BUSINESS INTERESTS COMPROMISE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, March 13.—Legislation of great importance to the business world, to railroads and labor organizations is promised as the result of a series of conferences which have been held at the White House. These conferences have had to do with the proposed amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law, which in the opinion of many public men, including the President, railroad managers and many labor leaders, is too drastic in some places. Hence President Roosevelt, in line with his general policy of seeking consultation with conflicting interests, has encouraged conferences on the subject, and considerable progress has been made, and it is probable a measure amending the anti-trust law will be introduced in the house very soon by Chairman Hepburn, of the committee on interstate commerce.

Some of the modifications to be urged are to permit proper consolidations of connecting railroads, to exempt labor organizations from classification as conspiracies in restraint of trade.

'FRISCO FIGHTING THE PLAGUE

East street on the bay front, after Rear-Admiral Evans and his man arrive here, according to plans decided upon by the board of harbor commissioners.

Admiral Glass and Captain Perkins have declared themselves to be heartily in favor of the idea. The marines will act as guides to the blue-jackets, directing those who come ashore, and also those bound back to the ships. The commissioners announced that the fleet could utilize any part of the wharf space it needed, and then discussed with Admiral Glass a new arrangement for the anchorage of the fleet.

Instead of being strung out in a long line from Mission Rock to Hunters Point, the 40 ships will be anchored eight abreast in man-of-war row. This arrangement has been made possible by the surrender by the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe railroads of the fairway set apart for their freight ferriss.

Fighting the Plague.

The fund that is being raised to carry on the campaign in San Francisco against the bubonic plague has been swelled to $91,717 by contributions of $10,750 by eight banks.

Other financial institutions have promised to make liberal donations, so that the $20,000 pledged by San Francisco banks is within reach by those in charge of the campaign. Subscriptions are rolling in so rapidly that it is expected that the $500,000 the campaigners hoped to raise will soon be in their hands. The warm weather has increased the bubonic flea to such an alarming rate that the federal officers have redoubled their efforts to stamp out the disease.

Hundreds of members of fraternal organizations will hold a mass meeting March 24 to discuss the menacing situation, and make plans.

THE THAW FAMILY IS BROKEN UP

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Pittsburg, Pa., March 13.—The Thaw family has abandoned all thoughts of attempting to fight Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Thaw. The family is broken up, and the apparent intention of Evelyn to muck-rake her husband's life and air all the scandal possible is said to have driven the elder Mrs. Thaw almost to destruction. So complete has been her breakdown, that she will go to California in a few days to join her son, Josiah, at Pasadena.

Meanwhile, it is said, that Evelyn has been warned that if she proceeds with her suit quietly all will be well, but that if she persists in breaking into print she may encounter difficulties undreamed of.

MURDERED WOMAN FOR DIAMOND

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Monterey, Cal., March 13.—Confronted with what appears to be a murder mystery, the entire police force of this city is trying to learn how Mrs. Frank Sego, whose body was found in the bay by a fisherman, came to her death.

Mrs. Sego left her home for a walk Wednesday night and did not return. A searching party suspected that she had been murdered, when they found a pool of blood among the rocks between Monterey and Pacific Grove, but no trace of the woman could be found until C. J. Kedotte pulled the body to the surface of the bay with a fish hook. The absence of a diamond ring which Mrs. Sego was wearing when she disappeared and a knife wound on her neck have convinced her friends that she was murdered, probably before she was thrown into the water.

Mrs. Sego was the wife of a saloon keeper.

STANFORD STUDENT REBELLING

Stanford University, Cal., March 13.—Denouncing the edict forbidding liquor on the campus or in the clubs of fraternity houses, and with their procession lit up by green and red fires, the Stanford University students participated in a noisy demonstration in front of the home of Professor Clark and continued until after midnight this morning.

The students gathered around the Clark home and refused to leave until Mrs. Clark came to the door and told them that her husband was not in. The protestants, singing loudly, then returned to the Quad, where the demonstration was renewed, stamping through the library, lock-stepping around the arcades and hissing any mention or the student affairs committee, of which Professor Clark is the head.

DIED FIGHTING FOR HIS CLAIMS.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, March 13.—Death has claimed John Smithmeyer, ending his years' fight to get the pay he claims he was entitled to for his services in designing the library of congress, one of the most magnificent buildings in the world. When the famous designer died yesterday he had under consideration new plans, which, he thought, might induce congress to recognition of his claim.

TEDDY HAS NO SOFT SAWDER

diase between the President and E. H. Harriman, and stating that henceforth the soft side of the "big stick" would be applied to the "malefactors of great wealth," is branded today by those in the best position to know at the White House as a fake pure and simple.

