ELKS' GALA NIGHT

Tonight at the Grand Opera House When the curtain goes up at 8:30 tonight at the Grand Opera house on the minstrel show which the Elks will give, the immense audience gathered there will witness the real thing and in about a minute, they will be wise to the fact that there is

W. CARLTON SMITH, Exalted Ruler, notifying the Public to reserve their seats at once.

"something doing." No makeshift scenery or costumes, but an elaborate equipment, the equal of the best and the performers will not have to depend upon the applause of their friends, because they are friends, but the audience by the merits of the show will be forced to applaud spontaneously and because it is really deserved. No pains have been spared to make this the greatest event of like nature the Elks have ever undertaken. The first part will be in regulation style with the orchestra on the stage and Dr. W. Carlton Smith in the center as interlocator, flanked on either side and to the rear with the members of the company. The end men who will entertain with jest and song are Messrs. Milo Aatterbury, Sam L. Morgan, "Dell" Dinamore, L. R. Steelhammer, Chas. E. Bier, E. Cook Patton,

Harry Olinger.

Clint Draper, Dave Yantis and Harry Miller. The ballads are in the capable hands of Messrs. R. A. Heritage, F. D. Deckebach, J. F. Hughes, H. W. Waters (assisted by Opal Goin and Leon Culbertson) and F. W. Durbin. The finale of the first part introduces a beautiful picture effect that is original and very pleasing. Among others who materially add to the success of the show is Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, who will sing some song successes with a novel effect. There has been a fine sale of seats, but there are still some good ones left. The second night there will be a considerable change of program.

Mr. John Riba of Visalia, Ia., says "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by all druggists.

Good for Everybody. Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect in the Delbert building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled; 50c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
