the concert given by Mr. Frank Eichenslaub, a Vancouver violinist, assisted by Miss Beatrice C. M. Hidden, pianist, at the Heilig theatre, on Wednesday evening, February the 26th. The patronesses, prominent Portland society ladies are: Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. P. I. Maus, Mrs. T. Eggeert, Mrs. Harvey M. Scott, Mrs. H. C. Phillips.

The guests were: Misses Alene Thompson, Elbe Mae King, Marie Hofer, Eva Coshov, of Hood River; Sabine Dent, of Portland, and Messrs Clarence Bishop, George Goodall, Clifford Brown, Mac Hofer and Paul Wallace.

C. B. C. Reception.
The annual reception of the Capital Business College was given by the students, last Saturday night, in their school rooms. The decorations suggested the valentine time, red hearts, with ivy, and ferns being used. The grand march was led by Miss Lulu Brown, and Alfred Schram Games of various kinds were played, and an interesting program given. Refreshments were served.

Birthday Party.
About twenty-three young people were entertained at the home of Mrs. Alfred Hayball, on Court street Wednesday evening, in honor of her daughter Idella's seventeenth birthday. The evening was spent with games, music, and staging of songs, after which a light luncheon was served. Miss Idella received many pretty presents.

Epworth League Entertainment.
The members of the Epworth League of the Leslie M. E. church will give another of their entertainments this evening at the home of Nellie McIntire. Games and music, and the usual joy time that is had at these affairs will be enjoyed. Refreshments will be served.

Assembly Club Dance.
The Assembly Club gives its second dancing party on Wednesday evening, February 16, in the Elks' hall. This will be one of the social events of the week, and will undoubtedly be a very successful affair, and much interest is being shown among the younger society people. McElroy's orchestra is arranging a special program for the event.

Miss Putnam Entertains.
Miss Margaret Putnam entertained about 60 girl friends this afternoon. Various kinds of guessing games was the principal amusement.

CANNOT LOCATE ON THE S. P. LANDS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Bellingham, Wash., Feb. 22.—As a result of an investigation that has been made by Commissioner R. A. Ballinger, of the general land office of the government, at the request of a citizen of Whatcom county, it is announced that the individual who has been collecting a fee of $75 for locating persons on the Southern and Oregon railway land grants is simply imposing on innocent and unsuspecting persons, and that it will be impossible for such persons filing on the lands to secure them.

Advertisements have been sent out under the name of F. P. Rolfe, according to the statements made by the commissioner, that Congressman Tawney, after a conference with the commissioner of the general land office, informed his son that persons so filing could undoubtedly secure the lands. The statements contained in these advertisements are declared to be false.

A CLEVER DEPUTY BUT AN EASY MARK

San Francisco, Feb. 22.—Through the stupidity of Deputy Sheriff Michael Moore, Ralph Borgella, one of the most notorious forgers in the country, escaped from custody yesterday afternoon. Borgella pleaded guilty to two charges of forgery in Judge Duane's court and was given into the charge of Moore to be taken out to cash a draft. Moore took him to the First National bank and then the prisoner asked permission to see a friend who lived in the Barbary Coast district.

The pair proceeded up Kearney street, and at Pine the prisoner invited the deputy in to have a drink of water. Moore accepted cheerfully, and Borgella, becoming bolder, said: "Just wait here a minute," and disappeared into the cellar under the saloon.

Moore waited nearly half an hour for him to return; then he finally realized that the crook might have found some other way out of the place. He rushed down into the cellar and there encountered the proprietor, Robert Sweetman, who informed him that the prisoner had made his escape by climbing a high fence in the rear of the saloon.

A REAL "PEERLESS" ORCHESTRA

Manager Stoudenmeyer's Aggregation One of the Finest in the State.

One thing worthy of special mention which happened the past week is the music furnished by the Peerless orchestra for the boosters' meeting last Tuesday night. It was without a doubt the best orchestra music which has been heard in Salem for years, and the members of the orchestra should be encouraged by all Salem people to try and keep intact such a combination. Its manager, Mr. Stoudenmeyer, has ever tried to better the orchestra and band musicians in Salem, and his violinists, Mr. LeRoy Gesner and Miss Lillie May Stege, are competent to play the principal violin parts in any combination. It takes years of study to
