The Apollo Club.

In the past two months several concerts have been working faithfully to select a number who had good hard practice and form and who make good club. After changes and many discouragements the following singers have organized themselves into a permanent organization bearing the name of "the Apollo Club" of Salem. First

"The Virginian" Wednesday Night.
"The Virginian," a dramatic version of Owen Wistar's fascinating story of the wild west, comes to Salem Wednesday night.

As is well known to the majority of theater-goers, "The Virginian" in its dramatized form is in four acts-- the first at Uncle Hewie's house, the second at Judge Henry's ranch, the third act at the camp of the horse thieves and the Fourth in Medicine Bow, Wyoming. The play version was arranged by Kike La Shelle, assisted by the author. In the matter of atmosphere, as a reproduction of life on the unfenced range of the early '80s, the play is true to its subject in every particular. W. H.
Hart's characterization of the western range rider has been pronounced exquisite in its many sincerity and an ideal conception of Owen Wistar's hero. The play is known to be a carefully studied depiction of types and scenes in the far west when most of the states were then territories. The characters are skillfully drawn and there is none of the highly colored material usually associated with stage portrayals of life on the plains. In the matter of characterization "The Virginian" is especially rich. Trampas, Steve, Honey Wiggins and the other cowboys now so familiar to amusement seekers are living, moving beings--types of the west as could be found there in the early '80s.

The story relates principally to the love of the Virginian for Molly Wood, the pretty Vermont school teacher, and of the hatred of Tramp-

Frank Campeau, in "The Virginian" pas, the villainous cattle thief, for the Virginian. The third act has proved one of the strongest and most talked about dramatic scenes shown on the stage in recent years. Steve, who was the pal of the Virginian, has gone wrong; Trampas has induced him to become a cattle thief and the two with another couple of outlaws are encamped at Horse Thief Pass, as they suppose, miles away from the vigilance committee pursuing them. They are, however, tracked to their hiding place by the Virginian at the head of the vigilantes.

It is part of his duty to assist in the lynching of his old friend and comrade. The scene is extremely touching, being of exceptional power and pathos, for it is well known that Steve is more sinned against than sinning, having been led astray by the stronger will of Trampas. This episode of "The Virginian" has probably called forth more merited praise than any dramatic scene produced on the stage or recent years.

The Kirke Le Shelle company is headed by W. S. Hart, who seems almost to have been created for the title role, which he so successfully portrays. The impression of physical strength, of manly self-reliance, of honor, amiable aggressiveness and of resourcefulness so essential to the true character of the Virginian, seems to have found a suitable expression through the portrayal of this cowboy hero by Mr. Hart.
Frank Campeau, who is a real cowboy, will be seen in his original role of Trampas and many of the original company have been retained.

The Passion Play.
"The Passion Play" is given by believing Christians in the original as a sacred duty, and is acted accordingly. Everything in connection with it is in a reverent spirit, as characterizes Easter services in some great chatedral, and it is reproduced in the same spirit here in Salem in living pictures and with the best of music. By seeing "The Passion Play" thus one can learn more Biblical history in a short time than in any other way.

"The Passion Play," as here reproduced, has received the highest indorsement of ministers the world over, irrespective of denominations, and also of leading college professors, as being historically correct, according to the Scriptures. Friday and Saturday nights at the Grand opera house.

Elks' Minstrels.
Rehearsals for the minstrel show to be given by the Elks on March 9th and 10th, are moving along very satisfactorily, and are developing a surprising lot of talent. The most distinguishing feature of this entertainment will be the utter absence of amateurishness. The equipment is strictly professional in every respect and there is nothing even to the slightest detail of makeshift character. Generally an amateur minstrel show, shows weakness in the second part of the performance, but in this respect the Elks will be strong, as they have arranged for a second part which will easily be as good as not better than the first part.
The local flavor will predominate throughout, and many a prominent Elk will "get his." Electrical and stage effects are introduced in this production, which are entirely new to this section of the country and all the jokes and songs are new and up-to-the-minute. Take it all in all, this offering by the boys will be the real thing and will long be remembered in Salem.

H. W. MEYERS
Who Will "Shine" With the Elks.

The above well known artist has consented to appear with the Elks' Minstrels, for this engagement only.
His work is too well known to comment upon and his engagement is only another proof that the boys are going to deliver the good. He will deliver his well known lecture on "Street Paving," which is alone worth the price.

