THE TOWN OF NO-GOOD.

Foraytha (Montana) Times.

KIND FRIENDS, HAVE YOU HEARD OF THE TOWN OF NO-GOOD, ON THE BANKS OF THE RIVER SLOW, WHERE THE SOMETIME-OR-OTHER SCENTS THE AIR AND THE SOFT GO-EASIES GROW?

WILL THE PEOPLE FOLLOW THE ADVICE OF THE LEADERS?

So far as The Capital Journal is concerned, it will take anyone's statement that he will be virtuous, honest and good, but not a politician.

The people's choice for senator will be made senator by the legislature nine times out of ten UNDER THE DIRECT PRIMARY LAW AND THE DIRECT ELECTION LAW AND THE MAYS LAW.

But the people will not trust the politician that one time out of ten.

They know if left to their own devices THE POLITICIANS WILL SELL THE PEOPLE OUT TO THE CORPORATIONS.

The farther away one gets from the city of Portland the stronger is the sentiment of distrust for the political managers.

IS THAT THE FAULT OF THE PEOPLE OR OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS?

Here is a little country weekly paper from Tillamook bay. Dolan and Murphy, editors of the Tillamook Herald, have evidently not heard from headquarters, from the wild and woolly way they write about Statement No. 1.

THEY ADMIT THAT THE RULE OF THE PEOPLE IS IN DANGER. But will the people follow the advice of the Oregonian on this matter? IN 1906 THE OREGONIAN ADVISED THE ELECTION OF SENATOR BOURNE, THEN THE CHAMPION OF STATEMENT NO. 1.

Now that paper does all it can to destroy and belittle Senator Bourne.

Senator Bourne is still battling for the same principle, THE ABSOLUTE RULE OF THE POPULAR WILL IN ELECTING SENATORS. Bourne has not changed but the Oregonian has and it wants the people to change with it.

WILL THE PEOPLE OF OREGON CHANGE FRONT WITH THE OREGONIAN?

We publish with amusement the editorial of Dolan and Murphy. It fairly bubbles with good-natured sarcasm at the expense of NON-RESTRAINED LEGISLATURE SENATOR MAKERS.

We hope none of our esteemed anti-Statement No. 1 friends will take offense.

The Oregonian is making an earnest fight upon statement No. 1. That is, in effect, the Oregonian would have the people abdicate the office of selections of United States senators, and relegate it to the legislature.

MARION COUNTY POLITICIANS, A MOST ACTIVE SET, also wish the same thing. There is reason in their case, although an unworthy one. In a hot senatorial contest there be rick pickings. Money flows freely; it fairly dribbles out between lax fingers AND EVERYBODY CAN GET SOME.

"Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy whiskey," equally, to buy a senatorship.

The railroad corporations need United States senators, needs them badly, especially in these perilous and awful times.

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE ARE ONLY WEAK VESSELS OF CLAY.

Some of them have mortgages on their little homes; others are from prohibition counties and their thirst is not easily arranged; few of them are accompanied to the capital by their lawful spouses, and the Josephs are scarce in this vain and lascivious world; OTHERS HAVE TOWN SITES WHICH THEY WILL, INNOCENTLY BOND, TAKING A SUM DOWN IN PAYMENT FOR THE OPTION.

In fact, when a fight is on, several Moses are tapping the rock, the barrell is leaking at spigot and bung hole, and between the staves, AND SALEM PROSPERS ACCORDINGLY.

Even an honest man may hold his pan the right side up WHEN IT RAINS SUCH PORRIDGE.

Alas! the change!!

Members of the legislature no longer have a duty to perform; a duty to be interpreted to them over SPARKLING GLASSES, TOO OFTEN FILLED BY FRAIL, BUT FAIR, OH SO FAIR, HANDS.

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., no longer dispense winning hospitality with lavish hands. NO LONGER DO BALLOTING AND BOOZE run the full 40 days of a session, leaving a taint which endureth forever, and a tune which the merry F. J. Heney can pipe with mirth.

No, the legislature goes soberly to carry out instructions, INSTRUCTIONS WHICH THE MEMBERS PLEDGE THEMSELVES TO OBEY.

A senator chosen by the people is decorously elected.

If the initiative has left anything undone, the legislature does it, in a manner befitting the representatives of a moral, god-fearing community, and goes its way, its members uncorrupted and to be honored.

EVERY VOTER SHOULD DEMAND A STRICT ADHERENCE TO STATEMENT NO. 1, NOTWITHSTANDING THE OREGONIAN AND THE SALEM POLITICAL PUSH CLUB.

The people are all right.

Jim Jones, Micheal Plattery, Ole Olsson, Hans Hansen, Jacob Dinkelpiel, the regular every day voters CAN CHOOSE THEIR OWN SENATORS, AND APPARENTLY WILL DO SO.

ADVERTISING EUGENE

IN EASTERN PAPERS Eugene, Feb. 29.—At the meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial club th proposed trips to Junction City and to Albany were, discussed and President Whitson appointed G. W. Griffin a committee of one to take charge of selling the tickets and arranging the details of the Junction trip, which will take place on Friday next, leaving at 6:41 p. m. and returning at midnight.

The advertising contracted for since the last meeting of the board was submitted in detail. Included in the numerous ads to be published in eastern newspapers are the following:

"Why freeze when you might enjoy flowers all winter? For your family's sake, take the bull by the horns and make up your mind to come to God's country. Remember—you live only once. Then why not live where you can enjoy beautiful nature all the year around? Come to Lane county, Oregon. Over $500 an acre net in cherries on land that cost $30 shows what can be done. Write to Department A, Commercial Club, Eugene, Oregon, for reliable facts."

This ad will appear four times in the following papers: Sunday Tribune, Minneapolis; Kansas City Star, Kansas City, Mo.; Register and Leader, Des Moines; Omaha Bee; Globe-Democrat, St. Louis; Record-Herald, Chicago; New York World; Boston Herald; Cincinnati Enquirer; Cleveland Plain-Dealer; St. Paul Pioneer-Press; Buffalo Express; Indianapolis Star; Grand Forks Herald; Sioux Falls Argus-Leader; Milwaukee Sentinel.

"Why freeze each winter when you might be enjoying flowers? And soil! $30 land produced over $500 an acre net in cherries last year. And scenery! For facts write Department A, Commercial Club, Eugene, Oregon."

The above ad will appear in "Everybody's" and "Munsey's" magazines April number issued in March.

There is to be a fourth page ad in the April number of "Better Fruit," a half page ad in the March number of the same publication, and other ads in the St. Joseph, Mo., "Fruit Grower," "Munsey's," "Everybody's," and the "Automaat," published at Rotterdam, Holland, with 200,000 readers.

merymaking tonight, the event being a meeting of the Pilgrims of the United States. Whitelaw Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, was the principal speaker.

Much of the fun of the evening was afforded by Mark Twain. Mr. Clemens said that he was gratified that congress was about to restore to the coinage the words "In God We Trust." He continued: "I knew that we would get into difficulty if we left those words off, and straightway the trouble came. The prosperity of the whole nation went down in a pile when we ceased to trust God in that conspicuous and well advertised way. If Pierpont Morgan had not stepped in just then! Now that we have resumed our trust in God we will discharge Mr. Morgan from his high office of honor.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is In Preserving Health and Beauty. Costs Nothing to Try

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the cleansing purposes.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but 25 cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."