Though the trick was of course too small to make possible any official denial, it is said that he regards the story as a political move of his enemies, who have seized his attempts to restore confidence and quell the financial flurry as compromises with the enemies of the administration.

From the highest authority it can be said that no move has been made by the president or by any member of his cabinet that could possibly be so construed by unprejudiced persons, and as for the possibility of a restoration of friendly relations between Harriman and Roosevelt, those on the inside only smile at the suggestion.

Probable Origin of Tale.

In accordance with his promise made recently, President Roosevelt has sent to the house committee a letter urging that that body recommend an adequate appropriation to reimburse E. H. Harriman and the Southern Pacific railroad for the large amount of money that system paid out in making repairs in the Colorado river.

The railroad claims that it expended $1,600,000 in controlling the waters of the river, and that in so doing prevented the inundation of the Imperial valley, in Southern California.

POOL ROOM ROBBER HELD UP AND ROBBED.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

El Centro, Cal., March 13.—To be held up and robbed in his place of business, and then compelled to march six weary miles into the barren desert, under constant threats of death, was the ill fortune of John Larkins, who conducts a pool room here, and his negro porter.

Late last night Larkins was confronted by two holdup men, who forced him to open the safe. After taking all the money, $400, the robbers marched Larkins and the negro porter across the desert to Heber, where the desperadoes disappeared.

SENTENCED TO TERM IN THE U. S. NAVY.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

RUSSIAN JEW WHO CREATED A PANIC.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, March 13.—During the celebration of early mass in St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic church today A. Wendum, a Russian Jew, caused a stampede of worshippers, in which a number of women were trampled upon. During the most impressive part of the service the man jumped to his feet, waved his arms about his head and shouted wildly: "Down with all Catholics and priests." He was quickly overpowered and placed under arrest. After an examination the police stated that he is insane, evidently made so by reading the details of the murder of Father Leo at Denver.

GREAT GOLD FIND NEAR SAN DIEGO.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Diego, Cal., March 13.—The demand for teams by the gold seekers rushing to the new El Dorado, is depleting the local supply. Dozens of teams, drawing supplies and mining paraphernalia, left the city today for the gold camp. Reports of the finding of rich ore is daily drawing hundreds to the district, and scores of claims have been filed.

Wyatt Earp, the famous Nevada gun fighter and prospector, who arrived from Dulzura, says the camp has the best surface indications he ever saw.

STATE CONSTABULARY CLASH IN NEVADA.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Reno, Nev., March 13.—The first clash between the newly authorized state police and the local city authorities has resulted in the arrest of Chief of Police Sparks, of Reno, on complaint of Captain Cox, of the state forces. Chief Sparks, who is out on bail today, is accused by Captain Cox of refusing to take charge of prisoners arrested by the state police for illegal fishing. Cox threatens to press his charges, and have the police official ousted.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Diego, Cal., March 13.—The big supply ship Cilago arrived in this port today from Magdalena bay, and at once began taking on board tons of provisions for the fleet, the "piece de resistance" being two carloads of sausages.

BAD CHECK ARTIST

here today from the police of the city, and Philadelphia was a close second, with a request that he be sent back to the Quaker city to answer for some of the bad checks he accused of passing. At the trial the man was defended by the Bankers' Association, and the manager of the hotel he is accused of swindling, it is more than probable that he will be sent East to face his accusers.

The management of the St. Francis Hotel has indicated it will prosecute Mrs. Wilson because the silverware found in her possession, and it is probable that she will be released. She declared that her maiden name was Sarah and that she has a brother living in Sannyside, Wash. Her first husband, according to Mrs. Wilson, was a Baptist minister named Webb, who now has a church in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Unknown in Boston.

Boston, Mass., March 13.—Nothing is known here of the man arrested in San Francisco under the name of H. Mortimer Wilson, Governor Guild, whose name Wilson is accused of having forged, says that he has no knowledge of the man, and never employed him as his secretary. Inquiry in the various newspapers where Wilson might have been employed as a stenographer shows that he was unknown here. Officials of the Shawmut Bank, at which Wilson drew his check, say they never heard of the man since his arrest.

RAILROAD STRIKE ON MEXICAN CENTRAL.

Mexico City, Mex., March 13.—A strike of trainmen on the Mexican Central railroad is likely to be called unless an order is rescinded which has just been issued by President Peiton, prohibiting conductors and other train employes from wearing "emblems of secret or other organizations" while on duty.

The men are told that the president considered "bad form." General indignation exists among the employes, most of whom are American, as they regard this as an attempt to interfere with personal rights.
