ENTERTAINMENT DRAMATIC AND SOCIAL

"Rose of Savoy" Monday Night.

A good comic opera is always enjoyable. The "Rose of Savoy" is a bright musical piece translated from the Italian. The scene is laid in Milan, Italy, in a dress-making parlor. The modistes are busy finishing a dress to be worn that same evening by the famous prima donna, Catrina at the great opera house, "The La Scala." While thus busy, a flower girl, Jaquiline, calls to sell flowers and tells of her native home, Savoy. The prima donna calls for her dress and while there sings a solo for the modistes. The flower girl and the prima donna meet and prove to be sisters, long separated by misfortune. They review the old Savoyan melodies and decide to return to their old home and live happily together. The opera is bright and tuneful, the scenes interesting and animated and voices bright, fresh and clear. Mrs. Hug and Miss Browning take the leading solo parts while a chorus of 12 young ladies make the choruses very brilliant. Time 40 minutes. This will make a very pleasant second part to a concert whose first part is composed of heavy and more serious music of the best grade. Next Monday evening at the opera house.

Delta Pi Dance.

The Delta Pi sorority girls of Albany gave a dancing party last Friday night in Buzzard's hall. It is an annual affair and was largely attended by students and young society people from many of the valley towns. Charming electric lighting effects were obtained and with the other decorations and pretty costumes worn by the young ladies made a very pretty scene. Those attending from Salem were: Mrs. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Miss Bessie Schultz, Dr. Seymour Skiff and Ralph Crouse.

Five Hundred Party.

Miss Winifred Byrd was hostess at a "500" party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Grace Carter of Hood River. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. Jan Wilson. Little Helen West attended the door. The guests were: Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. C. L. McNary, Mrs. Chancy Bishop, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Jr., Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. Geo. Rose, Mrs. L. Westcott, Mrs. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Dr. Tansie, Mrs. O. West, Mrs. F. Lorell, Mrs. Homer Smith, Miss Althea Moores, Miss Ruth Gatch, Miss Alice Thompson, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Louisa Moreland, Miss Mabel Robertson, Miss Grace Rineman, Miss Grace Byrd, Miss Blanche Brown, Miss Bertha Byrd.

George Washington Ball.

The cadet officers of O. A. C. gave their annual George Washington ball in their armory last Saturday evening. It was a jolly affair, and was attended by young people from many of the valley towns. Those going from here were: Misses Grotta Looney, Ryth Gatch, Jessie Keeton, Mildred Perkins, Bessie Schultz, Mary Wann, Bertha Allen and Messrs. Paul Stahl, Frank Harritt, Fred Cary and Clifford Benson.

Informal Evening.

Mrs. William Brown entertained some of her friends Tuesday evening in an informal manner. They found cards and music most interesting, but not more so than a dainty luncheon, over which they chatted a bit longer. The guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eldridge, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. Rudolph Prael of Portland, Miss Mabel Withycombe of Corvallis, Miss Clare Jones of Labish Meadows, and Messrs. Paul B. Wallace, Clifford Brown and George Goodall.

Birthday Party.

A lively birthday party was tendered John Schlinder by his wife and many friends last Thursday. The affair took place in the Schlinder home at Michigan City, and the following were among those present: Mr. and Mrs. James Imlah, of West Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of McCoy; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitchell of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Burton of Salem, Miss Frances Lambert and Miss Mabel Tate of Salem.

Artisan Dramatic Club.

The Artisan Dramatic Club is rehearsing two evenings per week, under the direction of Mrs. Albert Salt and Chester Catlow, and during the spring months expect to give several performances in this and other cities of the valley in a manner which will not only be a credit to the members of the club and Capital Assembly, but also an honor to Salem.

Apollo Club Will Sing.

The Apollo Club, under the direction of Dr. R. A. Heritage, will make its first formal appearance before the Salem public Monday evening at the opera house. The club is composed of 14 excellent male voices and will doubtless be among the "hits" on the College of Music benefit program.

Elks in Black Face.

There is trouble in the committee which is handling the Elks minstrel. Professional jealousy is the cause of it. Frank Durbin is jealous of Harry Olinger. It will be remembered that the committee printed a portrait of Harry as a star comedian. Durbin took exception to this and declared he was being discriminated against. He claims all the privileges of the star himself. He says that his past record in minstrelry entitles him alone to all newspaper exploitation, cab to and from the theater, the star dressing room, etc.

To keep peace in the company, the managers are constrained to print a photograph of Actor Durbin with a short sketch of his career, which will undoubtedly be of interest to the community.

FRANK DURBIN

Who will sing a touching ballad, entitled "What Right Has a Man With Whiskers to Put Butter on HIS GREEN COAT?"

Frank Durbin first saw the light of day in the wilds of Kola. His precocity was wonderful and he was early discovered to have a voice of wonderful power and carrying quality. In fact, he is said to have given an exhibition of his vocal abilities on the day of his birth, and then and there it was decided that he be an ornament to the stage (coach). He was sent to Paris (Texas) and under the tutelage of the most famous masters, his voice became developed, so that at the age of five, he was able to ask for anything he wanted (to eat). He is a living exponent of what good food will do for a man and is an example for future generations.

After having appeared before all the crowned heads of Europe and Albany, he returned to his native country and was received with much "eclat" (what ever that means). He is now considered the wonder of the age and the marvel of the century. This is his last season with the Elks, as he has signed with Manager Hammerstein for the Manhattan Opera company next season. The expression of his face, pictured above, is characteristic of him and denotes happiness.

Surprise Party.

Delma Viesko was pleasantly surprised by her friends on Thursday evening at her home on South Liberty street. The evening was spent with music and various games, until the supper was served, for which the ladies choose their partners by drawing numbers from a fish pond. The guests were the Misses Ola Arnold, Grace Dune, Mable O'Fling, Mable Rasmussen, Elsie Dencer, Viola DeLaney, Laura Bennett, Agnes West, LaVerna DeWitt, Elsie Smith, Mildred Lucas, Maud Evans, Rosa Viesko, Sylvia Viesko, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. G. Viesko, Mrs. Newberry and Messrs. Leroy Page, Elmer Dene, Willie Daniels, Leo Unruh, Elno Miles, Ed. Keeth, Charley Parker, Harry Counts, Fred Taylor, Lucas Smith, Everett Arnold, Walter Page, George Keeton, Ray West, Paul Rasmussen, Milo Rasmussen, Clarence Giles, Frank DeWitt, Martin Viesko, Ed. Viesko.

RETRIEVE BROKEN FORTUNES

(United Press Leased Wire.)

New York, Feb. 29.—Charles W. Morse got to work in dead earnest today to put new life in his shattered fortunes and save his millions of dollars in securities from being slaughtered by forced sales.

He has worked out a plan by which he hopes to pay off all the depositors of the National Bank of North America with a minimum of delay, and then take that institution out of the hands of Receiver Hanna, so that its assets can be liquidated in a way that will bring the stockholders a substantial return.

The essence of it provides that the stockholders shall raise $3,500,000 at once among themselves, which is the amount necessary to pay off the depositors.

If these creditors help him, Morse claims they will be assured of getting 100 cents upon the dollar, whereas, if his securities are dumped upon the market, the amount each creditor will realize will be problematical.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Favorite.

"We prefer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury of Twining, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup, and we take pleasure in recommending it." For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.