No Difference.
No distinction is made as to the kind of Piles that Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid cures.
The names Internal, External, Bleeding, Blind, Itching, Suppurating, etc., are simply names of the different stages through which every case will pass if it continues long enough.
Piles are caused by congestion or stagnation of blood in the lower bowel, and it takes an internal remedy to remove the cause.
Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally. It is a permanent cure. Money back if it fails.
Price $1.00 at druggists. Dr. Leonhardt Co., Niagara Falls, N. Y., Proprietors. Sold by Dr. S. C. Stone, Salem.

New Wiring Firm.
Lee S. Hyde, who for the past year was the efficient assistant manager of the Western Electrical & Manufacturing company, will return in a few days from Los Angeles, where he has been visiting, and will open a first class establishment for doing electric wiring and general repair work.
Mr. Hyde and those who will be associated with him are competent and reliable workmen and will doubtless soon build up a business which will be a factor in making Greater Salem.

No Use to Die.
"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboror, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung disease even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at J. C. Perry's drug store; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

GIRLS' ALL-VALLEY
BASKETBALL TEAM.

An all-high school girls' basketball team for Oregon, as selected from opinions of the merits of the respective players in the four valley high school lives for the season of 1907 and 1908 is as follows:

Forwards, Bending, Albany, and Black, Roseburg; center, Rudolph, of Salem; guards, McBride, Albany and Hannan, Roseburg.

Martin, of Albany, during the first of the season outshine all guards in the league by her brilliant playing, but in the last few games received injuries which rather weakened her work. McBride, of Albany, is chosen because of her defensive work, as well as her ability to throw baskets.
Bending, Albany's fast little forward, is undoubtedly the most brilliant forward in the league this year, and no other player in the league has secured so many points for her team this season. Hannan, of Roseburg, has played a consistent guard all season, and her work in the game with Albany in this city was first-class.
Black, of Roseburg, is a forward who has done especially good playing this year and is entitled to a place in the team. Rudolph, of Salem, outclassed all opponents at center, and the place is naturally given to her.
There are a number of other players who have done creditable work, but, according to opinions from all sources, as far as possible to obtain, the team above selected fairly represents the greatest strength in the girls' basketball league.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeable and Effective.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S.
Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than 20 years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other."

In Douglas county the central committee regards Statement No. 1 as cumbrous and expensive.

Good for Everybody.
Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine.
It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled;

MINISTER
TACKLES
TRUSTS

The Southern Pacific Company, in particular, the Illinois Steel Corporation and the trusts and other illegal combinations, in general, were severely flayed and their death-knell sounded by Rev. Phillip Bauer, pastor of the First Congregational church, in his talk before the Young Men's Christian Association of this city yesterday afternoon.

The lecture was on "Half Dust and Half Deity," and the pastor was urging on his hearers the necessity of getting dominion--honest dominion. "When I say 'dominion,' I mean honest dominion, not like these enormous combinations, which have more than they have a right to, and which are going to be curbed," he said. As a remedy for the evil, Dr.
Bauer suggests the education--the political education of the people.

"The people are gradually getting educated to" politics, and how to handle these illegal corporations, and the latter are going to be cured. This Southern Pacific Company, which has had the state of Oregon in its grip, has got to be controlled. They have the worst service in the world on the West Side road, on which they run bobbing, uncomfortable trains, which would not be tolerated in any other part of the country.

Particular attention was called by the speaker to the Forest Grove wreck of a short time ago, as "the Southern Pacific Company, I believe, were responsible for that wreck, owing to the faulty condition of the roadbed."

Dr. Bauer has but recently been appointed pastor of his church in this city, and this is the first public expression of his feelings regarding the great corporations.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for 20 years justice of the peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

Yamhill county will hold another

Race Suicide

ulation that deaths among infants are. And eight out of ten of these deaths are directly or indirectly tery, sour-stomach and all infant ailments of this nature. Just the dorsed a platform Saturday that voters choice for United States senator, whether it is Fulton, Cake or U'Ren. Cake has come out for Best Healer in the World.

Rev. F. Starbird of East Raymond, Moine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Linn county Democrats are active.
The county central committee met Saturday and M. L. Miller has come out for Statement No. 1. He will vote for a Republican if he is the popular choice.

Do Not Crowd the Season.

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sun shine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in midwinter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it.
For sale at Dr. Stone's drug store.

It is not reported on Harriman's birthday that he ordered 300 miles
