ALBANY FORBIDS TRANSIENTS

Paul Strain is having a rocky time getting into the clothing trade at Albany. The merchants who are there have tried to run him out by enacting a special ordinance.

The Ordinance Passed.

After the longest session in the history of the city council, that body passed an ordinance intended to prohibit mercantile establishments of a transient character from doing business in the city without paying a high license. The ordinance which was presented by E. H. McCune in behalf of a number of mercantile establishments of the city, provoked much discussion but in the end was passed on suspension of rules. Mayor Wallace signed the bill at once making the ordinance effective.

In accordance with the provisions of the ordinance City Marshall Ries ordered the new mercantile clothing establishment of Paul Strain, which was advertised to open for the first time Thursday morning, not to do business unless they complied with the new ordinance's provisions and paid the high license imposed. The store consequently remained closed but posters of a sensational character, denouncing the action of the council in passing the ordinance, were placed in front of the store on First street. All day a large crowd of citizens blocked the sidewalk by the store interestedly discussing the situation. The store was opened at 1 o'clock this afternoon upon the advice of Mr. Strain's attorney. Mr. Strain wa sarrested and the ordinance will be tested as to its legality in the courts.

Mr. Strain Talks.

"I am here, and here to stay," said Paul Strain. "All the attempts on the part of a few selfish citizens who wish to keep Albany bottled up and see trade of a legitimate character throttled, will not deter me from my purpose. I came to Albany with the intention of doing an up-to-date business and while I have met with some hard knocks right at the commencement of my business, I am by no means discouraged and will go ahead.

"I recognize that there are only a few who wish to keep out new business enterprises and know that the people will stay by me in my wish to transact business here. The rumor that is being persistently circulated about town that I have come to remain only a few weeks has no foundation in fact, I wish to emphasize here and now that I am in Albany to stay, and the attempts to drive me out will only serve to make me stay. At Marshfield I have just started the erection of a $25,000 brick structure and will have the finest establishment on Coos Bay of its kind. My reception at Marshfield was in striking contrast to that I have received here. There I was received with open arms and made a life member of the chamber of commerce. The people there have a fine town and the future of that section is assured."

Text of the Ordinance.

Section 1. All persons, firms or corporations now conducting or who shall hereafter conduct any mercantile establishment within the corporate limits of the city of Albany in which goods wares or merchandise are or shall be offered for sale to the public, shall pay a license therefor as follows:

Twenty-five dollars per day if said business is conducted for a period of not to exceed one week;

Twenty dollars per day if said business shall be conducted for more than one week but not to exceed one month;

Ten dollars per day if said business shall be conducted for more than one month but not to exceed six months; and

One hundred dollars per month if said business shall be conducted for more than six months but not to exceed one year.

Heavy penalties are affixed to compell enforcement.

Neighborhood Favorite.

Mrs. E. D. Charles, of Harbor, Me., speaking of Electric Bitters, says: "It is a neighborhood favorite here with us." It deserves to be a favorite everywhere. It gives quick relief in dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney derangement, malnutrition, nervousness, weakness and general debility. Its action on the blood, as a thorough purifier makes it especially useful as a spring medicine. This grand alterative tonic is sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store; 50c.

AUTO-VIVISECTION

Do You Deliberately Torture Yourself Alive by Neglecting Your Stomach.

Remedy Free for the Asking.

A great outcry has arisen during the last few years against scientists who torture dumb animals alive in the interests of science. How many people are there, however, who needlessly torture themselves by causing their stomachs to overwork. Dyspepsia, indigestion, heartburn, sleeplessness, loss of vim and energy are the inevitable result.

Are you one of these?

Why not give your stomach a rest?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will relieve your stomach of all its work and do it for you. They are compounded of the very elements and do the work which the stomach performs when in normal health, aseptic pepsin, malt diastaste and like ingredients.

Dr Richardson in writing a thesis on treatment of dyspepsia and indigestion, closes his remarks by saying "For those suffering from acid dyspepsia, shown by sour watery risings or for flatulent dyspepsia, shown by gas on stomach, causing heart trouble and difficult breathing, as well as for all other forms of stomach trouble, the safest treatment is to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. I advise them because they contain no harmful drugs, but are composed of valuable digestives, which act promptly upon the food eaten. I never knew a case of indigestion or even chronic dyspepsia which Stuart's Tablets would not reach."

Cheap cathartic medicines claiming to cure dyspepsia aid in digestion can have no effect whatever in actively digesting the food, and to call any cathartic medicine a cure for indigestion is a misnomer.

Every druggist in the United States and Canada sells Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and they are not only the safest and most successful but the most scientific of any treatment for indigestion and stomach troubles.

Price 50 cents a box at all druggists.
