

PEOPLE STANDING BY TAFT

DEMAND FAIR PLAY

THE BIG WAR SECRETARY MORE NEARLY THAN ALL STANDS FOR THE INTERESTS OF THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION AND AGAINST THE BIG LAWLESS INTERESTS.

It is perfectly natural that Mr. Adams, who is himself a lawyer of the Harriman family, should have refused to enter into any complimentary to the secretary of the Roosevelt administration.

It was made by plain Bob Adams of North Salem, an anti-trust No. 1 delegate, who is a member of Wm. H. Taft's committee and was seconded by at least a dozen other delegates when "No, no," came from the corner where sat Mr. Bingham and other bosses.

Mr. Adams-Bingham variety of politics has its way the state and Taft. But is that the wish of the great mass of Republicans in Oregon?

Whether Mr. Taft will or should be nominated for the Presidency is a matter for the convention of his party. Whether he should be fairly elected in the ante-convention caucus is another matter. The news-people have a say in that matter.

on him. The old pictured spelling book which set forth the great number of clubs thrown at fruit under the tree, conceded it to be the best tree and to bear the richest fruit. As the leading candidate, Mr. Taft attracts the warmest support and provokes the most spirited attacks, but the attacks are a mistake all the same, and are not aiding the cause of Mr. Taft's legitimate and courteous rivals.

There is another matter to be regarded. William H. Taft is not to be blamed for standing by Theodore Roosevelt. The latter is not to be blamed for preferring Mr. Taft. Mr. Taft is the appointee of Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt has sustained the acts of Mr. Taft. The Roosevelt administration is the 'estate, the test and responsibility of Republicanism. Republicanism and Rooseveltism are indistinguishable in the front the party must turn toward the world in the nearing canvass.

Were Mr. Taft to attempt to ignore or seek even inferentially to attack Mr. Roosevelt, selfishness and an inconsistency would be revealed foreign to the candor and to the justice of the secretary of war. Were Mr. Roosevelt to try to undermine Mr. Taft, selfishness would be illustrated to a degree that could not be exaggerated; or temperately characterized. Ingratitude in politics is bad policy. In character it is a base quality. Neither man can be accused or suspected of ingratitude. We are glad that Mr. Taft has neither shown it nor can be regarded as capable of it.
